Progress and Cookery.

"The World Moves."

There is no better illustration of this old saying than the numerous schools now-a-days devoted to practical kitchen processes. These schools have been alert to find a reasonable substitute for lard, the use of which is so generally condemned. This want has been fully met by the new vegetable lard. When science strikes the kitchen, it strikes home and everybody gets the benefit. Cottolene is a clean, delicate and economical substitute for lard—cleaner than the hog, delicate as the finest vegetable oil, economical from its low price and small quantity required to be used. Prove it for yourself by a trial.

Liliuokalani Finally Abandons All Hope of Restoration.

SHE WILL ASK HEAVY DAMAGES

These This Government Will be Asked to Pay Because of Minister Stevens' Intervention.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—There were two arrivals from Honolulu today—the City of Peking, which left there January 5th, and the Australia, which sailed the following day. The last edition of one of the evening papers published January 6th, the day the Australia left, says Liliuokalani has entirely abandoned all hope of ever regaining the throne of Hawaii, and is now perfecting arrangements for bringing suit against the United States for an immense sum of money. This information, the paper said, came from a source which makes it absolutely trustworthy, and it was believed that before the next steamer sailed from there for San Francisco the news would become more or less public property on the islands. The agents of the ex-queen, now in the United States, have informed her that American sentiment generally is against her restoration and in favor of the annexation of the islands, and that all further efforts on her part to regain her lost position will be utterly useless. Acting on this information, and in view of the stubborn stand taken by the provisional government, Liliuokalani concluded to abandon the struggle to restore former conditions and to seek pecuniary solace in a suit for heavy damages against the American government. Her action will be taken upon statements made in her favor by President Cleveland in his messages to congress, by Secretary Gresham in his letter to President Blount in the report of his investigations, and upon the further fact that in recognizing the justice of her cause, and acknowledging that a wrong had been done her, the United States endeavored to induce the provisional government to surrender in her favor. The claim for damages will also be made upon the ground that she was deposed solely by an armed force of the United States acting under the advice and direction of Minister Stevens.

The following is a recent interview held between Minister Willis and the queen. Willis asked her: "Should you be restored to the throne, would you grant full amnesty, as to life and property, to all those persons who have been or are now in the provisional government, or were instrumental in the overthrow of your government?" She hesitated a moment and then said: "There are certain laws of my government by which I shall abide. My decision would be as the law directs, that such persons should be beheaded and their property confiscated to the government."

He then said, repeating her words: "It is your feeling that these people should be beheaded and their property confiscated?" She replied: "It is."

Inquiring if she fully understood the meaning of what he said to her and her replies, she answered: "I understand and mean all I said, but I might leave my decision to my ministers."

To this he replied: "Suppose it were necessary to make the decision before you appointed any ministers, and you were asked to issue a royal proclamation of general amnesty, would you do it?" She answered: "I have no legal right to do that, and I would not do it. These people were the cause of the revolution and the constitution of 1887. There will never be any peace while they are here. They must be sent out of the country or punished and their property confiscated."

He then told her he had no further communication to make, and would have none until he heard from his government.

Persons of sedentary habits often suffer with kidney affections. Sufferers from this weakening and dangerous disease, by a persistent use of Simmons' Liver Regulator, will restore the kidneys to their wonted health and vigor.

"During the epidemic of la grippe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy took the lead here and was much better liked than any other medicine." H. M. BANGS, druggist, Chatsworth, Ill. The grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. This remedy is prompt and effectual and will prevent any tendency of the disease towards pneumonia. NEWS NOTES.

The Duchesse d'Uzees, who became celebrated as Gen. Boulanger's friend, has offered to educate the daughter of Vaillant, the anarchist.

Interviews with republican senators on the Hawaiian question elicited the opinion that the president is heartily sick of the matter, and will now gladly leave it to congress.

The Chinese are now coming into the United States from Lower California mining camps in squads of eight and ten. The officers say it is possible, owing to the fact that many mines are closing down on the peninsula.

From well-informed sources it is ascertained that there is a strong probability that if congress fails to come to his relief within the next fifteen days, Secretary Carlisle may deem it necessary to issue $30,000,000 of bonds under the resumption act for the purpose of maintaining the gold reserve intact.

The San Quentin prison directors today passed a resolution instructing the warden to keep the footpads and kindred criminals in close confinement and to give them only two meals per day their first year in the penitentiary. This action is taken on account of the numerous robberies and hold-ups by footpads in San Francisco since the bad element arrived for the midwinter fair.

MITCHELL NEWS.

Many Have La Grippe—The Literary and Dramatic Society.

The 5th and 6th snow fell to the depth of three inches.

