ENTOMBED IN A MINE

Thirteen Miners Shot Off From the Outer World.

LITTLE HOPE OF RESCUING THEM

Cold-Blooded Murder of a Man and His Wife—A Cuban Bandit Again at Work.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 13.—An extensive cave-in occurred at Gaylord slope of the Kingston Coal Company at Plymouth this morning. Seventeen men were entombed. Rescuers are hard at work, but there is little hope of getting them out alive.
Nearly all the men entombed have large families, and these are congregated around the pit's mouth, uttering the most distressing cries. One man who escaped by a hair's breadth reports that after the fall of the roof he heard the men groaning, then all was still. It is believed all caught in the fall are dead. Following are the names of the men cut off: Thomas Leysohn, Mike Welch, Pete McLaughlin, John Arner, Dan Morgan, Joe Ords, Thomas Picton, Thomas Jones, Richard Davis, John Morris, James Kingdon, Thomas Morrison, Thomas Cole.

From the office of the Kingston Coal Company, at Kingston, information is received that the cave-in portion of the mine covers an area of thirty acres. Thirteen men are positively known to be entombed behind obstructions which block the gangway, with no chance of reaching them inside of two, and probably three, weeks. Great excitement prevails about the mine openings and in the town of Plymouth. Business is generally suspended in the anxiety to learn if the entombed men are alive. Men who are well acquainted with the mine say that there is little hope of the men being rescued. The air supply is believed to be shut off.

FIRST REPORTS OF DEATH

Throughout Oklahoma Territory Many Lives Were Lost.
GUTHRIE, O. T., Feb. 12.—Reports of suffering and death come in from all parts of the territory. Mrs. Fannie Spencer, a homesteader near Cross, was found frozen stiff. Many persons are living in tents and their condition is awful. James Mulligan, near Perry, was found frozen to death, and his partner, Harvey Newcomb, died from exposure. At Ponca, Mr. Cramer and two children were found frozen stiff, in coyote's burrows, 10 yards from their abode. Colonel Henry Melton, a cowboy, who was with Buffalo Bill at the world's fair, was discovered by a party of hunters, early this morning, dead under his horse. At Anadarko two Indian pupils were found under a snow-bank. Upon being taken to a house one of the children immediately expired. The other shows signs of recovery.

This evening a report reached here of a family named Sears being found near Woodward frozen to death, but no particulars were obtained. Word comes from Cross that Sherman Stone and family, consisting of his wife and five children, were found sitting about a stove with their throats cut from ear to ear. The following note, found on a table near by, from Stone, gave the horrible story of the murder and suicide in connection with the storm.
"Our wood is all gone. Mollie is frozen to death, and the rest of us are freezing. I have killed my family and now I kill myself to prevent further suffering. God have mercy on us."
Stone was a homesteader and lived in a tent. It is thought that after the snow melts, hundreds of dead settlers will be found along with the remains of thousands of cattle.

Killed His Whole Family.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 13.—A dispatch from Oklahoma, I. T., says that seven persons were found dead in a house there. It is reported that their throats were cut and that the father of the victims left a note saying that he had murdered his family to keep them from freezing to death, adding that he would commit suicide. The dispatch says that twenty persons had frozen to death in Oklahoma.

A CRISIS IMMINENT.

Peixoto and His Cabinet Cannot Agree.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—The Herald's correspondent at Rio telegraphs to Montevideo the following: "It is rumored in the city now that a crisis in Peixoto's cabinet is imminent. The state of siege will probably be continued longer than was contemplated. Word has reached Rio from Santos that the rebels have landed at Iguape, a town in the state of Sao Paulo, on the south bank of the Iguape river, and are marching upon the city of Sao Paulo, capital of the state of that name."

From Rio Grande do Sul reports have just been received that the government troops have met defeat at Ombu. Three hundred of them were killed and their munitions of war and provisions captured. Official dispatches received here today from Rio, bringing confirmation of attacks of the rebels upon Nitchteroy and their repulse by the government troops. The new commander of the British fleet has arrived in Rio harbor.

Admiral De Gama Badly Wounded.
RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 13.—Admiral de Gama, commander of the rebel fleet, who was wounded in the neck and arm by bullets during the battle of Armacao Friday, is in a critical condition. Every effort is being made to save his life.

Breton, the Bombthrower.
PARIS, Feb. 13.—Leon Breton, the anarchist writer, who threw a bomb in the cafe or the Hotel Terminus last night, appeared in the police court this morning. He carried himself with the utmost effrontery. When asked if he ever appeared in the police court before, he replied: "It is not my custom to frequent such places." In answer to further questions, he said he fired at the police because they chased him with drawn swords. One of the police interrupted by saying the police were trying to save him from being torn to pieces by a mob when he fired. "That proves," retorted Breton, "that the people are a wretched lot. In any case, whether I die now or two months later, it does not matter a straw to me." The prisoner then assumed a coarse, chaffing tone, and seemed to glory in the notoriety achieved. He wounded twenty or more with the bomb, and hit five with revolver shots. Among the injured are Becit, architect of the chamber of deputies, wounded in arms and legs; Van Heer, eight wounds in the legs; and Michel, wounded by a shell. Crowds surround the cafe, the interior of which looks as if swept by a cyclone.

Policemen Poisson, who first attempted to arrest Breton, is suffering from four revolver shot wounds inflicted by the anarchist. He has been decorated with the cross of the Legion of Honor. The other policemen who assisted in the arrest will receive sums of money.
A Cuban Bandit Again at Work
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—News from Havana, Cuba, is to the effect that the bandit Manuel Garcia, self-termed king of Cuba, who for years has successfully evaded the government troops, and over whose head hangs a reward of $10,000, dead or alive, has again appeared with his band near the town of Aguatecane, within 40 miles of Havana. He lately menaced several owners of estates in that district, particularly Ramon Pelayo a wealthy planter, owning the Rasario sugar estate, from whom he demands $3,000. On Thursday night, February 8, he reported his request by burning a large quantity of cane piled ready for shipment to the Rosario for grinding. Many of the country people who furnish cane to the estate, learning of the bandit's presence, fled in terror to their homes, leaving their loaded carts in the field.

A Cold-Blooded Murder.
MONCIVIA, Mex., Feb. 13.—Juan Martinez, a Mexican, last night murdered John Wallace, an American, and his wife, and afterward fired the house burning the bodies of his two victims, on the ranch of Wallace's father-in-law, Lafel Seviere, near this place. Martinez had formerly been foreman of the ranch of Seviere, but was discharged to make room for Wallace shortly after his marriage with Seviere's daughter. This aroused Martinez' blood and prompted the murder. Martinez has been arrested.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
