THE DALLES - OREGON

A ROYAL YACHT.

That of Emperor William of Germany.

It is Palatial in its Appointments and Armed as Thoroughly as if Intended for a Warship.

The Hohenzollern is a magnificent vessel, and looks more like a cruiser than a yacht. It is built of steel, painted white, and propelled by twin screws, connected with a double set of engines. Its average speed is nineteen knots an hour, and this can be increased to over twenty knots an hour.

The yacht, says London Queen, is armed with eight quick-firing Krupp guns and with its graceful outlines sits high in the water. It has three masts and two funnels, painted yellow, the latter worked by steam, the former by man-power, both being painted white and gold, with nickel spokes.

The emperor's apartments on the middle deck amidships are on the port side, those of the empress and her children on the starboard side. Wainscoting, doors and staircases, as well as other fittings and furniture, are of very light-colored, almost white, maple wood; the ceilings white, picked out with gold; the recessed chimneys of nickel, and the walls covered with cretonne, varying in pattern in the various apartments.

On the upper deck is one of the emperor's working-rooms, furnished with a telephone. Hanging on the wall is the log book and on a shelf are some nautical books. Another working-room and a conference-room are on the middle deck, their walls being decorated with water-color sketches and photographs of the queen, the empress of Germany, and her children.

The saloon intended for family gatherings is decorated in blue and silver and fitted with furniture of maple and a fireplace of marble and nickel. The empress's bedroom contains a bedstead of nickel, with a counterpane of red silk and hangings of gray satin. Adjoining the emperor's room are the apartments and the mess-room of the imperial suite, while the officers' mess-room and cabins, fitted up with oak furniture, are situated forward. The kitchens on the deck below are splendidly fitted up. The Hohenzollern is 110 meters long, with 14 meters beam, its tonnage 2,400, displacement 4,200 tons, and horse power 20,000.

The most stubborn Skin and Scalp Diseases, the worst forms of Scrofula, all blood-taints and poisons of every name and nature, are utterly rooted out by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For every disease caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, it is the only remedy so certain and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Tumors and Swellings and every kindred ailment, are completely and permanently cured by it.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept trying it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. MADISON MUSTARD, Otway, Ohio. The Land of The Setting Sun

Is still a mysterious and unexplored country to many a resident of the cyclone-ridden East and the barren Rocky-mountain region, but who, though possessed of a desire to see the great Empire of the Pacific, has up till now failed to muster the necessary energy to make the trip. It seems to them like a great journey, that along the way still linger the pitfalls and dangers of border days.

Wasco County, Oregon.

There is still thousands of acres of Government land left in Wasco county, capable of raising apples, peaches, grapes, prunes, and small fruits. Three hundred dollars clear money has been made from an acre of prunes, and $1,000 an acre from the humble strawberry. It will pay those who imagine that Uncle Sam's domain is exhausted, to make a trip to the "golden west" and see for themselves all that is to be known. There is no excuse for putting off this trip till a later time. An attraction is presented which of itself will pay for the trip. This is the California Midwinter Fair.

After taking in the Sunset City, visit Wasco County. Indian Summer is still in her glory, the thermometer still ranges in the 50's up till this writing, January 2d, and our citizens will endeavor to make your stay pleasant and profitable.
