JANUARY JOTTINGS.

Minor Events Which Pertain to City and Country.

Two inches of snow is reported in Portland today.

Owing to so much snow and rain the air yesterday the belt on the crusher slipped off, which in turn pulled off the governor belt, breaking the arm. The trouble was fixed up this morning by Engineer Brown and was pounding this afternoon with customary vigor.

Wm. Floyd says that the disease which is killing the cattle is blackleg, but that it only attacks fat and young cattle. The cattle now are as fat as they usually are in summer, and nothing can be done in the way of treatment for fear of their taking cold by the operation, which is severe.

D. P. Crabtree, from Tygh Valley, in coming to The Dalles yesterday in a buggy, had the misfortune to have a little runaway on top of 8-Mile hill. He was thrown out and slightly hurt in his back, and the wheels running over his leg, but nothing serious. The horses were caught after three-quarters of a mile had been left behind.

At a recent meeting of the ladies' sewing circle in The Dalles one of the ladies excused herself, saying she had to go home and put a democratic badge on her husband's pants. Asked what a democratic badge was she replied that since the democratic administration her husband had sat around so much waiting for a job that the pants needed a new seat.

Arthur Stabling was thrown from a horse this morning near Varney's, being thrown on his head upon some rocks, sustaining a severe contusion of the head, a scalp wound three inches in length, besides other injuries on his right arm and leg. Dr. Hollister was called who made several stitches in the head, and the wounded boy will gradually mend.

The fatal accident to the boy who jumped off the train at Wilbur may serve as a warning to boys in The Dalles who make a practice of jumping on and off trains going at a high rate of speed between the yards and the Umatilla house. Those who have to do this for a living see little sport about it, and realize that with all their experience and caution, they are at any time apt to be killed or maimed, and for boys it is a dangerous and foolish pastime. Perhaps a city ordinance would fit the case better than anything.

We are glad to again place on our exchange list the Pendleton Daily Tribune. It starts out with a freshness and vivacity that is sure to make it popular. The paper also takes a voluminous press report, which at once gives it precedence over every other rival in its field. Success to the revived Tribune and its enterprising coterie of printers who have raised it out of the slough of Despond, this time, it is hoped for good.

Mr. J. Fortin has received a letter from Father Bronsgeest, dated December 13th at Iunbruck, Germany, where he had been for two days. The writer says it is one of the most picturesque places in the world. The following night he expected to be in Italy, and hoped that he would be as well pleased as he was in Germany, Belgium, and Holland. The letter is accompanied with many beautiful views of mountain scenery and mountain towns, which are triumphs of the photographers' art. Mr. Bronsgeest gives no hint in this letter of the date of his return, though it is plain that it is his intention from other portions of his letter.

The Cantata.

A crowded house greeted the cantata at the Christian church last evening, which was a very pretty and pleasing musical event. The platform was divided from the auditorium by a curtain and was occupied by a large chorus of male and female voices. In addition many children, with their sweet untrained voices, furnished an added charm to the occasion. The cantata represented the death of the old year and the birth of the new, both being impersonated, as well as Father Time, the Sexton, etc. The pianist was Mrs. Iva C. Collins and violinist Mr. Burchtorf, both of whom are known as skilled artists, and were aided by the Mandolin and Guitar club. Those who sang solos and duets were Rev. P. H. McGaffey, Misses Clara Moore, Levia and Bessie Rowland, Hattie Cram, Grace and Edna Glenn, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. McDaniels, Miss Bowman, Messrs. E. J. Collins and Vine Phelps.

What He Was Waiting For.

One of the best of "applause" stories is related of a singer who was exceedingly self-conscious—not to say intolerably conceited—who, at a concert at the German gentleman who was accompanying her at the pianoforte a copy of her song marked in several places: "Wait for the applause." At the end of one verse there came a dead silence among the audience. The accompanist laid not finger on key, but blinked placidly through his spectacles at the lady. "What are you waiting for?" she asked in an exasperated undertone. "I am waitin' for de abblause," replied the pianist, "and he nod gom yet!"—London Times.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Jennie Morgan was found guilty in Portland yesterday of robbing a ranchman living near The Dalles of $200 last October.

A fire Tuesday morning in Albany resulted in a loss to the street car company of $8,000 and the almost total destruction of its property.

Albany school bonds sold at a premium of $155. They draw 6 per cent. and pay all expenses of issue. They were purchased by Boston parties.

Louis Armsfield was killed while beating his way on a train by jumping while the train was passing Wilbur at a high rate of speed. He was a boy and had parents living in Wilbur and was going home to see them.

Baker City now has a disappearance. Chas. S. Davis left Baker City Dec. 2d for San Francisco with about $1,300 on his person, the object of his going being to take in the Pacific Blood Horse Association and play the races since which time nothing can be heard from him. There are reasons why Mr. Davis should advise his friends of his whereabouts and his silence is a mystery.

Elijah T. Estes, a pioneer, was found dead yesterday seven miles southwest of Drain, in Payhurst valley. He left his son's place the day before about noon to go to a neighbor's house, and nothing was seen of him until he was found dead. He was 82 years old. He crossed the plains in 1852, and for many years kept the stage station in early days about four miles north of Drain.

THE Oldest Agricultural Paper in America.

(ESTABLISHED 1819.)

To all cash subscribers of THE CHRONICLE paying one year in advance.

The American Farmer,

1729 New York Avenue,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE AMERICAN FARMER, which is now entering upon its 75th year, is the pioneer farmer's paper in the country. It is a large eight-page paper, and contains 56 columns of the choicest agricultural and literary matter, plentifully embellished with fine illustrations. It is

NATIONAL IN CHARACTER,

and deals with farming and farmer's interests on broad, practical lines. It

EMPLOYS THE BEST WRITERS IN THE COUNTRY.

and everything that appears in its columns is of the highest character. Every department of the farmer's business is discussed in an earnest, practical way, looking to the greatest profit and benefit to the farmer and his family. It appears on the 1st and 15th of each month, and is furnished at the low price of in advance. This makes it the cheapest agricultural paper in the country.

FARMER LEGISLATION.

During the coming year there will be an immense number of matters of the most vital interest to farmers dealt with by Congress and the Executive Departments at Washington. It is highly important that the farmers be kept promptly and fully informed as to what is being planned and done affecting them at the National Capital. They should all, therefore, take THE AMERICAN FARMER, which, being on the ground, has better facilities than any other paper for getting this information, and devotes itself to this duty. They will find in it constantly a great amount of valuable information that they can get in no other paper.

THE AMERICAN FARMER and THE CHRONICLE will be sent one year for $1.75.

The Daily Evening Chronicle is recognized as essentially the home paper for the Dalles city folk. This is not a bad reputation. Some 2,000 of our best citizens watch the columns of this daily for the spiciest local news. It succeeds in gleaming the field, and hence grows in popularity and importance. Take it awhile, you who don't; try some of its premium offers.
