SENATE ON THE TARIFF

The Bill is Sure to be Changed

Materially.

HARRISON FOR THE PRESIDENCY

Representative Johnson of Indiana

Denies That He is Working

For Him.

Preparing the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The senate committee engaged on the Wilson tariff bill was again at work this morning.

They made considerable progress, but have not succeeded in putting it in shape to permit its being reported to the senate as soon as hoped. One member said: "We may conclude our work within three or four days and we may be engaged upon the bill two weeks yet. We are getting on very well. We mean to have the bill in as good shape as possible when we do report it, therefore we do not intend to rush it too much." A report was circulated that refined sugar might be discriminated to the extent of placing a lower tax upon it than raw. A member of the subcommittee is authority for the statement there is nothing in the story. If the raw article is taken from the free list and a duty fixed upon it, said a senator, there will be an increase of duty on refined sugar, and it will probably be from $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ of a cent per pound higher than the raw sugar duty.

Harrison as a Candidate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The speech of Representative Johnson, of Indiana, on the Hawaiian question, in which he justified the course of President Harrison's policy toward Hawaii, has led to a report that Johnson voiced the views of Harrison, but the Indiana congressman disavows any such inspiration, and his friends have learned he is not among those who speak for Harrison or consider it settled that the president should again be a candidate for the presidency. "It is too early," said Johnson,

"to determine on a presidential candi-

EVANS AND MORELL.

They Have Again Played Hide and

Seek With Officers.

FRESNO, Cal., Feb. 12.—Deputy Sheriffs P. F. Peck and Hi Rapper returned to Fresno yesterday from their pursuit of Evans and Morell. It is said that all trace of the bandits has been lost. The last trace of the outlaws was on top of a mountain beyond Eshon valley the afternoon of last Wednesday. They were then heading in the direction of the higher mountains beyond, and snow had fallen till all their tracks were covered.

The officers since that time have been scouring the mountains and canyons on all sides, from the edge of the plains back to the deep snow. None of the settlers will admit that they have seen or heard of the bandits, and the belief is that they have made their way as rapidly as possible to some other camp which has never been discovered, and is lying there in hiding, waiting for the snow to go off the ground or for the officers to leave the mountains.

The Ledger's New Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—The Ledger today editorially says: "The Public Ledger passes, by the death of Mr.

Childs, under the absolute ownership of the Drexel estate, and the editorial and business management of George W.

Childs-Drexel, whose name appears this morning at the head of this column as editor and publisher." This, the paper says, involves no change in the character of the Ledger.

A Tramp Lynched.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 12.—Nora

Young, daughter of Farmer W. N.

Williams, was ravished by a tramp near Quito, Shelby county. The tramp was captured in an adjoining county this morning. He has not arrived at the jail nor is he expected, as he was left, it is understood, on the scene of his capture, with several loads of buckshot in his body.
