Afternoon Whist Party.

Another of those pleasant afternoons, which are becoming so popular among the ladies, was spent with Mrs. Sinnott and Mrs. Fish Saturday afternoon. Their parlors are beautifully arranged for a drive whist party, and all were delighted with the manner in which they were entertained. The souvenirs were pretty bows of ribbons—green for the "gentlemen" and pink for the ladies, with the date and number of the table painted on them. Half of the games being played, an exceptionally fine lunch was served, when the remaining games were played and the prizes won by Mrs. A. R. Thompson, Mrs. Hobson and Mrs. Klein. The ladies present were: Mesdames Lord, Myers, Eshelman, Hobson, Bradshaw, Thornbury, Beall, Wilson, Briggs, Peters, Klein, Hudson, Kinersly, Hollister, French, Houghton, Hilton, Crossen, Wilson Thompson, Crowe, Garretson, Brooks, Crandall, Ainsworth, Hostetler, Blakeley, Glenn, Bennett, Pease, Misses Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Minnie Michell, Virginia Marden, Lulu Bird.

A fine five-year-old horse at Mr. C. L. Richmond's livery stable, belonging to a peddler, was turned loose in an adjoining shed to roll and shake himself today, and in rolling over struck one of his hind legs against a wagon that was close by and broke it. The unfortunate animal was in great pain, and as there was no hope of saving him, he was ordered killed.

Conductor French has recently returned from a trip through the East. He says that the financial stiffening is all knocked out of the places he has visited. Leavenworth and St. Louis are almost the deadest places on earth, and is only approached in the far West by Spokane, where times are really deplorable. Railroad crews have been reduced to a few hours a week, and everything is down to a starvation limit.

Hoodlums in The Dalles.

Two or three hoodlums abused the hospitality of the Chinese today. They entered one of the wash houses, and after begging some cigars, one of them deliberately helped himself to some money which was lying on a table. A remonstrance being raised, he struck one of the Chinamen in the face, but dropped the money and all went out. If a boy has no better sense of decency than this at the age of 16 or 18 years he never will have. No arrests have yet been made, but if the Chinese were not the very mild people they are they would either have the young man punished through process of law, or take it out of his hide.

The Chinese are not the only sufferers from hoodlumism in The Dalles. The churches have been bothered for years by these unruly disturbers of peace and decorum, and it has resulted in the trustees of the Methodist church recently issuing an order to the ushers to promptly eject all hoodlums at the first attempt at disorder. They promise to stand by them in their action. Other churches should adopt the same measure. A little muscular religion is sometimes not out of place.

Looking at the New Road.

The mayor and two members of the city council viewed the proposed new road to the East End, which was the subject of an extensively signed petition Saturday night. They found that the route is impracticable for the reason of a tremendous grade encountered after reaching Fourth and Jefferson streets, where the road turns to climb the hill, accomplishing the remainder of the climb at about an angle of thirty-five degrees, and in the space of one square. Though it would not be necessary to cut down a tree and drag it from the rear of the wagon, as was done in the early days, it would be politic to rough-lock if the wagon was very heavily loaded while making the descent. A better way was shown them by Mr. B. F. Laughlin, which is to keep below the bluff, and climb gradually until a depression is met leading to G street, past Mr. Bert Thurston's house, and on to the high land, where several roads branch out in all directions. This route would be much less expensive, and a great number of subscriptions of work be secured.

Delegates Elected.

The McKinley club met Saturday night to elect delegates to send to Portland to assist in drafting a platform and planning the coming state campaign. Mr. B. S. Huntington took the chair and Mr. M. T. Nolan acted as secretary. Five delegates were chosen, Messrs. F. P. Mays, A. M. Kelsay, J. G. Farley, B. F. Laughlin and H. H. Riddell. Messrs. Kelsay, Farley and Laughlin left last night and Mr. Riddell will take the afternoon train for Portland, as the convention occurs tomorrow.

NEW ROAD PROPOSED.

And Other Matters Considered by the City Council.

The city council met in regular session Saturday night, present Mayor Kreft and Councilmen Butts, Lauer, Crowe, Joles and Eshelman. The recorder was absent during the early part of the evening and the minutes were read by ex-recorder Frank Menefee.

A petition, signed by many taxpayers, was read, to make a new road leading to the East End down the hill, by grading Fourth street to Jefferson, from Jefferson to G street, from such point southerly to the southeast corner of the district fair grounds, thence in a southeasterly direction to the city limits, and making all necessary cuts and fills. The petition was accompanied by a subscription of $250 in work. A motion prevailed to take the petition under consideration. Mr. Jack Elton, who was present, than arose and pleaded the importance of the improvement prayed for. He said that he would bond himself for furnishing the sum of $1,500 in work should the proposition be favorably considered by the council, and a suitable sum appropriated by the city to aid in completing the road. Mr. Elton said that the main support of the city comes from that direction, and that this drive road was needed to the depot and freight houses. The road should be 16 feet wide and covered with crushed rock. The mayor said the petition was out of order, because many of the names upon it did not own property adjacent to the improvement. Ald. Lauer claimed that this would not affect its regularity, as without those names there were three-fourths if not four-fifths of all the property-owners concerned represented in the petition. Ald. Eshelman likewise thought the other names did not hurt the petition. Mr. Elton again tried to take the floor, but the mayor would not permit it. Ald. Lauer moved that the petition be referred to the committee on streets and public property. Amended by Ald. Joles to refer it to committee of the whole, so that every member could vote intelligently upon it when it arrived at that stage. Amendment accepted by mover of motion and carried.

An offer to buy the grist mill apparatus owned by Dalles City for $300, by Mr. J. C. Lucky was reported from the water commissioners with the recommendation that the offer be accepted.

The mayor asked for a report from the finance committee on the matter of investigating the treasurer's report. Chairman Joles of that committee said: "Your honor, life is too short; that is my report. If a proper investigation of the treasurer's report is made it will have to begin with the incorporation of Dalles City." The question developed that while the treasurer's reports are very plain and easily understood, there are old balances shown upon it which are the bequest of former incumbents ad infinitum, and that the best thing to do is to take them on trust and carry them along with the proper explanation.

On motion the reports of officers were deferred till special meeting.

Street Commissioner Maddron made a verbal report on a number of cross walks that needed repairing, and was informed by his honor that it was his business to go ahead and repair those which in his judgment needed it.

The following bills were then read and allowed:
