The income tax rider to the tariff bill is resulting in much dissension in the democratic ranks and may result in defeating the bill.

George Elliot, the English many millionaire, who died last March, had a sample biography for poor boys to paste on their hats. He began life at 8 or 9 years of age as a collier-boy. He went down into a coalpit and worked fourteen hours a day. He ended life as one of the largest coal owners in England or in the world. He did not owe his success to anybody but himself. He was not befriended by rich men. He worked his way steadily from the bottom-of the coalpit to the top. At the end of it Wales knew him as well as Durham and Yorkshire, and his hand reached out to Egypt, and beneath the seas over half the globe.

The vigorous measures for dealing with anarchy which are now being discussed in Switzerland, a country which has hitherto been notably jealous of all sorts of restrictive legislation, and notably hospitable to political offenders of all sorts, indicates how strong a reaction the recent anarchistic outrages in Europe have set in motion. It needs but a few more such outrages to set back the progress of liberalism for perhaps a quarter of a century: and the French socialists, who have been making great progress of late, are likely to find themselves suddenly paralyzed unless they free themselves entirely from all connection with, or sympathy for, the anarchistic party.

The Salt Lake Tribune says: And thus the thing works around in a circle; that if the wool raiser can only be knocked out and the Eastern manufacturer can receive wool from South America, Australia, Africa and the hills of Thibet he can compete with the Englishman in the manufacture of goods. Of course it is all rot. Of course it means simply that the intention is to compel American manufacturers to buy their material of foreign countries. The measure is in the interest of Great Britain and her colonies, and we believe the present demecratic president of the United States and the men who control legislation in the congress of the United States are willing to have this country robbed for a series of years just to open a market in our country for English Wasco County, - - - Oregon, The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year. ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future. The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products. ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
