

Gentlemen's Neckwear.

We will exhibit in our Corner Window on SATURDAY, February 24th, a line of Neckwear, which we are now opening up.

The Silks are extremely handsome, and many of the Ties should have been marked to sell for 50 cents; but we have so far successfully resisted the temptation to do so, and will place them on sale at the uniform price of 25 cents.

They are good enough for anybody, at any time, and at any price.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

FEBRUARY FARRAGO.

Minor Events of Town and Country Briefly Stated.

No more toll and no more worry, When his bill becomes a law; All may get rich in a hurry Out of money made of straw. Uncle Sam is kind and cunning, He has heard his people call; When he gets his passes running There'll be millions for us all.

Ice is floating in the river. Mr. M. J. Anderson of Dufur is reading Blackstone.

The barometer is falling and there will be warmer weather tomorrow.

Bradstreet reports 101 failures in California and ten in Oregon for the month of January, 1894.

Mr. H. J. Maier, while helping to unload a box car yesterday, was injured in the foot and will walk lame for a few days.

The ice in the slough has increased in depth to an inch and a half, and many are availing themselves of the sport of skating.

Gov. Pennoyer granted a full pardon to Fred C. Mallony yesterday. Mallony was sentenced last October from Multnomah county for one year.

The present cold snap has been a benefit to fruit trees. A few of the more forward peach trees may lose their buds, but not to affect the crop in any way.

Bob sleds have first right to the Union street sidewalk. At any rate they take it, and no one cares to dispute possession when sailing on the downward trip.

"Among the Breakers" was played to an Antelope audience by local talent last week. Under the words on the drop curtain was a likeness of Grover Cleveland.

Lionel Stage still holds down the position of receiver at the Oregon National, and it is the impression of those who know best that he will stay. The news is pleasant.

The Baker City Democrat, speaking of the asylum injunction suit says: "It looks very much like there was a Salem influence back of these injunction proceedings and such work may result in a change of the state capitol. Who knows?"

No circuit court today. The halls of justice are deserted, and incidentally the county clerk's office. The Stars and Stripes are floating from the capitol, in honor of the birthday of the father of our country. The jury in the case of State vs. John Krier returned a verdict of guilty.

Miss Pearl Joles, about 12 years old, sustained the injury of a broken leg last evening while riding on a bob sled. The guide lost the power of its control by a cushion slipping forward and it ran into a tree, throwing Pearl out with the result of breaking her leg in two places near the ankle. Dr. Logan set the injured member, which will be all right after due time.

Up in a Montana town a choir, in order to get even with the minister, sang a 300-verse hymn lasting two hours. The result was no sermon that day. The next Sabbath they intended repeating it, but the minister was too much for them. He opened the service with prayer, and ended it with a blessing on the sermon, which would be as follows, and without stopping he talked three hours on the immorality of church choirs.

Report of Grand Jury.

In the circuit court of Wasco county for the state of Oregon:

In the matter of the final report of the grand jury for February term, 1894:

We, the grand jury, respectfully report that we have been in session ten days, and have found and returned into court three indictments and three not true bills, and have also inquired into several matters brought before us that did not warrant indictments, upon which no report has been made.

We also inquired into the condition and management of the clerk's, sheriff's and treasurer's offices, and found them all in good condition, and all books neatly kept, and all correct so far as we are able to judge.

We find the county jail poorly ventilated and would recommend that the county court have a high wall built, the same as the present wall, commencing on the east side of door in rear of the jail.

We also recommend that the floor in the county jail be repaired and the walls whitewashed.

We also visited the county poor farm and found it nicely kept and the inmates well pleased with their treatment.

We also visited the city jail and thoroughly examined the same; we found it in a very bad condition, unfit for comfort or safety, and would recommend that the same be repaired.

We would respectfully ask all justices of the peace to be more careful and not bind over to the grand jury any person that is punishable in the justice court, either by fine or imprisonment, and not to send doubtful cases to the grand jury to be thrown out, and thereby save a very great expense to the county.

Having completed our labors we respectfully ask to be discharged.

Circuit Court.

The case of the State against John Krier, accused of larceny from a dwelling, continued from yesterday, was taken up and argued by the attorneys with many points of evidence and at times furnished amusement for the spectators. Upon closing the argument in the case the judge proceeded in a careful and concise way to instruct the jury on points of law and forms of verdict, presenting them with three forms, the first being guilty as charged in the indictment; second, petit larceny; third, not guilty.

Upon receiving their instructions the jury retired, completely filled with law and taking with them about a carload of evidence. C. E. Bayard was chosen foreman and upon the second ballot a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment was found, the jury being out just thirty minutes. Upon receipt of the verdict the court fixed Friday morning at 9 o'clock as the time for passing sentence. Thursday being a holiday court adjourned till Friday morning.

The Whist Club.

