A FRESH SENSATION

This Time the English Are the Principal Actors in It.

A BRITISH TUG SEIZED AT RIO

It Was Detected by Peixoto's Officers in the Act of Conveying Dynamite to the Insurgents.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 3.—A fresh sensation was created yesterday by the summary seizure of a British tug by order of Peixoto. The English friends of Mello and De Gama, it has been asserted, have not only given ammunition to the insurgent sailors, but have attempted to supply them with dynamite. The boat captured by Peixoto's men is the tug Cardiff, the property of an English coal company. It arrived here some days ago loaded with coal. This was discharged and the tug has since remained in harbor. Soon after she left the wharf she was overhauled by one of Peixoto's boats and the Brazilian officials went aboard, despite the vigorous protests of the captain. The Cardiff was taking dynamite to the insurgent warship Trajano. The Brazilian officials compelled the captain to return to the wharf, where the dynamite was taken ashore and put in possession of the government. The matter was reported by the captain to the British officials, but nothing so far has been done except cabling the captain's statement and Peixoto's reasons for making the seizure to the home government. The action of Great Britain over the incident is awaited with much interest. The English residents here are disposed to condemn Peixoto, and have grown indignant over what they term the ill-treatment of the Cardiff's captain; but in all other quarters Peixoto is considered as justified in doing as he did. Outside the English colony, Great Britain's pretense about observing neutrality between the belligerents receives little credence, and the people cannot imagine how she will explain so violent a breach of faith with Peixoto.

AN INSURGENT VICTORY.
News has been received here of a battle at Curitiba, 108 miles west of Parangua, on the left bank of the Curitiba river. At first the government troops seemed to have the advantage, but the insurgents regained what they had lost, and finally drove the enemy from the field. It is said between 3,000 and 4,000 men were engaged on each side. The government troops had 200 killed. The insurgents also suffered considerable loss.

Admiral de Mello has apparently recovered from his recent illness. Word has been received that he has been very active within the past few days in the southern part of the republic, and has succeeded in sending thousands of men north.

A BIG MINING DEAL.

Rockefeller Promises to Become a Man of Blood and Iron.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—A morning paper says: John D. Rockefeller has obtained absolute control of the most important iron mines of the United States. By a deal that was closed on Friday he absorbed all the Lake Superior iron mines, and all the big ones in Cuba. This places him in the same position toward the iron-producing business as he has long held toward that of oil. There is not a single mine in the Lake Superior region or in Cuba that he does not control today. To do this has only cost him between $9,000,000 and $10,000,000. He was able to accomplish this because of the recent financial crisis. The owners of these mines had been developing them at such a rapid rate that they had not enough cash to carry them through the hard times. Mr. Rockefeller seized the opportunity to buy everything in sight. On the 1 o'clock train for the West yesterday were Mr. Gales, Mr. Rockefeller's confidential man, and a party of trusted employes, together with several members of the Merritt family. They are on their way to Duluth to take charge of things in the name of Rockefeller.

$50.00 Reward.

I will pay $50.00 for the apprehension and conviction of the parties who entered my place of business on the night of the 15th inst. and robbed me by force of arms.

PEANUT POLITICS.

Hill and Cleveland Giving Us a Sample of Them in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—If Cleveland was slapped by Hill in the matter of the Hornblower rejection, he got back very quickly when he vetoed the New York and New Jersey bridge bill. It is understood that a great deal of money has been floating about behind this scheme. Who got it or was to get it finally passed is not known. It is a fact, however, that Hill was for the bridge bill and that the Cleveland veto was a slap at him. No one who knows Cleveland believes that he cares particularly about the commerce of New York or the effect upon it of the construction of the proposed bridge. It is possible that he was guided by a sense of what was right, but there are two sides to the case, and the people who go to New York are as much interested in getting into that city as the people who are engaged in commerce. It looks like some small New York politics were introduced into the congress of the United States. In the first place, Hornblower's appointment was made because it was believed that it would give Hill a great deal of annoyance, and not because he was fitted for the place. Hill fought Hornblower and defeated him. Cleveland retaliates and vetoes the bridge bill, which was so dear to the hearts of the machine senator of New York and his friends. Talk about your peanut politics, we are getting that sort of thing now.

