EVANS IS SURROUNDED

It Is Expected That He Will Be Taken, Dead or Alive.

AN INHUMAN COURSE IN PERU

Forcing Children to Join the Army—

Effect of the Closing of India's Mints.

SANGER, Cal., Jan. 4.—The latest news from the mountains is that Evans and Morell have been located at Demaster's logging camp, on Dinkey creek, near Pine Flat. Officers are to surround the cabin this evening, and it is expected that tomorrow Evans will be brought from the hills either dead or alive. Persons who arrived from the hills this morning are confident of the capture of the outlaws, and are freely offering bets that Evans will be brought in with forty-eight hours. Bennett and Eager, flumetenders at Pine Flat, quit work today, giving as a reason that Evans had warned them not to give any information concerning him, and as all the officers are making their headquarters at Pine Flat, their own safety demanded that they get away from there entirely.

AN INHUMAN COURSE.

Peru Forcing Children to Join the Army.

LIMA, PERU, Jan. 4.—The government authorities here are going to great lengths in their efforts to levy soldiers to serve in the regular army. Even boys 12 years old have been seized in the streets by the recruiting details and dragged to enter the barracks. Those classes of citizens who had been exempt from forced enlistment do not escape at this time, but even firemen and national guardsmen are made to join the regular forces. It was impossible to bury some corpses which had been taken to the cemeteries for interment Tuesday, as the gravediggers employed at these places had been forcibly taken away from their work, and without a moment's warning hustled off to become soldiers.

Closing of India's Mints.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes an interview with Sir James Mackay, late president of the Indian Currency Association. He says: "I have not yet had time to judge if the closing of the mints is a success. Speculation led to abnormal importations of silver. The banks imported largely of coin in order to be ready to meet bills already lodged by speculators who were hoping for a rise. In consequence, there were fewer bills than usual on the market, and speculators were compelled to buy sterling and largely cover their sales. This will be entirely stopped shortly, and there is no doubt the measure will eventually be a success."

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Only a score of senators were present when that body was rapped to order. Hoar presented a resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to the amounts paid Blount for salary and expenses as special commissioner to Hawaii, and by virtue of what appropriation or law the same had been paid; laid on the table for the present at Hoar's request. It was agreed when the senate adjourned it be till Monday.

The senate adjourned till Monday, without transacting any important business.

A tired woman, just as much as a sick and ailing one, needs Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. That builds up, strengthens, and invigorates the entire female system. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions of womanhood, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength.

It's a powerful restorative tonic and soothing nerve, made especially for woman's needs, and the only guaranteed remedy for women's weaknesses and ailments. In all "female complaints" and irregularities, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

A great many medicines "relieve" Catarrh in the Head. That means that it's driven from the head into the throat and lungs. But, by its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy perfectly and permanently cures.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Snipes & Kinsely.

No Quorum in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The republicans are pursuing the same tactics as yesterday in the house, and the democrats are again without a quorum to take up the tariff bill. Although the order was passed yesterday recalling absentees, only 38 members were on the floor when the house was called to order, and the prospect of getting a quorum looked gloomy, though a democratic whip expressed the opinion that there is a quorum of democrats in the city.

Boutelle then precipitated the Hawaiian fight by moving consideration of his resolution thereon. The democrats had decided to fight this off till the tariff bill was disposed of, so McMillan, on behalf of the ways and means committee, raised the question of consideration. Boutelle was sarcastic and McMillan contemptuous in the exchange of shots which followed. Finally by a rising vote of 58 to 124 the house decided not to consider the resolution. The eyes and noses were demanded.

The house adjourned without taking up the tariff bill. No quorum.

Chairman Holman, of the house democratic caucus, has issued a call for a caucus tomorrow night at 7 o'clock. Forty-seven democrats signed the request for the call.

Would Have His Joke.

Captain Napoleon Bonaparte Humphrey, who is well known all over the state, is a great jester. It has been said of him that he would crack a joke while attending his own funeral. Last July he met with a railroad accident, which rendered the amputation of one of his feet necessary. Subsequently he became violently insane and was sent to the asylum. However, he recovered in a few months and returned to his home at Pendleton. A Pendleton paper contains the following paragraph regarding the old joker:

Captain N. B. Humphrey celebrated his 53d birthday a day or two since and says: "I am an athletic, well-preserved young man today, although I have one foot in the grave." The captain's friends, legion in number, will hope that he may enjoy yet many birthdays."—Telegram.

Smiles.

"Papa," said Benny Blivens, "New York is called the Empire State, isn't it?"

"Yes, Benny."

"And Pennsylvania is the Keystone State?"

"Yes."

"And Indiana is the Hoosier State?"

"Yes."

"And Ohio is the Buckeye State?"

"It is."

"And if Utah is admitted, will it be a Marriage State?"—Pittsburg Chronicle.

A big job before it.—Dukane—President Cleveland has resolved congress into a committee of the hole.

Gaswell—How so?

Dukane—Well, having got the country into a hole on the Hawaiian affair, he commits to congress the work of getting it out.—Pittsburg Chronicle.

Deserving Praise

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, as we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. There remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Snipes & Kinsely's druggists.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept trying it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. MADISON MUSTARD, Otway, Ohio. ABSOLUTELY PURE

Bound to Marry Smith.

The Corvallis Times is responsible for this: Two Lane County girls have struck a new way to capture a husband and the plan is both novel and enterprising. They live at Camp Creek, and in the same vicinity lives also a marriageable young man, who for lack of knowledge of his real name shall herein be called Smith. Last October the pair of young ladies visited Corvallis, and called at Underwood's gallery, where one of them herein called Sally set for a picture. They returned to Camp Creek, and soon thereafter Sally sent a letter to Smith that fired the young man with frenzy, for that letter enclosed a photograph of a little 14-month-old child, and declared that Smith was the child's father, and that Sally's bosom friend was the mother of it. Now it is an unpleasant thing to be the father of an alleged nameless infant, and when Smith stared into the pictured face of the little innocent and wondered if it was really his, his feelings were naturally disordered. Especially did the ragged edge of his situation come home to him when Sally said in the letter that in order to atone for the wrong he had done her unfortunate friend a speedy marriage must transpire. Therefore when Smith arrived in Corvallis last Monday morning bent on the unusual errand of finding out what man's child he was the father of, he didn't feel very well. He had received from Artist Underwood intelligence that none but the child's mother could have obtained possession of one of the baby pictures in question, a fact that was stronger evidence than ever that he was a father, and he showed it in his face, in his walk, and in the mad haste with which he hunted Underwood. The artist, however, soon made apparent that the baby picture was a photograph of Judge Hufford's baby; that Sally had stolen the picture at the gallery when she had her photograph taken; that the theft of the picture was a part of a bungling but bold scheme to force Smith to marry Sally's friend.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. W. A. McGuire, of McKay, Ohio, says: "La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children when troubled with colds or croup. Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
