handiwork of Mrs. Eshelman, Misses Lang, Williams and Story. A cover of fancy cardboard enclosed two or three small sheets of calendered paper, the whole neatly tied with baby ribbon with pencil attached. The covers were variously hand-painted in water colors, or sketched in crayon, no two alike, and make pretty and artistic souvenirs of the evening. The highest number of correct guesses were found on Miss Rose Michell's card, and she was awarded first prize, a globe.

Copundrums were given to sides chosen, and nearly all of the good ones were guessed. After the trial of the wite, the entertainment was varied by an excellent supper down stairs, and the party adjourned to Kellar's hall to recoup their shattered nerves with coffee, cake and sandwiches. The party was decidedly a grand success.

SISKIYOU CAVE.

An Oregon Wonder that Surpasses Mammoth Cave in Kentucky.

There are few people in the United States who have not heard of Mammoth cave in Kentucky, but there are very many who have never heard of the greater sub-mountain chamber recently discovered in Josephine county, Oregon. Josephine is a southern county in the state bordering on California, and while the mouth of this great cave is in Oregon, it is not so certain but the innermost recesses are in California. It extends into the Siskiyou range of mountains, a rugged dividing line between Oregon and California.

While no one knows what is under the hill, yet explorations have been made far enough to disclose the fact that Mammoth cave, in Kentucky, is by far its inferior in every way. Captain Smith, its proprietor, a few weeks ago, gave this statement of the progress made in explorations:

"We have 600 chambers in sight and an incalculable number to find before we reach the end of the cave. The chambers lie in nine different strata—granite, marble, limestone, redstone and others—and almost every one of the natural apartments contain a marvel of some kind aside from its stalactites and stalagmites. In the 'Lord's supper chamber' there is an almost fac-simile in the limestone of the famous painting. 'The fairy chamber' is in a strata of California diamonds. 'Tornado chamber' is visited by a wind storm every twenty-four hours. In the 'Rain chamber' there is a perpetual drizzle, the 'Steam chamber' is constantly filled with steam from an undiscovered source. A coffin resting on stalagmites is the feature of the 'Death chamber,' and the 'Bridal chamber' is ornamented with a solid stone four-post bedstead. Then there is 'Sullivan's chamber,' so called because there is a mighty arm and fist pendant from the ceiling, and others too numerous to mention, much less to describe."

Worked Half a Day.

The people of Manitou were entertained the other day, says a correspondent of the Denver Republican, by the spectacle of a man carrying a stone around a triangular track, letting it drop and shouldering it again at every turn. The performer was a man who has a reputation for a disinclination to labor, and the incident was the outcome of a wager he was making about the hard times and his inability to get work. A citizen told him he would not work if he got a chance, and offered him fifty cents an hour as long as he would carry the stone. To the surprise of all he accepted the offer and held out for five hours. A large crowd gathered to watch the performance.

THE Oldest Agricultural Paper in America.

[ESTABLISHED 1819.] To all cash subscribers of THE CHRONICLE paying one year in advance.

The American Farmer,

1729 New York Avenue, WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE AMERICAN FARMER, which is now entering upon its 75th year, is the pioneer farmer's paper in the country. It is a large eight-page paper, and contains 65 columns of the choicest agricultural and literary matter, plentifully embellished with fine illustrations. It is NATIONAL IN CHARACTER, and deals with farming and farmer's interests on broad, practical lines.

EMPLOYS THE BEST WRITERS IN THE COUNTRY, and everything that appears in its columns is of the highest character. Every department of the farmers business is discussed in an earnest, practical way, looking to the greatest profit and benefit to farmers dealt with by Congress and the Executive Departments at Washington. It is highly important that the farmers be kept promptly and fully informed as to what is being planned and done affecting them at the National Capital. They should all, therefore, take THE AMERICAN FARMER, which, being on the ground, has better facilities than any other papers for getting this information, and devotes itself to this duty. They will find in it constantly a great amount of valuable information that they can get in no other paper.

50 CENTS A YEAR

in advance. This makes it the cheapest agricultural paper in the country.

FARMER LEGISLATION.

During the coming year there will be an immense number of matters of the most vital interest to farmers dealt with by Congress and the Executive Departments at Washington. It is highly important that the farmers be kept promptly and fully informed as to what is being planned and done affecting them at the National Capital. They should all, therefore, take THE AMERICAN FARMER, which, being on the ground, has better facilities than any other papers for getting this information, and devotes itself to this duty. They will find in it constantly a great amount of valuable information that they can get in no other paper. THE AMERICAN FARMER and THE CHRONICLE will be sent one year for $1.75.

Smith Bros. lost a valuable horse Thursday night. The cause of death is not known, but the owners are inclined to the belief that it was poisoned.

Mr. Leslie Butler, writing from Kansas, says: "Our spring weather has gone. Last night it was 20 above zero, and now it is 20 below—a regular blizzard."

It looks almost as if an ark had gone ashore at the base of Mt. Hood from the herd of wild animals to be seen there, says a gentleman who lately crossed over the Barlow road.

