J. F. FORD, Evangelist, Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:

Gentlemen: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, Mr. & Mrs. J. F. Ford.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.

Sold under a positive guarantee. 50 cents per bottle by all druggists.

A PROTECTION BILL Such a Tariff Measure May Be Finally Reported to the Senate.

THERE WILL BE CHANGES, AT LEAST

While the Income Tax Will Carry, the Whisky Bonded Period Will Be Extended and Free List Curtailed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The developments of today's work in the senate finance subcommittee indicate that the income tax will carry, the whisky bonded period be extended two years longer, and the free list much curtailed. The committee has had in view a protection bill which will meet the revenue requirements and prevent another resort to a bond issue. Pursuant to this purpose there is little doubt that the committee has concluded to retain the income tax and place a duty on sugar. The Louisiana senators are so urgent in their demands that the committee will find it difficult to refuse to report favoring a duty on sugar. The committee is considering the probability that some changes will be insisted upon before the house will agree to the senate bill, and is shaping the bill accordingly. The whisky men are working hard for an extension of the bonded period and are likely to succeed. The chances are the tax will remain at the figure in the present bill or at most not above $1.10.

THE OREGON DELEGATION.

They Meet to Discuss The Dalles Improvement Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Oregon delegation tried to get together last night for the purpose of agreeing upon the kind of improvement at The Dalles that they would recommend. Representative Ellis was away on a congressional funeral and no agreement was reached. Senators Dolph and Mitchell and Representative Hermann discussed the matter at some length, and then agreed to refer the whole matter to another meeting to be held when Ellis returned. Hermann told the senators that it would be very doubtful if the river and harbor committee could be induced to do anything for The Dalles this season, because of the determination of the committee not to authorize any new projects in this bill, and the determination to make it a very small one. Both of the senators prefer the boat railway. Hermann said he would try and get anything the delegation would agree upon, but that he knew from past experience that the committee would never agree to the boat railway. It was decided to have another meeting when Ellis returned, and whatever was decided upon should be advocated by the entire delegation before the house committee, Hermann promising to obtain a hearing for this purpose. Other projects in Oregon were discussed, and Hermann told the senators that Oregon would be cut with other states.

The Oregon Style in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The contract for about $30,000 worth of cabinet work on a new building for the San Francisco Savings Union has been awarded to A. H. Andrews & Co. of Chicago. This action resulted in considerable adverse criticism by local furniture men. The reason given for awarding the contract outside of this city or state is that the building is to be furnished in bird's-eye maple, an Eastern wood, and that should any local firm have secured the contract it would have had to send East for all the stock used.

A Battle at Nitheroy.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 10.—A strong force of the insurgents from the rebel fleet landed yesterday at Nitheroy and gave battle to the government troops. Many were killed and wounded on both sides. Peixoto's soldiers, under the command of General Argollo, made a stubborn resistance. The insurgents did not gain material advantage, and after a severe engagement, were forced to retreat.

Now Try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a cough, cold, or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from a gripe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and thorough recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense, and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store. Large size 50c and $1.
 Shloh's cure, the Great Cough and Croup Cure, is for sale by Snipes & Kinersly. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses, only 25c. Children love it. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

SETTLED AT LAST.

Northern Pacific Receivers and Employees Reach an Agreement.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 10.—The Northern Pacific receivers and representatives of the employees have reached an agreement. The men wanted the schedule of wages raised, but the receivers refused this. The demands of the trainmen to be paid for overtime caused by wrecks was conceded. It was agreed that the standard run should be 100 miles and the time allowed to make it 10 hours. Shorter runs should be paid in proportion to the number of miles. The telegraphers' demand that a minimum salary of $50 a month be fixed was denied.

Huge Timbers From Puget Sound.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—An exhibit of timber from Puget Sound for the mid-winter fair has arrived from Tacoma on the ship Dashing Wave. There are two sticks, the largest of which is of Washington pine, 117 feet long and 24x24 inches square, and the other is 20x20 inches thick and 105 feet long. Both of these big timbers are from Harrison's mill, at Tacoma, which sent similar exhibits to the world's fair. The timber, which is 117 feet long, contains 5616 feet board measure, and weighs 10 tons. It is the largest piece of timber ever sent here and has not a single knot in it.

NEWS NOTES.

The employees of the Union Pacific feel confident that there will be no cut.

The Northern Pacific receivers are making contracts to operate 23 of the branch lines of the road.

Robert Fulford is charged with the murder of his wife, Annie Pixley. The affair is largely sensational at present.

The entire middle west was visited with a tremendous blizzard yesterday. Railroad traffic is generally interrupted, and great loss of life is expected in the country.

It is learned from official dispatches that cholera has appeared in Constantinople. A dozen deaths have occurred, chiefly in the barracks. It is believed the authorities are concealing the facts.

