FREE WOOL CERTAIN.

A Washington correspondent of the American Wool and Cotton Reporter says: The result of my inquiries among members of congress and others, including a lengthy interview with Mr. Wilson, is that either free wool or a considerable reduction of wool duties is certain to be made before the present congress terminates its existence.

The republicans will make a mistake if they vote for the recommitment of the Wilson bill. If recommitment, it may be made less odious. The thing to do is to withdraw all opposition and allow the bill as it now stands to go up to the senate.

In truth, says the Spokane Review, the administration's policy has been one of shameful double-dealing and deception. Its accredited minister went to Honolulu with honeyed words upon his tongue and with a stiletto concealed beneath his cloak.

WISE SAYINGS. He who forgets his own friends meanly to follow those of a higher degree is a snob.—Thackeray. The devil knew not what he did when he made man politic; he crossed himself by it.—Shakespeare.

THE USES OF TALC.

A Material of Which But Little is Known. Few realize how useful talc has become, now that it is mined at many points from New York to Alabama. Being thoroughly incombustible, it is of great value in the manufacture of fireproof wall-paper, paper window curtains, etc.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept trying it, and soon found that it was what I needed.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, - - - Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
