S. B. MED. Dufur, Co., Dufur, Oregon.

Gentlemen—

On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours,
Mr. & Mrs. J. F. FORD.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.

EVANS AGAIN IN JAIL

The Famous Bandit was Captured This Morning

IN HIS OWN HOUSE NEAR VISALIA

His Partner Was Not Morell, but a Young Man, Enlow—Threats Made of Lyching.

VISALIA, Cal., Feb. 19.—Chris Evans and Morell are surrounded in Evans' house. Their capture is now only a question of a few hours. They have been there since daylight, since which time the house has been completely surrounded, and escape is impossible. At 9:14 a. m. a messenger was sent into the house with a note from Sheriff Kay and another from a Catholic priest, advising them to surrender to save life, as their capture was certain. The outlaws have detained the messenger as a hostage. The house is small, only two rooms, and easily commanded by the officers. About noon there will be a general move on it if no surrender takes place before then. Undoubtedly there will be some lives lost if the house is stormed.

After waiting an hour for the return of Beason, the messenger who was sent in with notes to Evans and Morell asking for their surrender, it became evident that he was held as a hostage, and the posse closed up, waiting for further developments. At 10 o'clock Evans sent out a child with a note for Sheriff Kay, asking him to come into the house for consultation. It was then ascertained definitely from the child that one woman and some children were in the house with the bandits, besides the hostage they held. After an exchange of several notes between Evans and Sheriff Kay, they finally agreed to come out if the officers would be instructed not to shoot and the large crowd of people who had gathered to witness the affair were sent back.

THE BANDITS SURRENDERED.
At 10:40 the door of Evans' cabin opened and Morell appeared and held up his hands, followed immediately after by Evans without arms. They were immediately covered by 20 rifles and Sheriff Kay and Marshal Gard advanced and shook hands with Evans. A delivery wagon was pressed into service, and they were driven rapidly to jail.

Beason, the man who was captured and held as a hostage is an old friend of Evans. He says that when he rapped at the door of the cabin Evans appeared with a gun in his hand, and after he had ascertained who wanted admittance, jerked him into the cabin and immediately slammed and locked the door. He then had Beason tell him the exact situation on the outside and asked his advice. Beason told him the whole country was aroused, that hundreds of men armed with rifles, shotguns and revolvers were concealed behind every fence, outbuilding and point of vantage, and it is impossible for them to escape. They were only waiting for the women and children to be removed to make a determined attack on the house. Finally Evans concluded it would be impossible to escape, and making a virtue of necessity, surrendered.

Evans looks very thin and pale, as though he had passed through a severe spell of sickness. There is great rejoicing here at the capture, as many persons had reason to fear his vengeance for giving information to officers, and there was a general belief that some valuable lives would be lost before he could be captured. He is now safely lodged in the county jail, and it is safe to say will not be given any opportunity to escape.

EVANS BETRAYED BY A FRIEND.

VISALIA, Cal., Feb. 19.—Evans and Morell were expected here Saturday night, and United States Marshal Gard was telegraphed the fact at Los Angeles. They did not arrive, however, but came last night. W. V. Brighton, who lives in Evans' house, informed the officers of the bandits' arrival, and he was detained in jail until the full facts were learned. Marshal Gard arrived at 3 o'clock this morning, but Sheriff Kay and posse had the house surrounded all night to prevent the escape of the bandits. Brighton and his wife have been living in Evans' house and caring for the four little children of Evans. Brighton has assuredly been acting with the officers; at least she gave the bandits away last night, but whether freely or under compulsion is not positively known. If Evans is not removed to the penitentiary trouble may occur tonight, as there are people here who favor taking possession of the prisoner and hanging him. They say our community has suffered enough from the action of bandit Evans. The officers have heard the rumors and will take precautions, maybe by sending the prisoners away by a special train. Fresno officers were notified this morning that he was here, but none came to assist in the arrest. It turns out that Mr. Brighton and the children were not at home, only Evans and Morell being in the house. But the crowd was too large for them to attempt to escape.

EVANS' PARTNER WAS NOT MORELL.

The man captured with Evans this morning was not Morell. He says he is a man who worked in a dining-room with him. John March who met Evans several weeks ago at Churchill, in reporting the fact here, said that people would not be surprised when they learned who Evans' partner is. Several citizens claim that the man now under arrest with Evans is named Enlow. The young man was raised eight miles east of this city, in what was called the Swamp. Marshal Gard says Evans and Morell were not in the Roscoe robbery. He has known their whereabouts, he claims, for weeks.

Following the arrival at Rio of the Nietheroy it is understood the other ships of the government fleet will arrive on the 23d from Bahia. This seems to indicate the expected naval engagement is likely soon to take place.

Joseph Keppler, the cartoonist and editor of Puck, died suddenly at his home at East Seventy-ninth street from spinal trouble. This was brought on by over exertion at the world's fair, where a Puck building was erected. He was born in Vienna on February 1, 1838.

News comes of a double murder at a wedding in Allegheny county. Daniel Slaughter had a dispute with some persons present. Suddenly Slaughter sprang at John Bare and stabbed him to the heart. Bare fell dead and Slaughter dashed for the door. On his way he stabbed John Long, killing him instantly. Slaughter was captured two miles away and safely lodged in jail at Sparta.

The action of the Southern Pacific in boycotting the Atchison & Topeka tickets has aroused the latter's wrath, and as soon as Vice-President Robinson returns from the Pacific coast, about next Thursday, active preparations will begin. It is not likely the fight will open until the Southern Pacific boycott goes into effect. Possibly before the trouble is over the people may go from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast for $5.
