DECEMBER DOTS.

Spicy Newslets Garnered from a Reporter's Note Book.

The world a scanty pittance gives Its teachers, priests and scholars, But Patti sings one little song And gets $1,000.

Mercury in the 50s.

December's as pleasant as May.

Mr. Roy's lecture is postponed till Tuesday night.

THE CHRONICLE wishes all of its many readers a Happy New Year.

Portland newspapers speak very highly of the Stutz dramatic company.

A splendid supper will be served at the New Year ball of the Jackson Engine Co.

T. J. Thompson of Goldendale proposes to put in five acres of hops as an experiment next year.

Don't forget the New Year's entertainment at the M. E. church this evening at 8 o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

Prof. O'Glenn has given it out to some of his friends that he will organize a grand terpsichore. Look out for him.

Some of the mail routes in Lane county will generally be carried at a loss to the men who have been awarded the contracts.

Superintendent McElroy was presented with a handsome Masonic jewel at the close of the teachers' association meeting in Portland.

Mr. B. W. McIntosh, formerly of this city, now of Bellingham bay, has been admitted to the bar, passing with high honors, and takes rank at once with old practitioners. The charge against him of embezzlement was satisfactorily disproved.

Be sure and come to the hot chicken pie supper in the basement of the M. E. church from 5 till 8 o'clock. Supper will be served after the entertainment. Price 25 cents.

H. C. Stock advertises in a Yamhill county paper that he will pay no debts contracted by Herman Stock. The family evidently does not take much stock in itself.

As this will be the last issue of THE CHRONICLE until after New Year all are cautioned not to forget the grand masquerade ball of the Jackson Engine Co. New Year's evening.

The only fault to be found with the present weather is that it may force the fruit buds on the peach trees, to be caught with a couple of weeks of freezing weather, and thus make a partial or total failure of the peach crop next season.

The second of a series of soirees in connection with Mr. C. L. Phillips' dancing school was enjoyed by a large number of young people last evening. "The proof of the pudding is in eating it," and those who attended the party need no further proof that the soirees will be a success. Birgfeld furnished the music, accompanied by Henry Burchstorf with the violin.

M. E. Church Entertainment

Do not forget the New Year's entertainment Saturday evening, Dec. 30th, at the M. E. church. A good program has been prepared. Supper will be served from 5 till 8 p. m. in the basement for 50 cents, including ticket to the entertainment. Supper will also be served after the program to those wishing it.

For a sore throat there is nothing better than a flannel bandage dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will nearly always effect a cure in one night's time. This remedy is also a favorite for rheumatism and has cured very severe cases. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

MARKET REPORT.

The Holidays Lend a Temporary Sparkle to Trade.

FRIDAY, Dec. 29th.—Our market is quite lifeless. The holiday season perfectly absorbed everything outside of a local trade for Christmas remembrances. Business was laid aside and forgotten in the glare of the Yule flame, the prattle of the little ones and the reflections of the joys of other days when the stocking hung on the jamb silently waiting for the coming of old Santa Claus.

Business is dragging along with slight interruption, and demands for immediate requirements are easily met. Prices in general merchandise and groceries are unchanged. In country produce there is a free delivery of all kinds. The egg market is weak and shows a disposition to decline still more. Dealers are paying 18 and 20 cents per dozen today. Butter is dull on the market, 35 to 50 is the market quotation for the different grades today.

Vegetables are in full supply. Potatoes are freely offered at 50 cents per sack of 100 lbs. Onions are quoted at 1 1/2 cents per lbs. Cabbage 3/4 cents per lbs. Turnips 3/4 cents per lb.

Apples vary in price according to quality and kinds of keepers. Common, mixed, 40 cents per box of 45 lbs., best, for future sales 60 cents per box.

The poultry market has not changed since last report. Some dealers speak of 7 to 10 cents per lbs for live turkeys and 11 to 12 cents for dressed is the range.

The live stock market shows some evidences of an improvement. Good prime beeves are firm at 2 1/4 cents on foot. Mutton is in better inquiry at $2 to $2.25. The delivery of fat hogs has fallen off somewhat and the market is stiffening since the deliveries of a few days ago.

The grain market is flat. The saying that wheat is on sale for less than the cost of production is suggestive that there is a crippling process carried on somewhere. The Oregon market, which is at present Portland, quotes wheat at 48 cents per bushel, a lower figure than ever known on the coast. Our own market is very dull and quotations do not recognize anything over 42 cents for best grades, while ordinary is quotable at 39 to 40. There is no sale or demand for damaged grain of any kind.

Cantata January 3d.

At the Christian church Wednesday evening, Jan. 3, 1894, a cantata under the auspices of the church. Miss Clara A. Moore has charge of the music and will render a selection outside of the regular program. Everybody is invited to be present. A chorus of children's voices is a feature of the evening. Come and enjoy a treat. Admission 25 cents for adults; 15 cents for children.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. James Brown of Mosier is in town today.

Miss Aimee Newman left on the morning train for Portland.

Misses Jeannette and Maie Williams were passengers on the afternoon train for Portland.

Messrs. J. M. Elliott and Harry Sollinger came in from Mosier today, returning on the noon train.

Mr. John Filloon and wife leave tomorrow night for his old home in Illinois on a visit to the old folks of about six weeks.

Mr. Balfe Johnson will leave for Portland in the morning, where he will spend New Year's day with his parents, and take in the foot ball game as well.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO EVERYBODY.

Christmas is over. We are glad we did what we could to make it a holiday worth remembering. It is not for us to say aught of our success. Let the HUNDREDS who thronged our store and carried thence the many bundles that gladdened so many homes and hearts; let the people to whom every dollar means a hundred hard-earned cents; let all to whom we were a Santa Claus in deed and truth---let these say whether or not we succeeded.

NOW FOR NEXT YEAR
PEASE & MAYS.
