THE DALLES - OREGON

ART AND ARTISTS.

GIOTTO'S greatest advance in painting was the rejection of the greenish-black color the Byzantine painters employed for the human figure, and substituting the color of nature for the faces and hands.

THE museum of antiquities at Dresden has come into possession of an interesting marble relief from Rome, which represents an ancient butcher shop, of oblong shape, and divided by a pillar into two equal parts.

A PORTRAIT, which is supposed to be of Robert Auchmuty, one of George III's judges, in Boston, is still hanging in the supreme courtroom in that city. The picture is the work of John Singleton Copley and bears the date of 1787.

MR. BURNE-JONES, the English artist, is engaged upon the interesting task of painting a portrait of Mr. Gladstone's youngest granddaughter, Dorothy Drew. This little blue-eyed maiden of three years is said to resemble the grandfather startlingly.

A GREEK peasant living on the island of Egina recently discovered a magnificent statue buried in the ground, upon which had been a small plantation, and which he had cleared. The statue was sold to a bric-a-brac dealer, who sent it to London, where it has just been bought by the British government for the sum of sixty-five hundred pounds.

BOOK LITTER.

THE sultan is establishing a public library in Constantinople. All the libraries of the mosques are to be transferred to it.

THE old Indiana homestead of the family of Mr. James Whitcomb Riley has been purchased by the poet as a permanent residence.

THE largest library in the world is the Bibliotheque Nationale, Paris, founded by Louis XIV. It contains 1,400,000 volumes, 300,000 pamphlets, 175 manuscripts, 300,000 maps and charts and 150,000 coins and medals.

DR. OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday recently. He is working on an autobiography. Few men have in their time tasted more of the love of their fellow men than the cheery Autocrat.

AN interesting find is a library of 500 volumes, including seventy manuscripts of the tenth and eleventh, and some with wonderful miniatures of the fourteenth centuries, which were recently discovered in a Franciscan cloister near Rieti, Italy.

COMMON NAMES.

HURST meant wood, hence residents in or near a wood bore the names of Hursley, Hawkhurst, Ashurst, Elmhurst and the like.

COP meant any prominence of land, and hence came the Cops, Copes, Copleys, Copelands, Cops, Coplams, Copwills, Coplens and Cobleys.

STARBUCK and stark were synonymous, which accounts for the abundance of the Starks, formerly manufacturers of or dealers in this article.

HEIFER herds were yeast herds, hence the Yeamans and Yeaters. Cowherds, Cøherds and Cowarts were the men who tended the herds of cows.

SWAIN was formerly a man who kept hogs, and his descendants are the Swaines, Swaynes, and perhaps also Swains, Swinnets and Hoggarts.

HILL comes from an old English verb meaning to cover, or put a roof on; hence, the Hills, Hilliers, Helliars, Heelers, and even Helman and Heelman.

PAINTINGS AND PAINTERS.

THE English artist Watts has given his painting "Love and Life" to the American people.

ROSA BONHEUR says, in defense of man attire, that she would have missed all chances of success had she had to bear the weight of the skirts in fashion thirty-six years ago.

PRINCE EUGENE of Sweden has tamed his royal blood to patient study of painting, and will send a picture to the next salon. He is said to have pronounced talent and to have worked hard under able instructors of Paris.

PALETTES of famous painters form an interesting collection in the possession of M. Benginet, of Paris. His collection numbers over a hundred specimens, chief among which are the palettes used by Corot, Troyon, Delacroix, Benjamin Constant, Bonnat, Rosa Bonheur, Detaille, Puvion de Chavannes and other artists of celebrity.

"During the epidemic of la grippe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy took the lead here and was much better liked than any other medicine." H. M. BANGS, druggist, Chatsworth, Ill. The grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. This remedy is prompt and effectual and will prevent any tendency of the disease towards pneumonia. The Land of The Setting Sun

Is still a mysterious and unexplored country to many a resident of the cyclone-ridden East and the barren Rocky-mountain region, but who, though possessed of a desire to see the great Empire of the Pacific, has up till now failed to muster the necessary energy to make the trip. It seems to them like a great journey, that along the way still linger the pitfalls and dangers of border days. But this Empire has made gigantic strides since 1849. It is not now alone the land of gold and glorious sunsets, but a stretch of country given to mellow fruitfulness, comprising all products from the luscious fig and orange of the tropics to the mammoth red apples of colder climes.

Wasco County, Oregon.

There is still thousands of acres of Government land left in Wasco county, capable of raising apples, peaches, grapes, prunes, and small fruits. Three hundred dollars clear money has been made from an acre of prunes, and $1,000 an acre from the humble strawberry. It will pay those who imagine that Uncle Sam's domain is exhausted, to make a trip to the "golden west" and see for themselves all that is to be known. There is no excuse for putting off this trip till a later time. An attraction is presented which of itself will pay for the trip. This is the California Midwinter Fair.

After taking in the Sunset City, visit Wasco County. Indian Summer is still in her glory, the thermometer still ranges in the 50's up till this writing, January 2d, and our citizens will endeavor to make your stay pleasant and profitable.
