WANTED TO LYNCH HIM

Evans Hurried Away by Officers to Save His Neck.

NO DOUBT OF THE INTENTION

Secretly Put in Carriages and Driven Away—The Delayed Sentence Spoken by the Court.

VISALIA, Cal., Feb. 20.—This morning developed the fact that there was a well-organized vigilance committee last night who fully intended to take Evans and Morell out and hang them. The attempt on the jail was to have been made at 10 o'clock, but the officers got wind of it, and together with Sheriff Scott, got two carriages and were driven up to the side entrance of the jail, and at 8 o'clock they were quietly taken out and driven rapidly toward Goshen. A few minutes after they left the fire bell rang mysteriously and word was passed around that the birds had flown. All sorts of conveyances were pressed into service and the chase commenced. Officers here telephoned Sheriff Kay at Goshen that a committee were on the track, and instead of stopping, their whips were plied freely, and they made for Traver. It is supposed they took the north-bound train there or further on for Fresno, which was their destination. There is no doubt had they not been removed there would something have been found gracing a tree or telegraph pole.

NEW ON HIS WAY TO FOLSOM.

FRESNO, Feb. 20.—Evans and Morell were landed in the Fresno jail at 1:30 this morning, having been driven from Visalia over the plains by Sheriff Kay and Deputy Sheriff Witty, of Tulare. The officers left Visalia shortly before 8 o'clock to avoid an attack that was to be made on the jail in Visalia at 10 o'clock last night. A posse of citizens that started in pursuit were eluded, and the sheriff and his prisoners drove into Fresno, stopping at Kingsbury to change horses. At the Fresno jail Evans called out to Jailor Manley, "I want to come home," and the doors were opened to let him in. Evans was taken from the jail to the superior court by Sheriff Scott and deputies at 10 o'clock this morning. The court room was soon crowded with excited spectators. Judge Harris announced that the hour for passing sentence on Evans had arrived and asked the prisoner if he had anything to say. His attorney, S. J. Hinds, made the customary motion for a new trial, which was denied. He then in behalf of his client, asked that Evans be sent to San Quentin instead of Folsom, but the judge disregarded his request and ordered him incarcerated at Folsom for life. Evans was not fettered in any manner, the officers apparently not fearing that any effort would be made by him to escape. Evans' face bore a cheerful look throughout the proceedings, and he greeted those who spoke to him, after and before the sentence with a smile. He denies in positive terms that he in any manner abused Mrs. Brighton, as charged in previous reports. Evans will leave here on the noon train for Folsom under a strong guard.

BOSTON'S UNEMPLOYED.

They Invade the Statehouse and Made a Lot of Noise.

Boston, Feb. 20.—Five thousand unemployed made a demonstration on the common this afternoon which threatened a riot. In an ugly mood they crowded into the statehouse and adjoining ground and demanded immediate aid. The governor addressed them from the statehouse. He was received with applause though he made no promises. An attempt was then made by the leader to get a petition before the legislature then in session. A large force of police was called out to guard against trouble. The leader tried to get into the legislative hall to present their grievances while the crowd remained outside. M. I. Swift, an anarchist, and spokesman of the mob, appeared at the balcony and announced that the legislature refused to accept the petition. The crowd broke into yells of derision and contempt. Then Swift launched into a tirade of abuse of the legislature. His threat to clean out the statehouse was received with shouts of approbation. A large number of policemen soon gathered on the scene, and Swift was forced to stop his talk, and matters quieted down.

NEWS NOTES.

P. A. Darlin has been named postmaster at Goldendale, Wash.

A terrible shooting affray occurred in Houston, Tex. It was a duel, and besides one of the occupants, half a dozen bystanders were killed.

The state hospital for the insane located at Rochester burned early Monday morning. Loss, $120,000. The 500 occupants were all removed in safety.

Another bomb has been exploded in a Paris hotel, and others found in public places, show that the anarchists are lively, notwithstanding the example of Vaillant.

A correspondent, describing the march of Colonel Ellis' column against the Sofas in Sierra Leone, give horrible details of Sofa slave raids. Entire towns were wiped out. The thriving town of Tokiviana, 3,000 inhabitants, is in ashes. The mutilated trunks of men, women and children are heaped putrifying amid the ruins. The absence of the bodies of young men and women indicates that they were spared to be sold into slavery. Colonel Ellis freed hundreds of slaves.

HOOD RIVER.

News Notes Pertaining to the Town and Other Localities.

