JANUARY JOTTINGS.

Minor Events Which Pertain to City and Country.

She asked him why he did not go, instead of waiting on and on. And the facetious youth replied, "Because I'm already gone."

The Dalles String Band will give their first dance on Tuesday evening next. The large Klickitat bridge on Big Klickitat, costing $3,000, was washed out Sunday morning.

Congress failed to adopt Johnson's amendment, putting steel rails on the free list, yesterday.

The water has again receded from the dock and the river will continue to fall with stormy weather.

The Multnomah county tax levy has been fixed at 13 1/2 mills. The amount to be raised is $203,590.

Yesterday's precipitation was over half an inch and increased during the night to three-quarters of an inch.

The snowfall of yesterday and up to this morning is over two feet deep on hills southwest of this city, so we are informed.

Numerous deaths among cattle are reported from Gilliam county. They are falling victims to the new and fatal epidemic which appeared recently in Tygh valley.

The storms in the mountains must be severe, judging from the great number of mountain snow birds and "deer" birds which have been driven into the city.

It is thought by interested parties in the city that the thieves who robbed Ben Wilson and B. Harper are operating along the line of the railroad between this city and Portland, as several misdeeds have been reported in that direction since the robbery was committed here.

The readers of this paper will be much pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. A REPORT.

The Water Commission's Reply to The Chronicle's Suggestion.

THE DALLES, Or., Jan. 20, 1894. EDITOR CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR:—We see by yesterday's issue of your paper that the question has been asked, "why do not the water commissioners submit a report once in a while, so that the public would know what becomes of the money collected?" and THE CHRONICLE adds that it believes the question is pertinent, and suggests that the board make either a semi-annual or an annual report. Permit us to ask why THE CHRONICLE did not, in the same paragraph, inform us to whom this suggested report should be made? There is no suggestion any where in the law that the water commission should report to any one. We might, with just as much pertinency, ask, why does not the city council make a report so that the public may know what becomes of the money collected. This city has been incorporated for about 35 years, and no one ever heard it suggested that the city council should make a report. Yet it is just as much the duty of the city council to make a report as it is of the water commissioners. Pray tell us now to whom either of these bodies should report? To whom should the report be addressed? What officer or functionary should examine that report? Who could suggest or enforce any change in the acts of the board of water commissioners? Perhaps the person who knew so little about the business of the water commission as to ask this pertinent(?) question, would suggest that it be made to the city council. He had just as well say to the circuit court, or to the county court, for there is no suggestion in the law anywhere that the board of water commissioners should report to the council, or that the council could do anything with the report from the board of water commissioners, in any way. The board of water commissioners, like the city council, receives reports, it does not make them. Reports are made to the commission, not by it. Reports, galore, are made to the water commission, all of which are open to the public, and if THE CHRONICLE had only stepped across the street to Mr. Chrisman's store, he might have read reports for a week; and if this had been done THE CHRONICLE would not have displayed to the public its utter ignorance of the public, official acts of the water commissioners. Mr. Editor, within the sound of your voice, as you sit in your sanctum, and within your sight, almost, you may find monthly reports on file with the secretary of the water commission from the superintendent of water works and from the city treasurer. The report of the superintendent will show you the name of every person who pays water rent in Dalles City and the amount he pays. It will further show you the name of every person who has paid his water rent, for any given month, and the name of every person who has not paid. If THE CHRONICLE, or any member of its force, has ever failed to pay water rent, for a single day, after the month in which it became due, that fact is reported in writing, to the board of water commissioners, and is on file with the secretary and a public record. The monthly report of the superintendent shows every dollar collected, from whom collected, every dollar uncollected and the name of the person who is delinquent. This report is open to THE CHRONICLE. What more can you ask of the superintendent? The report of the city treasurer shows every transaction that he has had with the water fund during the month. What more can you ask of the city treasurer? A record is made of every committee appointed by the president of the commission, and the report of the committee is in writing, is read publicly and is placed on file for public inspection. What more can you ask of the committee? Every act of the water commission, every motion made, whether carried or lost, every communication received, every act done, is a matter of public record, necessarily so under the law. What more can you ask of the water commission? With all these reports on file, with all the public meetings of the board and the written record of every matter, that is ever brought before the commission, the great CHRONICLE has never seen fit to send a reporter in to get a single item. The proceedings of the board are in precisely the same shape for the reporter as the proceedings of the city council, the circuit court and county court, the justice court and the recorder's court. You can get every detail of the business of the commissioners just the same as you can that of the other bodies just referred to. Why have you not done this? Has the water commission been derelict in its duties, or has THE CHRONICLE failed to publish the recorded acts of the commission? If, once a month, THE CHRONICLE reporter, instead of making his daily visit to the city jail, to see if some worthless specimen of humanity has been arrested for drunkenness, should drop in to the open, public meeting of the board of water commissioners, he could get in detail every transaction pertaining to the water works for that month. Suppose THE CHRONICLE should leave out a few notices of the arrest of dead drunks and should publish some of the proceedings of the commissioners, then, in case some one should be so stupid as to ask for a report from the water commissioners, then ye editor might say "Subscribe for THE CHRONICLE and keep posted."

This is the first, the last, and final report of the commissioners. If any one demands any more than the written record of every transaction of the commission which is open to the public, his demands will be in vain, and the commission will pursue the even tenor of its way; and, in the language of Gov. Pennoyer, will be compelled to say: "You attend to your business and we will attend to ours."

