HE—"You are very provoking! You talk as if our engagement were not going to result in marriage." She—"You are more provoking. You talk as if it were."—N. Y. Herald.

SWEET GIRL—"The man I marry must be both brave and brainy." Adoring Youth—"When we were out sailing and upset, I saved you from a watery grave." "That was brave, I admit, but it was not brainy." "Yes, it was; I upset the boat on purpose."—Tid-Bits.

MUGGINS (recently married, showing his apartment)—"This is a wardrobe where my wife hangs her clothes, and this is another wardrobe where my wife hangs her clothes." Bilter—"Where do you hang your clothes?" Muggins—"Oh, I don't have any now."—N. Y. Herald.

A DELICATE DISTINCTION.—"Is it true that Maude Flyppe received a proposal from old Stockson?" "It is. He told her that if she would marry him he would settle $5,000 a year on her, pay for her dresses, and give her a trip to Europe once a year." "That wasn't a proposal. It was a proposition."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Angora cat. The Angora cat is peculiar. When its fur is entirely white the animal is invariably blind, but when there is even the slightest tinge of color the vision is as perfect as in any other normal cat. This phenomenon is not accounted for. The only case of a similar kind known is that of the fishes in Mammoth Cave, which have no eyes.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