Indian War Claims.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—There is hope for the old Indian war claims of Oregon and Washington. Representative Hermann secured a reference of his bill providing payment, to the court of claims, and it is now on the dockets of that court. Bills for payment have been pending for years in congress. The amount of these claims is $3,296,658. The original claims for the people of those two states arising out of the Indian wars of 1855-'56 amounted to $6,000,000.

Oregon Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—In the sundry civil bill reported today, $6,000 is appropriated for lights along the Willamette. When this bill comes to the senate, Dolph will endeavor to add $250,000 to the appropriation for the Portland public building.

Vaillant, the anarchist, was guillotined this morning in Paris 7:15 o'clock. His last words were, "Death to society; long live anarchy."

Wrinkles and hollow cheeks, and dull, sunken eyes, don't always mean that a woman is old. Half the time, they only show that she's overworked or suffering. To such women, to every woman who is tired or afflicted, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription safely and certainly brings back health and strength. It's a legitimate medicine that corrects and cures; a tonic that invigorates and builds up; a nerve that soothes and strengthens. For all the derangements, irregularities and weaknesses peculiar to women, it is the only guaranteed remedy. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

It won't do to experiment with Catarrh. There's the constant danger of driving it to the lungs. You can have a perfect and permanent cure with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

For the Miseries of Dyspepsia, And they include almost every unpleasant feeling that belongs to physical disease, this potent medicine, Simmons' Liver Regulator, is a certain and speedy cure.

GENTLEMEN—I am subject to periodical attacks of sick headache of the worst possible type, and commenced taking Krause's Headache Capsules last summer. They cure it in every instance, and since that time I am enjoying splendid health and have gained ten pounds in weight. Yours very truly,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, GENERAL LAND OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 30, '94.

Registers and Receivers, U. S. Land Offices: GENTLEMEN—It is found that in transmitting testimony in contest cases and hearings, that the same is frequently written in ink by different scribes, and on both sides of the sheet and also sometimes crossing the sheet, to the great inconvenience of the law clerks and examiners of this office who examine the cases.

I have therefore to direct that in all cases hereafter you will cause the writing to be made on good paper upon one side of the sheet only, and if you have a typewriter the same should be used invariably for this class of work.

Very respectfully,

S. W. LAMOREUX, Commissioner.

Chinese New Year.

The Chinese are celebrating their new year to-day. The Oregonian thus describes its meaning: The celestial deities of China, who reigned on this earth many centuries before the dawn of Christianity, and Kwong Sin, the young emperor of China, will be honored today by every faithful Chinaman the world over. Incense will be burned, wine drunk and peans sung by the local worshippers, to whom this is the day of days. All this ceremony ushers in the Chinese new year, the 20th since Kwong Sin ascended the throne, and the 4,680th since the birth of Quong Gong, who is known and revered as the father of his country.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

One of the largest mining deals ever consummated in Baker county was closed Thursday night, a Chicago syndicate purchasing the White Swan. It is stated $250,000 was the price paid. This mine has been operated two years and for months past has yielded $500 in gold daily with a mill of 10 stamps. The new company will immediately commence sinking a new shaft to tap the vein of ore at a depth of about 300 feet, and will add 30 more stamps to the mill.

According to the Corvallis Gazette, about two more seasons of high water like those already experienced this winter will result in the cutting of a new channel through the Willbanks farm, and thus leave Corvallis on a comparative island, as it were. Nothing but a small bed of gravel two or three feet thick and perhaps 100 feet in length, prevents the water from pursuing that which is almost a natural channel through the farm to the lake, thence into its natural source.
