About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept trying it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. MADISON MUSTARD, Otway, Ohio. GOOD ADVICE:

Every patriotic citizen should give his personal effort and influence to increase the circulation of his home paper which teaches the American policy of Protection. It is his duty to aid in this respect in every way possible. After the home paper is taken care of, why not subscribe for the AMERICAN ECONOMIST, published by the American Protective Tariff League? One of its correspondents says: "No true American can get along without it. Consider it the greatest and truest political teacher in the United States."

A VIVISECTOR IN AFRICA.

How a Scientific Gent Was Deprived of Five Thousand Dollars.

One of the most curious expeditions ever planned by man was that once undertaken by Dr. J. G. Bunting, of Portland, says the Lewiston (Me.) Journal. During all his life he had been a close student of the philosophy of digestion, and for the purpose of his investigations he had that remarkable Canadian, Alexis St. Martin, in his care for twenty years. In order to elicit matters and provide facts for some of the doubting Thomases Dr. Bunting cast about for some one else upon whom he might continue to experiment.

He could think of but one plan, and that was to go into Africa, buy two slaves, and operate upon their stomachs. By opening the body near the fifth rib and perforating the stomach a condition could be produced similar to that existing in the person of St. Martin. Therefore the doctor purchased his supplies and sailed across to Tunis in the north of Africa. There he hired a native chief with forty of his followers, paying them a liberal retaining fee and promising them alluring largess when the trip should be ended. They set forth. The doctor carried one thousand pounds in his inside pocket, and the chief probably lay awake four nights thinking about the matter.

At any rate, on the fifth night he sneaked into the doctor's tent and delivered a little address over the muzzles of two pistols. When he had concluded the doctor passed over his ducaats and the chief passed over the border along with his renegade band. They helped themselves to such supplies as suited their irtless and unenlightened tastes. The doctor came back without a retinue and with a deal of experience that will never appear in a medical work.

FROGS AND WASPS.

The Former Eat the Latter and Seem to Enjoy Them Very Much.

Some time ago I discovered, accidentally, that frogs are voracious eaters of wasps. I have in my garden a tank for watering, with an island of rockwork, which is a favorite haunt of the frogs, writes R. E. Bartlett in the London Spectator. The wasps just now are carrying on a raid against my fruit, and when I wish to gratify at once my revenge and my frogs I catch a marauder between a post card and an inverted wine glass, carry him off to the tank, wet his wings to prevent his flying, and set him on the rockwork before the frogs.

After a moment's pause a frog advances, and in an instant the wasp has disappeared, drawn into the frog's mouth by a single dart of his long tongue. Occasionally the wasp reappears, wholly or partially, having made it unpleasant for the frog, but he is almost always swallowed in the end. Usually convulsive movements may be noticed in the frog's throat and body, as though the process of deglutition were not quite easy; but that they like the diet is evident from the fact that a single smallish frog has been known to take three wasps one after another.

Indeed, it is remarkable what very small frogs, quite infants, will swallow a wasp with avidity. One afternoon a tiny frog swallowed a full-grown wasp, when a big relative went for him quite savagely, like a big schoolboy thrashing a small one for presuming to be helped before him.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause, on or before the first day of the next regular term of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Wasco county, next following the final publication of this summons, to-wit: on or before Monday, the 12th day of February, 1894; and if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit:

For a decree of foreclosure of that certain mortgage deed made and executed by Conrad Mowery to plaintiff, on the 5th day of June, 1888, upon the southwest quarter of Section Twenty-six, in Township One South, of Range Fourteen East, of the Willamette Meridian, in Wasco county, Oregon, and for a decree that said premises be sold according to law; that from the proceeds of such sale the plaintiff be allowed to have and receive the sum of $400.00 and interest on said sum at the rate of eight per cent per annum since March 27th, 1891, now due and owing upon the promissory note secured by said mortgage and herein sued upon; also the further sum of $50.00 as a reasonable attorney's fee for instituting this suit to foreclose said mortgage and collect said note, together with plaintiff's costs and disbursements made and expended in said suit including accruing costs and expenses of sale; and that plaintiff have a judgment over against the defendant A. Mowery, for any deficiency remaining after all of the proceeds of such sale shall have been applied in payment of said several sums; that upon such foreclosure sale all of the right, title interest and claim of you and each of you, and your co-defendants, and all persons claiming by, through or under you or either of you or them in and to said mortgaged premises and every part thereof be forever barred and foreclosed of all equity of redemption.
