GOOD Food - - - Digestion - - - Complexion - - - are all intimately connected—practically inseparable. Though the fact is often ignored, it is nevertheless true that a good complexion is an impossibility without good digestion, which in turn depends on good food.

There is no more common cause of indigestion than lard. Let the bright house-keeper use

IS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Mello Destroyed Government Forts on the Islands.

INFLECTED CONSIDERABLE LOSS

Peixoto Will Drop Dynamite Bombs From a Balloon—Report of Resignation Denied.

RIO JANEIRO (via Montevideo), Jan. 11.—A letter received in this city says Mello was near Desterro with the Aquidaban engaged in fitting out steamers to convey troops to Rio, and it was expected he would sail north January 5th. It is reported the insurgent forces destroyed the government forts on Engenho island, and inflicted considerable loss to government forces. It is rumored he captured three field pieces on Muncangue island. The insurgents subsequently retired from both islands.

Peixoto's Dynamite Balloon.

MONTVIDEO, Jan. 11.—Your correspondent in Rio sends word that the dirigible balloon which President Peixoto ordered constructed for use in the campaign is almost completed. It differs from other war balloons in having an electric motor. This balloon is made of silk, in spherical form, so that its equipage is constantly maintained. No metal other than aluminum is used in its construction. Dynamite bombs will be dropped from the balloon on the rebel fleet. A messenger from Admiral DeGama carrying a note to Admiral Mello has been arrested in Rio.

Vaillant Taken to Prison.

PARIS, Jan. 11.—Vaillant, the anarchist, sentenced to death yesterday, was taken today to the prison of LaRaquette, where it is expected he will be executed within the prison walls, not in public as is customary. If Vaillant continues to appeal to the court of cessation he will be executed in about 10 days. An effort will be made to secure his pardon.

ENGLISH COMMENT ON THE VERDICT.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The Pall Mall Gazette, commenting on the Vaillant verdict, says it is significant of the flabbiness of the times that people should praise the jury's courage in rendering a verdict against Vaillant, who confessed and boasted of his crime.

The Westminster Gazette says Vaillant is a specimen of the modern type of literate criminal. His career is the result of criminal instinct. Education does not eradicate the taint.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—In the senate, Callom reported favorably from the committee on commerce the senate bill granting the Des Moines Rapids Power Company the right to construct a dam and power station in the Mississippi river in Hancock county, Ill. The bill was amended by requiring the work to begin within two years, and be completed within four years. On objection of Hawley of Connecticut, the bill went over.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—In the house, after routine business, the tariff debate was resumed. Breckinridge, democrat, of Kentucky, took the floor and was followed by Dingley of Maine.

The most stubborn Skin and Scalp Diseases, the worst forms of Scrofula, all blood-taints and poisons of every name and nature, are utterly rooted out by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For every disease caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, it is the only remedy so certain and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Tumors and Swellings and every kindred ailment, are completely and permanently cured by it.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept trying it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. MADISON MUSTARD, Otway, Ohio. Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Settlement Requested.

During my absence, a. who have unsettled accounts with the undersigned are expected to call and see with Mr. Geo. Krauss, who has my books and accounts. An early settlement will greatly oblige. Yours truly,

LESLIE BUTLER.

A Daring Bank Robbery.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 11.—The National bank of Mexico is the victim of a remarkable robbery. Tuesday one of the tellers was counting out the coin by piling up the heavy sacks of silver, each containing 1,000 silver dollars, when a well-dressed young man sauntered into the room, and while attention was directed elsewhere, picked up one of the sacks and strolled out. Beckoning to a burden-carrier, who was waiting for a job on the streetcorner, he handed him the sack and leisurely led the way along the crowded streets for a block to the nearest street-car line. Here he stopped a passing car, and tossing a real to the burden-carrier, quietly took a seat in the middle of the car with the stolen sack of money in plain sight by his side. Passengers on the car thought he was a paymaster or something of that sort. After riding to the suburb of Tzucubasa he left the car and escaped.

One Language Will Do Now.

CHATTANOOGA, Ga., Jan. 11.—Charles Oscar Keller was yesterday sentenced to seven years in prison for absconding with $2700 agency funds of the Chattanooga Brewing Company. Keller admitted his defalcation, but charged that the money was restolen from him by a woman who was once the rage as a dancing girl of the New York variety stage. Keller speaks 11 languages fluently. He was born in Berlin, served as a spy in the Russo-Turkish war, and is reported to have done time in a Siamese prison. At the time of his arrest, he was conducting a detective agency in San Francisco, and a telegram sent by himself to the Chattanooga police authorities led to his discovery.

Cordray Shot by Accident.

William F. Cordray, brother of John F. Cordray, at 5 o'clock last evening shot himself in the left breast above the heart with a revolver in his rooms 247 1/2 First street, where he resides with his wife and two children.

The shooting was unquestionably the result of an accident. Mr. Cordray kept a pistol for the purpose of shooting rats, with which the premises were greatly infested. He had the pistol out, his wife said, and was thoughtlessly whirling it around in his hand after the manner of a cowboy, when by some accident the weapon was discharged with the result given.

The surgeons attending him last night did not probe for the bullet, and believe the wound to be a fatal one. The victim of the shot is an expert electrician and engineer, in which capacities he had long been employed in Cordray's theater.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Cordray was resting quite easy, considering the gravity of the case, and the attending surgeons at that hour believed his chances to live or die were about even.
