TUESDAY, - - - - JAN. 9, 1894 KISSING AND KISSES.

There is a story to the effect that when Booth was traveling, having just closed an engagement in Boston, he heard a handsome middle-aged lady back of him sigh, and say to her companion: 'I would give fifty dollars to kiss that man!' Booth turned and looked at the speaker. 'Do you mean that?' he demanded, causing the blood to mount up to the very roots of her hair. 'Why, yes, of course I do!' replied the woman, confusedly, looking in a helpless sort of way at the great tragedian. 'Well, I accept the terms, madam!' exclaimed Booth solemnly. 'And I stand by my proposition,' said the woman, recovering her self-possession, and, rising, she imprinted a sound kiss upon the actor's lips. Booth's face did not betray the slightest emotion. He received the kiss stolidly, and waited until the impetuous woman found her purse and handed him a fifty-dollar bill. He took the money, thanked her, and turning to a feeble, shabbily-dressed woman, who was travelling with two young children, placed the money in her hands, and with a courtly bow said: 'This is for the children, madam. Take it please.' And without another word he entered the car.

A humorous excuse was that given by the defendant in a case of breach of promise. The defendant was allowed to say a word in his own behalf. 'Yes,' he said, 'I kissed her almost continually every evening I called at her house.' Lawyer for plaintiff: 'Then you confess it?' Defendant: 'Yes, I do confess it, but I had to do it.' 'You had to do it! What do you mean?' Defendant: 'That was the only way I could keep her from singing.'

A young lady, reading in a newspaper of a girl having been made crazy by a sudden kiss, called the attention of her uncle, who was in the room, to that singular occurrence, whereupon the old gentleman gruffly demanded what the fool had gone crazy for. 'What did she go crazy for?' archly asked the ingenious maiden; 'why, for more, I suppose.'

Desiring Praise We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, as we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Snipes & Kinerly's druggists.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. W. A. McGuire, of McKay, Ohio, says: 'La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children when troubled with colds or croup. Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists. Mexican Silver Stove Polish causes no dust.

DIAMONDS SET IN IVORY. A New Plan Being Tried by Fashionable European Jewelers.

The fashionable jewelers of London, Paris and other continental capitals have hit upon a new idea regarding the setting of diamonds, says a foreign exchange. They propose to use in the setting ivory instead of silver or gold, and it must be acknowledged that there is some reason for doing so. It is well known how difficult it is to clean the silver or gold setting properly and to preserve the original luster. Gold settings have the drawback of reflecting their yellow color on the stone, and to depreciate thereby the water of the stone. Another weighty objection is that they lose the brightness which is peculiar to these metals as soon as they are used as the only setting for reflecting and transparent stones, while they are beautiful and add to the appearance of diamonds set with pearls, cats' eyes or chrysolites. Ivory would solve this question at once, which at present can only be attained by setting the transparent with a half transparent stone in gold or silver.

FOREIGN INDUSTRIES. CAMPHOR is cultivated at Hioga, Japan. About one-fourth of the product comes to the United States. THE copper industry in Japan is assuming important size. The output has quadrupled since 1881 and the exports have increased even more rapidly. A NEW factory act will soon go into effect in Russia forbidding employers to compel operatives to accept bread, provisions, etc., in payment for labor. It is estimated that the total production of coffee in the world is about 600,000 to 650,000 tons, of which Brazil alone produces between 340,000 and 380,000 tons and Java 60,000 to 90,000.

Whenever You See a Friend Suffering with dyspepsia, sick headache, biliousness or an kindred disease, advise him to procure a bottle of Simmons Liver Regulator. It never fails to relieve and cure. 'During the epidemic of la grippe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy took the lead here and was much better liked than any other medicine.' H. M. BANGS, druggist, Chateworth, Ill.