January 2d the mercury fell within four degrees of zero.

The grippe has many in close confinement. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shrum have been quite ill, also Mrs. Dr. Hauck looks a little pale and thin from an attack that lasted a week or more. Many others are less seriously afflicted.

The measles in a light form is still afflicting a few.

I find in the Grant County News that Fox Valley's quartz mill is running twenty-four hours per day with good success, also another ledge has been found. It does not state if they are gold or silver bearing. We hope it is gold. We have but little need for silver.

The Mitchell Literary and Dramatic Society gave an entertainment, Jan. 1st, at Misner's hall at lower town. The program was nicely executed, all sustaining their respective parts very ably. Opening song by Max Pritz, Fred Hoyt, Sella Boardman, Mrs. McEern; recitation, Robert Wilson; reading, "All Must Be Friends Tonight," Max Pritz, which was very appropriate. Banjo solo, Frank Chamberlain; dialogue, "Antidote," Fred Hoyt, Mrs. Boardman, Mrs. McEern, Nellie Helms; song and dance by Frank Chamberlain accompanied by Miss Boardman; dialogue, "Mrs. Susan Jones," Miss Nicolas, Miss Wheeler, Mrs. McEern, Sella Boardman and Nig Magee; select reading, Mrs. McEern; pantomime, "A Wife Wanted," splendid. Other recitations, readings and songs of interest filled up the time from 8 to 12 o'clock. Although the manager was forced to be absent the appointed manager did his part well, but I must say of the people, certainly of this country and town, might show better breeding than they did there. We have some very nice, quiet people and some are extremely rude and such should be dealt with as they deserve and it would be well if our town authorities would care for the noisy ones at our next entertainment, which I hope will be soon. E. V. E.

Mitchell, Or., Jan. 7, 1894.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. W. A. McGuire, of McKay, Ohio, says: "La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children when troubled with colds or croup. Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

COST OF BRITISH DEFENSE.

The Immense Expense Incurred by England's Military Operations.

The British empire spends as a rule upon defense from $250,000,000 to $280,000,000 a year, of which the military expenditure for India, with the indirect expenditure for the sake of India on the mobile land forces at home, forms the largest item, says Sir C. W. Dilke, in North American Review. Almost the whole of this vast sum is expended out of British loans or taxes under the control of the parliament of the United Kingdom, and out of India taxes under the indirect control of the house of commons through the secretary of state, who is a member of the government of the day. This expenditure, although vast, although open to the reproach that it does not do more than maintain a fleet slightly superior to that of France, and an army of very small numbers, is a feat as compared (in its ill effect upon the wealth of the nation) with the military expenditure of Italy, or, in a less degree, with that of other continental powers. The evidences of the overpressure of taxation in India itself, many as they are, are slight in comparison with those which are present in the case of Italy; and it may be assumed therefore that, while the taxpayers of the United Kingdom and of India may make their voices heard in insisting upon better value for their money, the expenditure will not in itself be brought to an end by bankruptcy.

HOW OLD OAK IS MADE.

The Process by Which Green Material is Made to Look Aged.

You will have to go a long way before you find a body of men more well-clever than those cabinet-makers who produce goods to satisfy the desire of the public for furniture made of old and fancy woods. They can, says Waverly Magazine, transform white wood into all kinds of exotic woods by means of chemicals, and a chemist would be surprised if he were to have the run of one of those factories for a day.

The manufacture of "old" oak is one of their easiest processes. The boards, moldings, panels or whatever pieces are required are made of oak which has just had time to dry sufficiently to prevent excessive warping.

They are then placed in a dark room, on the floor of which, and quite close to the furniture to be "aged," are placed several bowls, plates, and so forth, of liquid ammonia; the room is hermetically closed up and the wood is left for a month or two, according to the age which is required. The coloration will extend to a depth of nearly a quarter of an inch if the room is kept closed for a few months.

That is why there is so much old oak furniture about. Of course, a little reflection would show that it could not be genuine—the forests of the middle ages would not have furnished one-half of it; but people do not always reflect.

The getting it down is bad enough, with the ordinary pill. But the having it down is worse. And, after all the disturbance, there's only a little temporary good.

From beginning to end, Dr. Pierce's Pellets are better. They're the smallest and easiest to take—tiny, sugar-coated granules that any child is ready for. Then they do their work so easily and naturally that it lasts. They absolutely and permanently cure constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, sick and bilious headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. They are guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

The makers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy say: "If we can't cure your Catarrh, no matter what your case is, we'll pay you $500 in cash." Now you can see what is said of other remedies and decide which is most likely to cure you. Costs only 50 cents.