Mr. James Smith will hereafter give private lessons to gentlemen or ladies Monday, Thursday and Saturday evenings of each week at Chrysanthemum hall. Regular soiree Saturday evening.

It is learned that Goodsell of New York, a widely-known fruit man, who of late has been turning his attention to California fruit, and G. W. Barnett of Chicago, a member of the firm of Barnett Bros., will attend the meeting of Northwest fruitgrowers at Spokane on the 14th and 15th of this month.

C. C. Fulton, who is farming the ranch of Silas Privett, near Kamiac Butte, says the Walla Walla Statesman, has made several experiments in use of wet wheat for seed and has decided not to plant it. He discovered that from one-fourth to one-third of the wheat never sprout at all, but simply rotted away; while that portion which sprouted was very weak and unsatisfactory.

DIED.

At the family residence, February 2d, Mrs. Caroline Bettingen, wife of A. Bettingen, aged 65 years.

Mrs. Bettingen has been ill with consumption for about eight months, and though relatives and friends knew that the near approach of the end was inevitable, her death has nevertheless proven a great shock. Besides the husband three daughters and one son are left to mourn her loss—Mrs. T. Baldwin, Mrs. J. P. McInerney and Rose Bettingen, now Sister Mary Alberta, in the convent in Portland, and Mr. A. Bettingen, jr., proprietor of the Baldwin saloon on First street. The married life of Mr. A. and Mrs. Caroline Bettingen has extended over a period of about 35 years, having been married at Luxembourg, Germany. The funeral will take place from the Catholic church, probably on Tuesday. Definite notice will be given later.

Samuel Newman Killed.

Mr. A. Newman received a dispatch from Sprague last evening that his brother, Samuel Newman, had been killed, by being run over by the cars while boarding the train for Spokane. Mr. Newman took last night's train for the scene of the accident and will be present at the unfortunate man's funeral. The deceased was a dry goods and clothing merchant at Sprague, unmarried and 47 years old. He had just been appointed deputy revenue collector for Washington. He resided in The Dalles for a short time several years ago, making his home with his brother of this city. The sympathy of the community is extended Mr. Newman and his family for the sad bereavement.

PERSONAL MENTION.

THE GEOGRAPHY PARTY.

One of the Most Unique and Successful Events Ever Given Here.

The most unique, best attended and most thoroughly pleasurable social of the season so far was the "geography" party at Fraternity hall last evening, given by the ladies of St. Paul's Guild. The party furnished ample scope for the exercise of the wits, and there were both some good representations and some good guessers present. Each person were something on their person suggestive of some locality. The following were the representations and explanations:

- Dr. Eshelman, and Nona Ruch, "Europe," U made of rope.
  - Dr. Snedaker, "Italy," design of boot on card.
  - Vic Sampson and Mr. Sutcliffe, "Lowell," U worn low.
  - H. Riddell, "Trinidad," picture of a father of triplets walking the floor with them, time 2 a. m.
  - Hal. French, "Halifax," an eye with "hard times" inscribed under it.
  - E. Patterson, "Dayton," day of month on card.
  - G. D. Snowden, "Tyronne," the letters "rone" on tie.
  - Capt. Lewis, "Rhode Island," silver clam worn on lapel.
  - Mr. Russell, "Boston," a small bean pot.
  - Mr. Myers, "California," gold bear.
  - W. H. Lochhead, "River Styx," bundle of sticks.
  - Robt. Mays, "West Indies," the word west within two Ds.
  - Fletcher Faulkner, "Caribbean sea," C suspended from B by bows of ribbon.
  - C. J. Coatsworth, "Drumnsaul," drumming with drum sticks on sole of shoe.
  - Charlie Clarke, "Cayenne" and "Chili," red pepper.
  - Mrs. M. French, "Jupiter Amon," white star with almond suspended.
  - Miss A. M. Lang, "Tygh," necktie pinned on shoulder.
  - Miss Virginia Marden, "Virginia," her name.
  - Mrs. Eshelman, "Kansas," can of sauce.
  - Mrs. Clarke, "Platte river," a plait of ribbon.
  - Mrs. Snedaker, "Utah," card of tar paper with U on it.
  - Mrs. Shackelford, "Tennessee," small E (Chinook for small is tenas).
  - Miss Georgia Sampson, "Georgia," her name.
  - Miss Bird, "Alaska," a picture of a lass and the letter K.
  - Mrs. Myers, "Ohio," symbol of the state.
  - Mrs. Russell, "Connecticut," symbol of the state.
  - Miss Rose Michell, "Seattle," letter C joining the letter L.
  - Miss Annie Williams, "Des Chutes," cartridge suspended from D.
  - Miss Myrtle Michell, "Indianapolis," design of apple in D.
  - Miss Sula Ruch, "Missoula," her name.
  - Mrs. Varney, "Little Rock," small diamond pin.
  - Miss FitzGerald, "Behring sea," B, ring and C.
  - John Weigle, "Belfast," bell fastened.
  - H. Liebe and F. Dietzel, "Cross Keys," keys crossed.
- All present were furnished score cards upon which to record their guesses, and after plenty of time given for deliberation, they were gathered up. These cards were very dainty and were the