HOOD RIVER, Feb. 20.—[From our Traveling Correspondent.]—Quite a lively literary society meets at the Smith school house, in Hood River valley, every Friday evening. At the last meeting there was a very good turn-out, notwithstanding the decidedly rainy evening. The question for debate at the next meeting is, "Resolved, That Capital Punishment Should Be Abolished." M. J. Cockerline is making great improvements in the rocky grade east of the Boyd roller mill. Not only has he widened the grade its entire length, but he has made a good turn-out near the top.

W. D. Richards and others did some good work last week on both sides of the bridge at Mr. Waterman's place on 8-Mile creek.

We learn that Summit Grange, No. 232, P. of H., had a very interesting meeting Monday, Feb. 12th, and that the following officers were elected and all installed except J. H. Trout, who was too ill to be present: M. A. Canfield; O. H. P. Moore; L. P. P. Underwood; S. A. S. Roberts; Sec., Geo. S. Willard; A. S. A. V. Underwood; Chap., "Grandma" Moore; G. K., J. H. Trout; Treas., Carrie Willard; P., Mrs. A. E. Underwood; F., Rose F. Roberts; S., Mrs. Ada Moore; L. A. S., Mrs. L. Canfield. P. P. Underwood and A. Canfield were the installing officers.

At a meeting of the Hood River Fruit Growers Union, held Saturday, the following directors were elected: Hon. T. R. Coon, B. R. Tucker, W. J. Baker, Wm. Slingerland, N. Evans, J. F. Armore and W. H. Davidson.

Snow fell all day long at Hood River yesterday.

The "Cuckoo."

Spokane Review.
It was Senator Morgan who coined the "cuckoo" expression so far as it applies to this administration, and not Representative Wilson of Washington, as many in this state have been led to believe. Here is Mr. Morgan's language: "The trumpet had sounded, the forces were marshalled, the clock had struck at the white house, and the cuckoos here all put their heads out of the boxes and responded to inform us of the time of day." But even Senator Morgan cannot escape a suspicion of plagiarism. A student of American history has dug up the information that Randolph originated the comparison nearly a century ago in one of his terrific conflicts with the existing administration.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Major Sewall Truax, one of the best known men of this country in its earlier days, died at Spokane yesterday morning, aged 84 years. Major Truax was a prominent character in the early history of the Northwest, and was unanimously respected. "Peace to his ashes."

Valentine Party on Mill Creek.

UPPER MILL CREEK, Feb. 21.—The most enjoyable party thus far in this neighborhood was given at the residence of Hon. Mr. Clark the evening of the 14th, and was the occasion of much jollity and pleasure. At an early hour neighbors and friends arrived. It was essentially a dancing party and the festivities began at 9 o'clock, continuing until a late hour the next morning. Supper was served at 12 o'clock and proved a surprise to all. In the center of the table was a whole roast pig. The central dish was surrounded by six large cakes, all covered with frosting of fine workmanship and bearing the words: "Midwinter Fair." These refreshments were supplemented with everything hungry mortal could desire. The music consisted of a violin and two guitars in skilled hands. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Vance, Mr. and Mrs. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Turner, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Matney, Mr. and Mrs. Cannon, Misses Ollie Cannon, Adie Cannon, Lena Clow, May Clark, L. Babcock, Evy Matney, Fanny Traylor, Lela Masdon, Eva Bengilene, Messrs. Victor Norby, Amos Pyburn, Gabe Hardison, Jake Ronstrum, John Shudeberry, Daniel Kelae, Chas. Matney, Ed Wickholm, D. Fancher, William Fancher, Ernest Hall, Frank Babcock, Has Clark, A. C. Meppie.

A Webfoot Pledge.

Young ladies in Willamette towns are organizing societies for the purpose of elevating the standard morals among young men in which the members pledge themselves not to associate with or entertain young men who use tobacco or liquor, play cards or have any other bad habits. The following pledge is printed on cards, signed by the girls and freely circulated among the boys who are marked as victims to be reclaimed:

The man who drinks the red, red wine, Can never glue his lips to mine.

The man who chews the nasty plug, Will in our parlor get no hug.

Who smokes or drinks or cuts a deck, Can never bit us on the neck.

So, don't you monkey with the cards, Or we can never more be pard.

The man who guzzles lager beer, Can never, never chew my ear.

Drink nothing stronger than red pop, Or in your lap we'll never flop.

The man who smokes the cigarette, Can never get a squeeze, you bet.

A Prominent Lady Arrested

Much attention at a Washington ball by her remarkable appearance of health. The glow of health and the charm of beauty need not depart from so many women, when a certain remedy exists in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for their functional and organic diseases. It properly cures nausea, indigestion, bloating, weak back, nervous prostration, debility and sleeplessness. Strength is renewed, energy returns, and beauty again blooms. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Druggists have it.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