Six of the 361 diamonds stolen at Honolulu have been recovered in Fort Smith, Ark., by Chief of Police Surratt, who got them from Mrs. Hattie McGinnie, sister of Preston Horner, alias George Ryan, the man convicted of stealing them.

Congressman Wilson is suffering from nervous prostration as well as tonsillitis. He must have absolute rest and quiet for several days, and will be unable to leave for Mexico for a week. Doctor Griffith said Wilson was resting quietly Saturday, but he was a very sick man.

The Southern Pacific railroad has sent to New York for twenty-one new engines, all of mammoth design, and which will be used in the passenger service in the Sierra Nevada, Tehachapi and Siskiyou mountain regions. The estimated cost of these engines is about $250,000.

Just full of improvements—Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. To begin with, they're the smallest and the easiest to take. They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Every child is ready for them.

Then, after they're taken, instead of disturbing and shocking the system, they act in a mild, easy and natural way. There's no chance for any reaction afterward. Their help lasts. Constipation, Indigestion, Biliary Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

They're put up in glass vials, which keep them always fresh and reliable, unlike the ordinary pills in wooden or pasteboard boxes.

And they're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

Good Chance for a Restler.

A man is wanted by Kerr & Buckley of Grass Valley to run their hay and grain ranch on shares, one with some means preferred, but can furnish all horses, harness, plows, etc., if necessary, provided he pays his own living expenses for the year. One hundred and fifty acres is already sown and now growing nicely, 100 acres are plowed, ready to sow in the spring, and there are 100 acres of old land to plow and sow. For further particulars address Kerr & Buckley, Grass Valley, Or. dwtf

Pack Your Apples Well.

An Eastern dealer gives the following as the best method for growers to follow in order to get the top price for their fruit: Last fall some apples were shipped to him, which he readily sold for $5 per barrel, and some others equally as good from the same town which it was hard to dispose of for $4. The reason was that the first lot was carefully sorted and nicely packed, while the others were dumped into the barrels as they were picked. Appearances are sometimes deceptive, but they often count for much.

Crook County Ozone.

Not one-half the hay in Crook county will be consumed this winter. This will be long remembered as the easiest winter Crook county has ever experienced, and also as the season when money was the scarcest.

In Crook county we haven't much to brag on just now but our climate, which can't be beat. It's just the thing. The birds are singing in the bush, flowers are blooming on the hillsides, the festive wheelman is seen exercising his bicycle on the solid roads, and the baseball fiend has appeared with his ball and bat announcing that spring has come.

THE FIRST LAW OF NATURE.

The Instinct of Self-Preservation Illustrated by Two Singular Circumstances. "I never realized the strength of the instinct of self-preservation in man," said a St. Louisian to a Globe-Democrat man, "until I witnessed a test of it on a steamboat. Among the passengers was a man who had a black rattlesnake in a box with a glass top. The snake was a very vicious one and would strike the glass whenever anyone approached. The owner of the reptile challenged anyone in the crowd to hold his finger on the glass and let the snake strike at it. There could not be any danger and there was not a man who did not think it an easy thing to do. One big fellow, who looked as if he never knew what nerves were, tried it first, and, after repeated attempts, gave it up. Then every passenger on the boat attempted it, and failure followed in each case. It simply could not be done. Instinct was stronger than reason and will power combined. I witnessed another illustration of this in Paris. A young man had lost his last sou at a gambling table. Not only was he without means, but he had lost a large sum belonging to his employer. He started for the Seine to drown himself. On the way there was a great commotion, caused by the escape of a tiger from a strolling menagerie. The animal came down the street and people fled in every direction. Instantly the man who was seeking death climbed a lamppost and hung to the top of it, trembling in every muscle. When the animal was captured and the danger was over he went to the river and committed suicide. I was interested in the account of the suicide, and prompted by curiosity, went to see the body, instantly recognizing it as that of the young man whom I had seen make so frantic an effort to escape death, evidently but a few minutes before he sought it and at the very time that he was seeking an opportunity to end his existence."

In British Prisons.

In the English compulsory labor prisons the prisoners pass nine months in solitary confinement and are then assigned to the public works prisons for hard labor. By good behavior they experience a gradual amelioration in their condition. At first they are not allowed to write or receive letters and may see no visitors. Then, upon advancement, they may write and receive one letter every six months and see one visitor; then the privilege is extended to once in four months, then once in three.

A Shrewd Irishman.

The humors of the telegraph are notorious. "Do ye ever charge anybody for the address of a message?" asked an ingenious Irishman. "No." "And do ye charge for signing the name, sir?" "No." "Well, then, will ye please send this? I just want me brother to know I am here," handing the following: "Sept. 3.—To John McFlynn, at New York. (Signed) Patrick McFlynn."

City Warrants.

All those holding city warrants of date prior to September 1st, 1891, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest on same ceases after this date. I. J. BURGET, City Treasurer.
