WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Hawaiian Resolution Voted Through Administration Force.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9, 1894. It required all the power of the administration to force the cuckoo Hawaiian résolution, condemning ex-Minister Stevens and approving the Cleveland policy, down the throats of the democrats of the house. Objectors were plainly told that unless they voted for the resolution it would be a waste of time for them to ask the smallest favor from the administration, and even then it took two days to get a quorum of democrats willing to vote for it on the floor of the house. It was finally passed, proud of his vote. The senate committee has completed its investigation and it is expected that the resolution which will be adopted by the senate after the report of the committee is made will be free of cuckooism.

A bill was this week passed by the senate-that repealing the federal election laws-which the democrats believe will, through the solid south and the crookedness of such organizations as Tammany hall in the large cities, per-"Your salary has been $4,200 hereto- petuate the power of the democratic

SHIPS AND WHALES.

Vessels and Cetaceaus Collide Sometimes with Disastrous Effects.

The steamship Petersburg, of the Russian volunteer fleet, had a unique experience near Minicoy, in the South Indian ocean, says Chambers' Journal. A sharp shock was felt by all on board and she stopped as though gripped in a vise. The sea was found to be colored with the life-blood of two huge whales, which lay floating in their last agony. One was cut through by the steamer' sharp stem and the other killed by repeated blows of the screw propeller.

Church Bell.

A little missionary church was being built in a western town, says the Home Missionary, and Mr. Plumb, one of the active workers, or perhaps the missionary himself, had occasion to go into a blacksmith shop to get some rods. The blacksmith was a Bohemian who could not speak a word of Englsh, and another old Bohemian, Pete by name, was called in as interpreter. After Mr. Plumb's business with the blacksmith had been attended to, Pete entered into conversation on his own

There are many families in this section who do not take THE CHRONICLE, some in fact who do not read any paper regularly. To all such who may chance to see this, we desire to say that one of the first duties a man owes to his family is to provide them with instructive and entertaining reading matter. It is knowledge alone, intelligence gained by the exchange of ideas, by contact of mind with mind, which raises man above the grade of an animal. There is ns better, no cheaper, medium of instruction than the modern newspaper, hence the newspaper should find a place at every fireside. It is one of the things which makes life worth living. For the offer all an opportunity to procure two of the best papers of their class in America.

Wasco County, - - - Oregon,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities inculculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these orner stones sheast inch.

Common Sense.

This invaluable quality is never more apparent in man or woman than when shown in his or her choice of periodical readin; matter. First in order should come the Local Newspaper, so that pace may be kept with the doings of the busy world. It should be a paper like THE DALLE'S WEEKLY CHRONICLE, which gives all the latest Home News as well as the General News, Political News and Market News, with seasonable Editorials on current topics. No one can get along without his home paper. The newspaper should be supplemented by some periodical from which will be derived amusement and instruction during the evenings at home, where every article is read and digested. Such a paper, to fill every requirement, should possess these qualities.

First—It should be a clean, wholesome paper

First—It should be a clean, wholesome paper that can safely be taken into the family. It should be filustrated with timely engravings second—A paper that is entertaining ar structive while of sound principles. Its tone should be beyond question.

Third—A helpful paper, one that tells the house wife of home life, thoughts and experiences and keeps her in touch with social usage and fashion.

Fourth—A paper abounding in original character sketches, bright sayings, unctuous humo and brilliant wit.

Fifth—It should contain good stories and pleas ing matter for young people, that the children may always regard the paper as a friend. Sixth-Literary selections and stories suitable for older people should be given, for they, too, like to enjoy a leisure hour.
