J. F. FORD, Evangelist,

Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:
S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.

Gentlemen:
On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 35 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, Mr. & Mrs. J. F. FORD.
If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.
Sold under a positive guarantee.

THE DAMAGE SERIOUS

Explosion in a Fort Disheartened the Rebels.

GOVERNMENT FLEET SAIL NORTH

Guarding the Condemned Anarchist—Gold Mining in the Streets of Sacramento.

RIO JANEIRO, Jan. 12.—The explosion in the rebel fort Villegagnon and on board the rebel warship Tamandare are more serious than at first stated. The explosion in the fort is variously reported as of a gun and of the magazine. Fifteen soldiers were killed and the fort badly damaged. The explosion of the gun on the Tamandare killed six marines and wounded eight. The rebels are reported much disheartened by these accidents, and Peixoto's adherents are encouraged. The rumor that an agent of Peixoto caused the explosion in the fort is denied by the rebels. The reported refusal of the Nichtheroy's crew to sail is not due to non-payment of wages, but they demand payment in advance. The government denies this. It says the Nichtheroy, America, Aurora and other vessels at Pernambuco will sail south as soon as the entire fleet is gathered there. It is likewise asserted and contradicted that the rebels contemplate attacking the government fleet and then Rio itself. Peixoto is confident of his ability to successfully defend the city.

Guarding the Condemned Anarchist.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—The guard around the prison of La Roquette, where Vaillant is confined, has been doubled in consequence of threatening letters which lead the authorities to believe the anarchists may attempt to cause an explosion in or about the prison. Meetings of anarchists protest against Vaillant's execution. Jurors in the case are threatened and are becoming frightened, and it is said have decided to sign a petition for pardon.

Gold Mine Under a Street.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—Excitement regarding the new gold discoveries in Folsom continue, and in spite of threats John Cardwell will continue his prospecting until compelled by the court to cease excavations under Freisdorf street. He has on exhibition some five nuggets from the drift under the street, and having secured permission from the board of supervisors to extend operations will not desist. Jacob Hyman, who claims to be an agent for property on the street, says he will enjoin Cardwell, but has not done so yet. Many others are now applicants for privileges similar to Cardwell's, and if he is not enjoined Friesdorf street will soon be completely honeycombed.

The March of Science.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 12.—A most remarkable electrical experiment was successfully exhibited at the college of physicians and surgeons last night. By means of a flexible rubber tube a diminutive electric light was introduced into the stomach of a patient. The lights were lowered and in the darkness over 2,000 students viewed the workings of the man's inside through the transparency the light created in the abdominal wall. The experiment has heretofore been regarded as an impossibility.

FRESNO, Jan. 12.—A deputy sheriff has brought into Fresno an autograph letter from Chris Evans, which was left at the house of a man named Spencer, apologizing for taking Spencer's rifle and field glasses during his absence. This is the only definite clue obtained since Evans and Morrell broke jail.

The most stubborn Skin and Scalp Diseases, the worst forms of Scrofula, all blood-taints and poisons of every name and nature, are utterly rooted out by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For every disease caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, it is the only remedy so certain and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.
Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Tumors and Swellings and every kindred ailment, are completely and permanently cured by it.

City Warrants.

All those holding city warrants of date prior to September 1st, 1891, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest on same ceases after this date.

The Governor's Salary.

We wish it understood that we will support no man for governor unless he will pledge himself to the people before the election that he will accept $1,500 as the full amount of his salary. We have had a governor for the last eight years who has continually posed as a reformer, the taxpayers' friend and the farmers' and workmen's right bower, who has at the same time been drawing more than double the amount that our constitution says shall be the governor's salary. The only excuse given for this is that he does extra work. How he can call that extra work which our constitution prescribes as the duties of the governor, is more than we are able to understand. If the governor of our state for the sake of a few extra dollars drawn from our treasury, can knowingly violate the express provisions of our constitution, why cannot any citizen of our state commit any other crime prohibited by law with equal impunity?
The constitution of our state says in plain English, in speaking of the salary of the governor and other state officers: "They shall receive no fees or perquisites whatever for the performance of any duties connected with their respective offices."—Arlington Record.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

A. Noltner retires from the Portland Dispatch and is succeeded by Messrs. Frank Morrison and J. B. Fithian.

It is thought that a stranger was drowned Dec. 23d while trying to ford the John Day. No one knows who he was, but the last seen of him he was on his way to the crossing, which at this season of the year is unfordable.

"May the unseen hand of God walk around among the unsaved sinners of Corvallis," is a quotation taken from a prayer made at a religious service in Corvallis. The author of these words evidently believes that the day of miracles has not yet passed.

Sunday last, says the Condon Globe, while a young couple from town was sleigh-riding, the team, probably hearing a noise similar to that made with the lips to get horses to go, "ran off," scattering articles of wearing apparel—muff, shawl, hats, etc., for quite a distance along the road. Referring to the runaway, some fellow jokingly remarked, "It has ever been thus when lines are left in care of the dash-board for a driver."

