Hunting for Trainrobbers-Antics of a Crazy Man-The Search for the Buried Men.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.-The Anti-Chinese Sunday-School Society crusade in accessable canyon in the first range. Chicago has begun work in earnest. One of the ranchers who was visited Dr. J. W. Carr is president and C. W. drove to this place yesterday and fur-Klinetop secretary. At the meeting nished the officers a description of the Sunday night these resolutions were passed:

Whereas, The representatives of the Mongolian race in Chicago are, as a rule, recruited from the lowest and most deoracled castes in China: and

Whereas, It has become a matter of common occurrence for young unmarried women to place themselves in the way of contamination by giving their services to certain Sunday schools where they are required to be in close contact with members of the Mongolian race; therefore, be it Resolved, That we adopt the following platform: First, the Chinese in Chicago should be educated and reformed; second, young woman should be protected; third, the Chinese should be brought in contact only with men and matrons; fourth, no church should allow the use of any part of its building to a Chinese Sunday school class in which young unmarried women act as teachers. It is the intention of the society to hold a meeting in one of the churches and invite the superintendents of all Chinese classes to meet them and discuss the best methods of reaching Chinamen through other mediums than women of the church. The movement is attracting much attention among the Chinese themselves, and today Chin Jone, of Wabash avenue and Twentieth streets, signified his intention of withdrawing from the Presbyterian Sunday school class. He paid the teachers many compliments, but said: "Hong Ching say no mo' lady teachee, so no mo' Chin Jone." Chin Jone scorns Christianity when taught by men.

A Crazy Man's Antics.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 22 .- Albert Ammon, a painter, while at work yesterday on the roof of a four-story building opposite the Iroquois hotel, became suddenly insane. He was engaged in removing some large signs likely to be blown into the street by the high wind. Frank Seitz and George Meyer, who were with him, first noticed his condi- the doors automatically. Search for the Buried Men.

RENO, Nev., Feb. 22 .- At 5 o'clock this morning fifty men of the Reno Guard and Reno lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., left for the state line mill to assist in the search for the four missing men buried Monday in the snowslide. Ed Ede, the only one rescued, is reported this morning as resting easy. The slide that buried them is in a narrow canyon and over a mile in length. The snow is from 25 to 40 feet deep at the lower end of the slide.

A Prominent Lady Arrested

Much attention at a Washington ball by the glow of health and the charm of beauty need not depart from so many women, when a certain remedy exists in women, when a certain remedy exists in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for their functional and organic diseases. It properly cures nausea, indigestion, bloating, weak back, nervous prostration, debility and sleeplessness. Strength is renewed, energy returns, and beauty again blooms. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Druggists have it.

Hunting for Trainrobbers

PASADENA, Cal., Feb. 22.-Considerable excitement has been caused here by a report that the Roscoe trainrobbers were brought to bay in the mountains near this place last night. Word reached the officers here that two men answering their description had appeared, IN CHICAGO SUNDAY SCHOOLS armed with Winchester rifles, at one of the ranches near the foot of the mountains and demanded provisions, which were given them. They then returned to the mountains and, and were not seen until Monday night, when they visited another ranch in the vicinity, making a similar request. HELLISH HAZING.

Cornell Sophomores Cause One Death and a Great Deal of Suffering.

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 21 .- As a supplement to the regular annual class riot between the freshmen and sophomores, Cornell sophomores perpetrated a dastardly and dangerous trick by generating chlorine gas in the half where the freshmen were holding their banquet. Several freshmen were carried out insensible from the fumes. A corps of physicians was summoned and prompt efforts made to resuscitate the asphyxiated students by the application of ammonia and stimulants. The freshmen are wild with rage and the banquet has been suspended. Several waiters were overpowered and others are almost wild with pain. The hall is in possession of the police, who are ransacking the corridors and side rooms to find the source of the gas.