The Young People's Whist Club met last evening with the Misses Story. Notwithstanding the counter attraction of coasting there was a full attendance and the games started briskly. When eight games had been played the delicate aroma of fragrant coffee became noticeable and all hands were ordered to cease dealing cards. The young ladies, unbeknown to the boys, had prepared a sumptuous lunch and surprised the young gentleman exceedingly. But the latter got even by surprising the fair givers in the quantity they ate. Salads, sandwiches and all kinds of cake made the hard times seem dissipated. After the lunch dancing began, Miss Newman kindly officiating at the piano. A Virginia reel furnished unlimited amusement and a great good time was had. Those present were: Misses Story, Nona Ruch, Grace Campbell, Grace Sharp, Grace Marden, Beulah Patterson, Lily Hinton, Lizzie Sampson, Aimee Newman, Carrie Bowman, Messrs. Max. Vogt, Ed Wingate, Ed Patterson, Fred Wilson, Victor Marden, John Weigel, Robt. Mays, Chas. Clark, Lewis Porter, Harry Liebe and Ally Henderson.

THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Basis of Apportionment Settled—67 Delegates for the County Convention.

The county central committee met this morning at the court house. It was called to order by Mr. B. S. Huntington and Mr. J. S. Fish was secretary. Of the nineteen delegates there were present J. W. Marquis, West Dalles; J. S. Fish, Trevett; B. S. Huntington, Bigelow; E. S. Olinger, Hood River; W. R. Winans, Baldwin; Albert Roberts, Des Chutes; H. Hudson, Nansene; W. Vanderpool, Dufur (represented by M. J. Anderson, proxy); O. L. Paquet, Oak Grove; D. L. Kimsey, Antelope (represented by J. S. Fish, proxy).

The basis of apportionment was decided, upon motion, to be made by the vote given for Chandler and Coon, one delegate in the county convention for each twenty-five persons, one for a fraction of twenty-five larger than half and one delegate at large. Hood River is divided into two precincts, East Hood River being allowed three and West Hood River four delegates.

Upon motion the county primaries were decided to be held March 28th and the county convention April 4th.

The representation comprises 67 votes, divided as follows:

East Dalles	6	Nansene	3
Bigelow	6	Dufur	3
Trevetts	6	Kingsley	3
West Dalles	5	Tygh	2
Mosier	2	Wamic	3
East Hood River	3	Oak Grove	2
West Hood River	4	Bake Oven	2
Falls	4	Antelope	2
Baldwin	2	Columbia	2
8-Mile	2	Des Chutes	2

The convention adjourned for dinner and reconvened at 2 o'clock.

M. J. Anderson and M. T. Nolan indulged in a brief controversy about the representation in the city of The Dalles. The motion was to give East Dalles, Bigelow and Trevett precincts a delegation of six each, or an increase of one over last year, while Dufur and Hood River gets one delegate less. The matter was finally rendered plain to the central committee, resulting in a unanimous vote for the motion.

Chairman Huntington addressed the convention briefly. He remarked that country precincts should not be misled by apparent differences in town. These differences do not cut any figure when it comes to voting the ticket, and are personal rather than political. If the impression is gained that the party in town is divided into factions, it will have a tendency to make factions in the country.

Mr. M. P. Isenberg, of Hood River, begged leave to make a few remarks and there being no objection, he relieved himself of a great deal of enthusiasm, and swore to stand by the ticket down to road supervisor. He fancied he could already hear the roosters crow announcing that victory was perched upon the republican banner. He was loudly applauded.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

Urges for Retrenchment.

Why would it not be a good idea to call a mass meeting of the taxpayers of Wasco county, to consider retrenchment measures? As everyone knows they are needed badly. Now, who will take the lead? Every movement of importance must have a leader. If no one else makes a move we hope our alliance friends will take it up, and that at once, for they are the ones to feel the burden of taxation the most at present. Can you get a move on yourselves? If you cannot, why just grin and bear it.

Oldest Agricultural Paper in America.

(ESTABLISHED 1819.)

To all cash subscribers of THE CHRONICLE, paying one year in advance.

The American Farmer,

1729 New York Avenue,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE AMERICAN FARMER, which is now entering upon its 75th year, is the pioneer farmer's paper in the country. It is a large eight-page paper, and contains 56 columns of the choicest agricultural and literary matter, plentifully embellished with fine illustrations. It is

NATIONAL IN CHARACTER,

and deals with farming and farmer's interests on broad, practical lines. It

EMPLOYS THE BEST WRITERS IN THE COUNTRY, and everything that appears in its columns is of the highest character. Every department of the farmer's business is discussed in an earnest, practical way, looking to the greatest profit and benefit to the farmer and his family. It appears on the 1st and 15th of each month, and is furnished at the low price of in advance. This makes it the cheapest agricultural paper in the country.

FARMER LEGISLATION.

During the coming year there will be an immense number of matters of the most vital interest to farmers dealt with by Congress and the Executive Departments at Washington. It is highly important that the farmers be kept promptly and fully informed as to what is being planned and done affecting them at the National Capital. They should all, therefore, take THE AMERICAN FARMER, which, being on the ground, has better facilities than any other paper for getting this information, and devoting itself to this duty. They will find in it constantly a great amount of valuable information that they can get in no other paper.

THE AMERICAN FARMER and THE CHRONICLE will be sent one year for $1.75.