One looking toward the west where the hills are covered with snow can see a white reindeer standing on a ridge of the foot hills. An observer, specially if he be somewhat imaginative, can discern the body, limbs and antlers of the snowy creature. This animal sentinel of the "heart of the valley" appears with every snow fall. It is associated with the writer's earliest recollection and stands "towering o'er the wreck of time" as clearly defined as in the days of long ago. Probably a bald spot on the mountain back of the creature's apparent "stamping ground" causes the apparition, but only the too practical device upon such a common theory of so pretty an effect.—Corvallis Gazette.

Whenever You See a Friend Suffering with dyspepsia, sick headache, biliousness or an kindred disease, advise him to procure a bottle of Simmons Liver Regulator. It never fails to relieve and cure.

Karl's Clover Root, the new blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation. 25c., 50c. and $1.00. Sold by Snipes & Kinerally, druggists.

NOTICE.

To All Whom It May Concern:
By virtue of an order of the common council of Dalles City, made and entered on the 12th day of December, 1893, notice is hereby given that said city council is about to proceed and order and construct a sewer of 8-inch terra cotta pipe on Lincoln street, commencing at the intersection of Lincoln and Fourth street, on the south side of Fourth street, and continuing thence northerly along the center of said Lincoln street to low water mark of Mill creek, and that the cost for said sewer will be assessed against the property directly benefited thereby, as by the charter provided.
Dated this 20th day of December, 1893.
DOUGLAS S. DUPUR,
City Treasurer of Dalles City.

MISFITS.

"Sealekin is totally out of favor in Paris this season," the Atlantic cable says. Just read this casually to your wife.

"Paw, is there any difference between a cold and a infnzeny?" "If the doctor calls it a cold, the bill is about $4. If he calls it infnzena, it's about $18. The difference is $14, my son."

An inquiry made for the $3,000 oil painting of Tacoma which was exhibited at Chicago during the world's fair shows that it is in hock in Chicago, as security for funds advanced on account of the Merchants' National bank of Tacoma.

A chemist has discovered that wood can be made very palatable. The first thing we know the restaurants will be coming out with block salad, chestnut stew, mahogany fricassee, boiled oak, roast elm and the like.

It was an affecting scene when ex-Treasurer Arrington of Douglas county took leave of his family to go to the penitentiary for larceny of the county's funds. It will also be an affecting scene when his bondsmen leave their homes, sold out to pay the amount of the deficiency.

LITERARY MISCELLANY.

DEAN STANLEY wrote such bad copy that the printers charged half a crown a sheet extra for setting it up.

Miss HILDEGARDE HAWTHORNE, a daughter of Julian Hawthorne, has won a prize of one hundred dollars offered by Current Literature for the best world's fair article. Its title is "The Arabian Torture Dance."

The heirs of the elder Dumas still have an income of about seven thousand dollars a year from the sale of his novels. Of his three hundred books the most popular are: "The Three Musketeers" and "Monte Cristo."

A NIECE of Charles Reade, Miss Amye Reade, is proving herself an inheritor of at least some of her distinguished uncle's talent. The clever circus story, "Ruby," is from her pen, and she is now at work upon a novel to be called "Zerma."

LORD TENNYSON is busy writing the life of his father at his Isle of Wight residence of Farringford. Hallam Tennyson sounds better than Lord Tennyson, but it comes much easier to call him by his title than to use it speaking of the poet, whose dignity it derogated from.

Miss GRACE DENIO LITCHFIELD, whose charming stories have endeared her to so many people, is still in wretched health, as a result of a long-ago attack of grippe, and will seek the benefit of the southern California climate this winter. Miss Litchfield has a large fortune in her own right, and her literary work is all a labor of love.—Harper's Bazar.

PERSONAL PARTICULARS.

THOMAS SHINGLAND, of Paterson, N. J., shot himself well-nigh fatally and then asked for a cigarette. He was determined to die.

SENATOR WILLIAM V. ALLEN, of Nebraska, who recently broke the record for long speeches, is forty-six years old and is serving his first year in the senate.

MISS MATTIE TODD, a niece of Abraham Lincoln, is postmistress at Cynthiana, Ky. She was appointed by President Hayes and has held her place ever since.

MRS. GRANT, widow of Gen. Grant, has decided upon making Washington her permanent home. She has spent some time recently searching for a suitable house.

THOMAS MURPHY, the son of Francis Murphy, has taken up the temperance work of his father, and recently held a series of large and successful meetings in Waterbury, Conn.

HENRY MILLER, of Annville, Pa., has a plate that is over one hundred years old. It contains on the outer edge the names of the thirteen original states, and is highly prized by the owner.

In Mexico, Central and South America, and in some parts of Cuba and Jamaica, a rare and beautiful plant called the "Holy Ghost plant" grows in great profusion. This plant, also known as "the botanical dove," is called the "Holy Ghost plant" on account of the shape of the flower, which has the appearance of a dove with expanded wings hovering over the stalk. The entire flower, which is pure white, opens from the end of a long green stem and is very fragrant.
