FEBRUARY FARRAGO.

Minor Events of Town and Country Briefly Stated.

These tight and economic times, this paradoxical lesson teach: The closer money seems to get, the more we find it out of reach.

The trial of T. Richardson is postponed till 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The whist club of '94 met last evening at the residence of John Marden.

The club dance for tomorrow evening will not open until 9:30, to give all an opportunity to attend the "Geography Class."

Now is the best time in the year to spray for San Jose scale. The best conditions are dry, cold weather and before the buds swell.

The case of the State of Oregon against Miss Belle Lewis, set for trial in Justice Schutz' court at 10 o'clock a. m. today, was postponed indefinitely on account of the sickness of Miss Lewis.

Apples have taken a rise in town. Good keepers have risen to 60 cents a box on account of the demand in Eastern markets.

Mr. Herbring has received a letter from Father Bronsgeest under date of December 11th. At that time he was in Rome.

While the people of Western Oregon are splashing about in the mud and occasionally have to push the fog aside to get along, the inhabitants of the Eastern states are trying to wade through snow waist deep, while the wind is blowing their clothes from their backs.

On account of snow and freezing weather, work on the Cascade locks was suspended for a short time, but the change of weather has cleared off the snow and work was resumed several days ago.

The central committee met yesterday in Portland, and decided on the 10th of April as the date of the convention of the First congressional district at Salem, and the 11th of April for the Second congressional district at Portland.

We are reliably informed that there are parties in town who steal THE CHRONICLE, and wish to inform such that we will make an example of the next case that comes to our notice.

Not to be outdone because of the lack of sleighing this winter, a number of the friends of Mr. C. J. Coatsworth, who were invited to spend Tuesday evening at his home three miles from the city, chartered a hay rack, and seated comfortably on a bed of hay, enjoyed the ride out as only such a jolly crowd can.

A company of Sons of Veterans was organized last evening at Fraternity hall. The officers elected were Dr. O. C. Hollister, captain; H. Cheeseman, first lieutenant, and A. Varney second lieutenant; executive committee, F. Phelps, A. Varney and D. C. Lemerson.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Snipes & Kinerly.

Correspondence a Delusion and a Snare.

About a year ago Miss Dora Pennington of Ashland was introduced by letter to Clarence Dunn of San Francisco, who represented himself to her as a detective with a salary of $150 per month and expenses.

The Umatilla Rebellion.

The rebellion against excessive taxation is becoming general throughout the state. The latest county to report is Umatilla, where Joseph Gaston, esq., of Portland has been for the past week, getting out injunctions against the county court, the county judge, one county commissioner, the sheriff, treasurer, county clerk, and some of the Pendleton bankers.

Presto, Change.

Some time since A. Bettingen, sr., brought an action at law against John Cates for the possession of some lots in this city near Mr. Cates' residence. The suit is still pending. Last Monday Mr. Bettingen had about seventy-five cedar fence posts put on the disputed ground, with a view to fencing it up.

A Crooked Saint.

Tuesday a very singular-appearing individual got off a box car at The Dalles and "loaded" around the Columbia hotel until the local freight pulled out. Walking along the trestle, he jumped the train when it was under good headway, but the train stopped and he was put off in the cut. He threw a rock at the brakeman who put him off, but missed him, and he then retraced his steps to town.

Weather Summary.

The following is the monthly weather report for January of the The Dalles: Elevation above sea level, 116. Mean temperature, 39.4.

WOOD'S PHOSPHORINE.

The Great English Remedy. Promptly and permanently cures all forms of Nervous Weakness, Excesses, Sprains, Stomachic, Impotency and all effects of Abuse or Excesses. Been pronounced over 35 years in thousands of cases; is the only reliable and Economical medicine known.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Three cattle went over the Cascades Monday, and, strange to say, swam out unimpaired some four miles further down stream.

The foundry at the penitentiary is being put in order for resuming work February 1st, after a two months' shutdown. Casting will be done every afternoon and after the first day or two finishing will go forward at the rate of about twenty stoves a day.

Gunsmith Baker, of Eugene, is nursing a sad case of oak poisoning. His head and face are swollen all out of proportion, his eyes almost shut, his elongated mouth nearly closed, and altogether he presents a sorry spectacle.