Respectfully submitted,
J. O. MACK,
H. LOGAN,

Slowly Nearing Completion.

Hood River Glacier. It is barely possible that this year will see the completion of the locks at the Cascades and the steamers that now ply the lower Columbia reaching The Dalles. It is not probable, however, simply because the contractors have had exceptionally bad weather and conditions for the work. The Columbia never reached low water mark last year, and in the fall, when generally conditions for work at the locks are the best, the river marked several feet above its customary line. The winter has been open, but so wet that but little progress could be made, although the contractors have pushed the work to the limit circumstances would admit. If not completed in 1894, it is safe to say that the spring of '95 will see the long-drawn-out job finished.

Is There Anything in This?

The milk in the cocoanut seems to be the personal pique of the editor of the Telegram, who applied for the position of bank examiner made vacant by Stagg's appointment as receiver, and was endorsed for the position by Stagg. This endorsement was considered an excellent one because of his good standing with Comptroller Eckels. In view of this the savage attack of the Telegram seems the height of ingratitude; yet its very bitterness probably arises from the disappointment and chagrin at discovering that this endorsement is not only rendered valueless but harmful by the exposure.—Portland Chronicle.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Prof. Troy Shelly, county superintendent of schools is in the city today. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Ainsworth were passengers on the afternoon train yesterday for Portland.

The Heathen Woman.

With the exception, possibly, of the Christian woman, the Hebrew woman, the Mohammedan woman and a few other women, there is no creature more interesting than the heathen woman. She possesses all the qualities that contribute toward making the contemplation of the feminine part of humanity the most engaging, delightful and bewildering process that occupies the mind of man. The heathen woman has virtue, wit, reverence, love, whims, independence, tantrums, tears to shed and smiles. She is as headstrong as a catboat before a big wind; as gentle as Jumbo. She is a delightful entity made up of things very good and things not very good, the good far outweighing all else. The heathen woman has in as high degree as her Christian, Hebrew, Mohammedan or other sisters, that crowning glory of womanhood, maternal love.

The getting it down is bad enough, with the ordinary pill. But the having it down is worse. And, after all the disturbance, there's only a little temporary good.

From beginning to end, Dr. Pierce's Peppets are better. They're the smallest and easiest to take—tiny, sugar-coated granules that any child is ready for. Then they do their work so easily and naturally that it lasts. They absolutely and permanently cure constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, sick and bilious headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. They are guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

The makers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy say: "If we can't cure your Catarrh, no matter what your case is, we'll pay you $100 in cash." Now you can see what is said of other remedies and decide which is most likely to cure you. Costs only 50 cents.

COURAGE IN WAR.

No Longer Necessary Since the Introduction of Mechanical Appliances.

It is not probable that there is an army on the earth whose leaders would urge an advance against such an inferior of inevitable annihilation in the face of which their cumbersome equipments would stand as absolutely worse than nothing. A meager outlay in defense on the principle of direct concussion during hostilities would effectually bar the combined navies of the earth from approaching New York harbor near enough to hear the echo of the invading guns.

A defensive arc equipped with nitroglycerine boats and balloons could hold its own with leisure and literally strew the ocean floor with hostile scrap before a single shot could fall within sight.

Let it be understood that there is not a single element of uncertainty in the case; that every claim is based on a rigid analysis, is of simple and inexpensive verification and that such verification shall demonstrate fairly and fully that the ironclad and the armorment are floating scrap; that every mechanical thing that has met destructive negation and mere superiority of numbers, discipline and animal courage are lost forevermore as factors of victory in war.

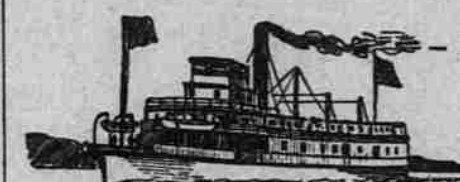

In this new application of well-known principles the fighting fools will find their occupation gone and the common humanities will begin to flourish as they should.

Oldest Agricultural Paper in America.

(ESTABLISHED 1810.)

To all cash subscribers of THE CHRONICLE paying one year in advance.

The American Farmer,

1729 New York Avenue,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE AMERICAN FARMER, which is now entering upon its 75th year, is the pioneer farmer's paper in the country. It is a large eight-page paper, and contains 56 columns of the choicest agricultural and literary matter, plentifully embellished with fine illustrations. It is

NATIONAL IN CHARACTER, and deals with farming and farmer's interests on broad, practical lines. It

EMPLOYS THE BEST WRITERS IN THE COUNTRY, and everything that appears in its columns is of the highest character. Every department of the farmer's business is discussed in an earnest, practical way, looking to the greatest profit and benefit to the farmer and his family. It appears on the 1st and 15th of each month, and is furnished at the low price of in advance. This makes it the cheapest agricultural paper in the country.

FARMER LEGISLATION.

During the coming year there will be an immense number of matters of the most vital interest to farmers dealt with by Congress and the Executive Departments at Washington. It is highly important that the farmers be kept promptly and fully informed, as to what is being planned and done affecting them at the National Capital. They should all, therefore, take THE AMERICAN FARMER, which, being on the ground, has better facilities than any other paper for getting this information, and devotes itself to the duty. They will find in it constantly a great amount of valuable information that they can get in no other paper.

THE AMERICAN FARMER and THE CHRONICLE will be sent one year for $1.75.
