BOUTELLE SAT UPON
Speaker Crisp Administers a Severe Rebuke to Him.

THE GENTLEMAN THEN RETIRES
Flood of Petitions Against the Wilsonson Bill—The Case of Hornblower.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—In the house, on motion of Crin of Texas, senate bill relieving the Aransas Pass Harbor company of Texas from the time limitations of the act of 1890, as to the improvements of Aransas Pass, was passed.

Before the house resolved itself into committee of the whole for consideration of the tariff bill, Boutelle made another fruitless attempt to bring forward his Hawaiian resolution. He made an impassioned protest against the refusal of the house to consider the matter, saying: “Congress should have the right to repudiate the odium under which it rests. The democratic majority should have the right to unload from congress and the democratic party this burden of outrage and disgrace.” [Republican applause.]

“There must be some limit,” declared the speaker sharply, “to the right of a gentleman to violate the privileges of the house. There must be some power in the majority to protect itself against these repeated violations. The gentleman will resume his seat, and the house, under the special order adopted, will resolve itself into committee of the whole for further consideration of the tariff bill.” Boutelle retired to the rear of the hall.

Richardson took the chair, and the reading of the tariff bill began.

A Train Robber Killed.
HAVERSTRAW, Jan. 15.—Yesterday morning the watchman at Haverstraw tunnel, on the West Shore railroad, discovered the body of a man lying on the south-bound track with his skull crushed in. The body was found to be that of a robber, as he had burglars' tools in his pockets, and wrapped around his body were 19 yards of velvet, which he had stolen from a West Shore freight car. He had secreted himself in the car at Weehawken, and when he arrived at Haverstraw opened the door and threw out a number of boxes of plush and velvet and jumped from the moving train; he landed on his head and was killed. It is supposed that he had accomplices here waiting for him to throw off the goods, as some of the boxes were found hidden under the trestle just north of the tunnel. The dead man was about 30 years old and had a smooth face. He wore dark clothes, apparently new, and a derby hat. The letters “J. D.” were tattooed on the left arm.

Lilliuokalani's Threatened Suit.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The rumor that ex-Queen Lilliuokalani is about to bring suit against the United States for a large sum of money, basing her claim for damages upon the recent Hawaiian message and Secretary Gresham's letter, has created a great deal of interest in official circles. A suit cannot be brought by an individual against the government, and there is no method of procedure, through the courts, by which the ex-queen could present her claim. The only course Lilliuokalani can pursue is to submit her claim against the United States. This congress would have to approve before the claim could be adjusted by the court of claims. In fact, the only recourse of the ex-queen is to congress, where, in view of her present unpopularity, she could scarcely expect to meet with satisfaction or success.

Condition of the Corwin.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The revenue cutter Corwin has been brought out of her retirement, but she is in a very bad way and will have to be laid up for repairs. Her record-breaking attempt to get in at night was too much for the little boat, and her boilers have given out. They will have to be thoroughly overhauled, new water tanks put in and the machinery patched up before she can again go to sea. The vibration of the machinery was so great toward the end that the hull was slightly strained, and the vessel is leaking a little.

Hermann's Amendments.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Representative Hermann has offered, under the arrangement for amendments, amendments restoring quicksilver and nickel ore and wool to the protection list; also an amendment increasing the duty on hops from 8 to 15 cents per pound, and a further amendment increasing the duty on prunes from the proposed ad valorem of 20 per cent, to 2 cents per pound.

NEWS NOTES.
The gold reserve is down to $74,108, 149.
Hornblower's nomination was rejected by a vote of 30 to 24 in the senate yesterday.
If the appeal of Vaillant is dismissed, it is expected he will be guillotined on February 5th.
The resolution adopted by the Portland, Or., chamber of commerce the 6th inst., condemning the statements of Governor Pennoyer in his Christmas-day letter to the president as to the impoverished condition of the people of Oregon, as injurious and not warranted by facts, was presented by Mitchell of Oregon, read and referred to the committee on education and labor yesterday.
The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. W. A. McGuire, of McKay, Ohio, says: “La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children when troubled with colds or croup. Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.”

MANY PEOPLE KILLED
Frightful Railroad Collision Near Jersey City.

PASSENGER CARS TELESKOPIED
The Accident Caused by a Fog—A Train Robber Accidentally Killed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—An accident occurred this morning at Hackensack bridge, on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western road, near Jersey City. Two passenger trains collided with fatal results. The collision was between the Dover and Orange express trains, and was caused by fog. Two cars telescoped, 16 people were killed, and 25 injured. The Dover express left Rossville at 8 a. m., followed four minutes later by the regular commutation train. Approaching Hackensack bridge the engineer of the express slowed up, the fog preventing him from seeing the signals. The commutation train following did not slow up, and crashed into the rear of the express, completely wrecking the last two cars, both full of passengers, who were crushed to death or terribly mangled. The engineer of the commutation train is missing, supposed to be among the killed. A passenger of one of the trains who reached here says he counted fifteen dead bodies alongside the wreck, and others are thought to be dead.

DROPPED WITH A COLD THUD.
Cleveland Has Given Up His Scheme of Restoration.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Chairman McCrary, of the house committee on foreign affairs, and Representative Holman of Indiana, conferred this morning as to the proposition which would be submitted to congress for a solution of the Hawaiian problem. After the talk McCrary said: “The solution to the question will undoubtedly be ready to submit to the house before January 25th.” Holman said: “I will not present my Hawaiian resolution, for the members of the foreign affairs committee are acting very fairly in trying to solve the problem. One thing is certain, the question of restoring Lilliuokalani to the throne is for all time abandoned, not only in executive but in congressional circles. It will never be heard of again.”

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept trying it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. MADISON MUSTARD, Otway, Ohio. Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.
