J. F. FORD, Evangelist,
Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:
S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.
Gentlemen:
On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like its work well. S. B. Cough Cure has cured it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are for yours,
Yours, Mr. & Mrs. J. F. Ford.
If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.
Sold under a positive guarantee.

PRENDERGAST GUILTY
Mayor Harrison's Assassin Sentenced to Death.
MRS. LEASE ANSWERS LEWELLING
She Has Written a Caustic Letter to the Kansas Governor—Other News Happenings.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Attorney Trude, in the Prendergast case, resumed his closing argument for the prosecution this morning. In the course of his remarks he had occasion to refer to Henry George, the great single-tax advocate, whom he characterized as a migratory pestilential paranoiac.
Judge Brentano began his charge to the jury at 1 P. M.
The verdict of the jury in the Prendergast case is guilty, with a sentence of death.
Mrs. Lease Answers Back.
TOPEKA, Dec. 29.—Mrs. Lease sent Governor Lewelling the following letter this afternoon anent her removal from the board of trustees of state charitable institutions:
"Disclaiming any intention of questioning your authority, the wisdom of your acts or the integrity of your purposes, I beg leave to remind you that you have, as chief executive of this state, tried and sentenced me without according me that which the law of the land accords the vilest criminal—the right of defense. Were I an employe of yours, your right to perpetrate this act of injustice might depend upon your inclination. As it is, I recognize the fact that I am an employe of the state, accountable as such to the people of the state for my official record, and for them as well as myself I demand a statement and investigation of the charges preferred against me, that I may have an opportunity to concede the manifest justice of your decree, or defend myself from the imputation of hiring politicians."

HORSEWHIPPED THE MAYOR.
An Angry Woman Lashes the City's Chief Executive.
ESCANABA, Mich., Dec. 29.—Mayor P. M. Peterson of this city, was horsewhipped on the principal business street Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. V. Seide. The scene was witnessed by scores of people. After he had received a few lashes, Peterson drew a revolver on his assailant, but this only seemed to give the infuriated woman renewed vigor, for she shouted: "You dare not shoot, you coward." As each word escaped her lips the lash was applied. Peterson has been in the furniture business here for over 12 years, was elected county treasurer in 1888, and is now president of the Scandinavian society of this city. Mrs. Seide is secretary of the local branch of the W. C. T. U. Her husband, who was an eye-witness of the horsewhipping proceedings, is a clerk in a well-known dry goods house in Escanaba. The affair has created great excitement. Peterson has a wife and several children. He has had Seide and his wife arrested on a charge of assault and battery. Mrs. Seide claims to have a letter from Peterson of a damaging character. The case will be heard in the justice court on Tuesday.

Madeline Pollard's Mother.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 29.—In an interview with the mother of Madeline Pollard, the girl who is suing Representative Breckinridge for breach of promise, she exhibited a letter from her son, who is in Washington, in which he said the case would never come to trial. Mrs. Pollard says she has not seen Madeline for seven years, and that she wrote to her when the scandal came out never to even think of her as her mother again. Mrs. Pollard has retained since then, and has recently written her daughter in a milder way.
In Glass.
That's the way Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets come. And it's more important than you think. It keeps them always fresh and reliable, unlike the ordinary pills in cheap wooden, or pasteboard boxes.
They're put up in a better way, and they act in a better way, than the huge, old-fashioned pills. No griping, no violence, no reaction afterward that sometimes leaves you worse than before. In that way, they cure permanently. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved and cured.
They're tiny, sugar-coated granules, compound of refined and concentrated vegetable extracts—the smallest in size, the easiest to take, and the cheapest pill you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.
There's nothing likely to be "just as good."

CHRIS EVANS' ESCAPE.
The Notorious Robber is Making for the Mountains.
FRESNO, Cal., Dec. 29.—The escape of Chris Evans from the Fresno county jail last night is still the sensation of the hour. Sheriff Scott, who was in the south assisting in running down the Roscoe robbers, was telegraphed about the escape, when he started for home, arriving here at 2:40 this morning.
A report comes from Sanger that Evans was seen early this morning going up the King's river Lumbering company's flume and heading for his old quarters at Sampson flat. While it is believed to be Evans' destination, the rumor is discredited. No arrests have yet been made. A thick fog prevails, which is favorable to the fleeing criminals. Marshal Morgan is resting easy. His wounds are not thought to be dangerous. A report has been received at the sheriff's office that the cart in which Evans and Morrell escaped from Fresno has come into Sanger without occupants. This, if true, indicates beyond a doubt that the men shaped their course for the Sierra Nevadas. The direct road from here to the mountains passes within a mile of Sanger on the north. The men probably drove opposite Sanger, and then turned the horse loose and proceeded on foot. Sanger is 15 miles from Fresno, and six from the foot of the mountains.

OFFICERS THINK THEY HAVE HIM.
Sheriff Scott and posse, who went to Sanger on a special train, are calling for more deputies, and the rumor that the bandit is surrounded in King's river bottom seems well founded. Sheriff's officers here seem to think Evans will be in custody before night. A girl named Lee, a sister of the young man who had been seen riding around with Morrell, the waiter who held up the jailer, has been arrested as an accomplice in the Evans jail delivery. Officers are after the brother. The reticence of the officials makes it difficult to obtain minute details about the arrests of suspects. It is understood, however, that in addition to the arrest of the Lee girl, two boys named Hutchinson are in custody. One of these, Jimmy, is the head of the house where the whole plan of escape was concocted, and is a brother-in-law to the Lee girl. He lives on Q street, five blocks from the courthouse.
Their Relations Strained.
ROME, Dec. 29.—A high personage of the vatican, in an interview today, said: "The relations between the pope and the czar are at this moment very much strained. In July last the pope wrote the czar an autograph letter, in which he complained of the persecutions of Roman Catholics in Poland. It was written in a very sharp way. Leo XIII declared to the czar that if the persecutions did not cease he would be compelled to protest solemnly in the face of Europe against the intolerance of the czar. The czar became frightened, and has just sent to Rome the Catholic Bishop of Tiraspol, a persona grata at St. Petersburg, to speak a good word to the pope and dissuade him from putting the project into execution."

Three Tourists Lost Their Lives.
VIENNA, Dec. 29.—Three tourists lost their lives in attempting to ascend the higher of the two peaks of Gross Glockner. Dr. Kohn's body has been recovered, but that of his companions, believed to have been named Pick and Dr. Passau, were not found.
Gladstone's Birthday.
LONDON, Dec. 29.—Gladstone is 84 years old today. He is in excellent health. Telegrams, messages and cards of congratulations are pouring in on him from all parts. The queen, Prince and Princess of Wales, and prominent members of both English political parties have tendered congratulations.
Old Man Afraid of the Voters.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 29.—When asked his opinion of the Prendergast verdict, Governor Altgeld said: "I know nothing about the case except what I have read in the newspapers, and, therefore, cannot give any opinion in regard to the verdict."
