DICTIONARY PUNCTUATION.

How the Story Read When the Typewriter Got Through with It.

"When I first began dictating to a typewriter," said a man who writes for the papers, addressing a New York Sun reporter, "I thought that I must dictate all the punctuation complete, and my dictation ran something like this:

"Young Adolphus von Gwilt leaned back upon the blue plush seat of the palace car and looked out upon the fleeting panorama period He had loved the fair Adeline Otrville comma and she had loved him comma but the old man had kicked semicolon that is comma you understand comma he had not actually kicked Adolphus comma but he had kicked figuratively speaking semicolon and the disconsolate Adolphus was now traveling to assuage his grief semicolon he was on his way to the world's fair period paragraph

"Just now he felt hungry semicolon thanks to youth and good health his appetite never deserted him period So Adolphus went forward into the dining car to breakfast period no semicolon and he ate a good square meal comma and he generally did semicolon and then he went back to his section in the sleeper period paragraph

"As he entered the car he saw something that made him almost doubt his eyesight period no semicolon it was the form of Adeline Otrville period And she was in the next section back of his comma and had been ever since the train started comma and he hadn't known it which was not very remarkable comma after all comma for the train had started very late the night before comma and he had not come aboard until the last minute period It seems that Adeline that is I mean Miss Otrville was traveling for her health comma no a period She comma like Adolphus comma had been very much torn up by this misappreciation of Adolphus on the part of the old man comma and her father had thought that it would be a good thing for her to travel semicolon and by the commonest accident in the world she and Adolphus had met on this train semicolon it was just one of those things that happen every day comma but it did not strike these young people in that commonplace way semicolon to them it was the most delightful thing they had ever heard of period paragraph

"Quote Adolphus scare mark close quote cried Adeline comma the color rising to her cheek and she herself rising from the blue plush seat quote Adeline scare mark close quote cried Adolphus comma hurrying forward to meet her semi-comma and then they sat down together and looked out at the flying panorama comma or more strictly speaking comma I fancy they looked at the fleeting panorama in each other's eyes period And then they set about seeing if they could not in some way fix things up with the old man period Quote You know comma Adolphus close quote comma said Adeline comma quote he said comma single quote Adeline comma you shall never marry Adolphus close single quote semicolon but comma dear comma papa is gentle-hearted comma you know comma and I think we can bring him around after all close quote period paragraph

"It seems that the old man was at that minute in the smoking-room taking a cigar after breakfast comma and Adolphus followed him boldly period The old man gave him a grand bluff at first comma but Adolphus was persistent comma and finally he got the old man, I guess you'd better make that gentleman, out into the car where Adeline was sitting period He was not proof against the combined attack of the young people comma and it need only be added that at last he consented to make them happy semi-comma and so this trip which had begun in grief comma ended in joy semi-comma when they got to Chicago they were married period That's all."

"But I soon discovered that this was all unnecessary; that all I really needed to do was to indicate the paragraphs; that if I dictated intelligently the typewriter would do the rest."

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at Snipes & Kinerly's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.00.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept trying it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. MADISON MUSTARD, Otway, Ohio. Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

The Land of The Setting Sun

Is still a mysterious and unexplored country to many a resident of the cyclone-ridden East and the barren Rocky-mountain region, but who, though possessed of a desire to see the great Empire of the Pacific, has up till now failed to muster the necessary energy to make the trip. It seems to them like a great journey, that along the way still linger the pitfalls and dangers of border days. But this Empire has made gigantic strides since 1849. It is not now alone the land of gold and glorious sunsets, but a stretch of country given to mellow fruitfulness, comprising all products from the luscious fig and orange of the tropics to the mammoth red apples of colder climes.

Wasco County, Oregon.

There is still thousands of acres of Government land left in Wasco county, capable of raising apples, peaches, grapes, prunes, and small fruits. Three hundred dollars clear money has been made from an acre of prunes, and $1,000 an acre from the humble strawberry. It will pay those who imagine that Uncle Sam's domain is exhausted, to make a trip to the "golden west" and see for themselves all that is to be known. There is no excuse for putting off this trip till a later time. An attraction is presented which of itself will pay for the trip. This is the California Midwinter Fair.

After taking in the Sunset City, visit Wasco County. Indian Summer is still in her glory, the thermometer still ranges in the 50's up till this writing, January 2d, and our citizens will endeavor to make your stay pleasant and profitable.