John Coadron, the well known mining man recently examined a mountain of cement formation at Cove, about ten miles above Walter's Ferry. The mountain is 400 feet high, and it would require two arithmetics to furnish figures to indicate the number of tons of dirt it contains.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. M. T. Nolan returned last night from Portland.

Messrs. W. J. Kerr and C. W. Haight left this morning to Grass Valley.

Mr. D. C. Herrin and family are now permanently located in La Grande.

Messrs. Ed Patterson and Ed Mays came in from the Mays ranch yesterday.

Sister Ambrose fell from a step ladder Monday afternoon at the Academy, spraining both ankles.

Deputy Sheriff Phirman returned today from Hood River, where he has been subpoenaing jurors, judges and clerks of election.

Good Chance for a Rustler.

A man is wanted by Kerr & Buckley of Grass Valley to run their hay and grain ranch on shares, one with some means preferred, but can furnish all horses, harness, plows, etc., if necessary, provided he pays his own living expenses for the year.

DASHING A DUDE.

A Masher Who Could Not Stand a Girl with a Sketch Book.

Three decidedly attractive girls got on a Sixth avenue elevated train and immediately a score of masculine eyes were leveled at them, says the New York Advertiser. The girls found seats together and tried to appear unconcerned and quite oblivious to the pronounced advances for a flirtation from two young swells who sat opposite.

Finally one of the girls opened a small sketch book on her lap, and then raising her eyes she gazed straight at her admirer opposite. He patted his mustache and smiled. She made a few strokes with her pencil in the sketch book, but did not smile. When she raised her eyes again he realized that she was watching him.

A Strange Sight.

One of the most amusing spectacles of the Columbian exposition was seen in front of the California building on the day of the state celebration. A free distribution of fruit had been widely advertised, and carloads of fruit had been sent—great luscious peaches, plums, pears, nectarines and half-yard bunches of white Muscat grapes and flaming Tokays.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded.

KOREA AND THE KOREANS.

A Returned American Missionary Tells About an Interesting People.

Rev. Graham Lee is a Presbyterian missionary of Rock Island, Ill., who has been working in the Korean field at Seoul for the last year, according to the San Francisco Call. He says:

"The Koreans are an amiable people, and a man can travel all over their country without being molested or ill treated. Sometimes, of course, one will meet a man who is rather uncivil, but generally they are disposed to treat us kindly. Like all other oriental people, they are immoral, and Seoul is no exception among the cities of the east. It is a filthy city, too."

"The people are not at all progressive. There were some progressive Koreans who tried to have a postal system and mint to coin money a few years ago, but the innovations lasted only twenty-four hours; the people rose in revolt. Why did they oppose the post office and mint? Well, you know the orientals are never taught to think. In their schools all the pupils do is to go over mechanically a list of characters before them until they commit them to memory. That's why it is so hard to teach them mathematics. So that it might be said that there was no particular reason for the opposition to the proposed reform other than their objection to progression generally. The Chinese language is taught in all their schools."

ONE-LEGGED SENATORS.

Four of Them Were Together at One Time in Washington.

Say what they will, says a Washington letter, the associates of Senator Berry, of Arkansas, cannot persuade him to try a cork leg. At one time there were four one-legged senators. Three of them half concealed the loss with an artificial substitute. They used to get together in the cloak-room and tell each other how much more comfortable they felt, but they never convinced Senator Berry. He clings to his crutches, notwithstanding they have failed him more than once, and sent him headforemost downstairs almost to his death.

There are funny things about this one-legged business. Henderson, of Iowa, the Dubuque veteran, manages them so well that people form his acquaintance and see him around for weeks without learning that he is part cork. Once in awhile the stump becomes sensitive, and Mr. Henderson leaves the artificial leg at home for a few days to rest himself, while he hobbles about the house of representatives on crutches, to the amazement of those who have not known him long. A senator who manages an artificial leg without awkwardness is Butler, of South Carolina. He carries a cane and moves with some deliberation, but not one person in one hundred passing him on the street detects any stiffness in his gait.
