New York City has just found out that Oregon prunes are superior to any others.

The Chronicle records the nomination of Hon. O. N. Denny for governor of Oregon.

Slate makers are busy in arranging for the June election. Aspirants for Mr. Hermann's place in the first district are trying to give out the impression that Mr. Hermann craves gubernatorial honors.

A report of the water commissioners is printed in another column, called forth from the following item in yesterday's CHRONICLE:

The question has been asked us, why do not the water commissioners submit a report once in a while, so that the public would know what becomes of the money collected.

We believe that if the commission had published a financial statement of the gross amounts collected and the disposition of such funds it would have been more satisfactory.

The democratic party is making a good deal more headway towards convincing the people that it is a mere aggregation of office-seekers than it is towards fulfilling its pledges and winning popular confidence.

CURRENT PRESS COMMENT.

A Connecticut school-marm saved the lives of three young men, yesterday, but under the laws of that state she can only marry one of them.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

If Lil, Corbett, Mitchell, Piexoto, Melo, De Gama and the Associated Press manager could be put in one small sack and dropped overboard from the Nichtheroy, a long suffering people in these United States would have several sizable sighs of relief.—Hood River Glacier.

There is no use kicking against Carlisle's bond issue. The trouble lies with the democratic policy which has driven the country to the necessity of borrowing money.

How different is the real from the fancied sometimes. The editor of the Tacoma Sun, after being in the general presence of the governor, says: "Imagine the upper end of the North Pole melting away before the torrid sun, and you can easily trace the course taken by our frigid idea in the presence of Ore-gon's chief executive. Unassuming, cordial, kind, fatherly, Sylvester Penoyer! Tender-hearted, sympathetic, truthful, brave Penoyer."

Nebraska populists believe they need an organ through which they can sing their songs to the world. The following features have been unofficially announced for the initial number:

SHUT YOUR MOUTH.

By Keeping It Open You Endanger Your Health. Don't be offended. The admonition is not meant as a reflection upon your talkativeness.

People who keep their mouths closed except when they are talking, eating or drinking, rarely contract colds or coughs.

Disease germs floating in the air find a direct route into the lungs of a person who breathes through his mouth.

The teeth suffer from too much and too frequent exposure to the atmosphere. Sudden changes of temperature, whether liquid or atmospheric, are hurtful to them.

Throat and lung diseases are often contracted by persons who go about open mouthed.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
