WHISKY CASES.

There are two or three Indians in town who do nothing but stand on the street corners, acting as decoys to catch some unsuspecting white man and induce him to sell them whisky that they may profit by the United States law allowing fees to deputy marshals for selling liquor to Indians.

A Salem paper, in announcing the names of the several persons as probable candidates for governor, mentions ex-Gov. Moody, "of The Dalles."

A Virginia judge has made a decision that may be of interest in this section. He decided that a man who bought lots in a boom town on the promise that large industrial plants were to be located there, is entitled to the return of his money because that promise was not fulfilled.

The actions of the democracy at Washington of late seem to partake of the desperation of a losing game. Individuals of the party, like Bland, lose their patience and fly off the handle.

Bland, the Missourian, disgraced the halls of congress yesterday by his vindictive speech against the enforcement of the house rules, which contemplate securing a quorum. The galleries, generally ready to applaud anything of a sensational nature, whatever its drift, were mute with surprise and indignation.

If You Are a Miserable Sufferer With constipation, dyspepsia and biliousness seek relief in Simmons Liver Regulator. It does not require continual dosing, and costs but a trifle.

RIGHTS OF ANIMALS.

Horses in Germany Must Not Be Insulted.

Dogs in Belgium Must Have Seats in Trains—Fampered Life of the German Student's Corps-Dogs—Better Treated Than Children.

While it is unfortunately true that child life is infinitely happier in the semi-barbaric orient and even in the wilds of Africa than in the most highly civilized portions of Europe and America, writes "Ex-Attache" in the New York Tribune, yet the enlightenment and progress of the west, while they seem to carry in their train fresh ingenuity of infant torture, lead on the other hand to a very marked improvement in the treatment of animals.

On some future occasion I hope to be permitted to draw a contrast in these columns between child life in orient and child life in the occident, and to demonstrate from personal experience the superiority of barbarism to civilization in that one particular.

No one has ever heard of a man being imprisoned for apostrophizing a child with some coarse, contemptuous or insulting epithet, yet only a short time ago the Berlin press contained the record of a sentence of three weeks imprisonment imposed on a stableman employed in the imperial mews of Potsdam, for having addressed an insulting epithet to a favorite mare belonging to the kaiser.

This being the case, no one need be astonished to hear of one of the leading Austrian sportsmen, Count Paul Festetics, bringing legal proceedings against a Viennese sporting paper for having referred in a slighting manner to his race-horse Thalany, the insult consisting in a remark to the effect that though the mare had won certain stakes she did not deserve to take them, owing to the fact that her competitors had run so badly as to deprive the victory of every atom of glory or merit.

In Belgium the government, which owns and controls the entire railroad system of the country, has just issued a decree which, as far as railroad travel is concerned, places the dog on exactly the same level as a grown-up man or woman, and infinitely higher than a child.

The modern American man-of-war is a little world in itself, or perhaps more properly a floating city, with its inhabitants of many trades and professions. Not only is there a doctor to dose you and a chaplain to care for your spiritual welfare, but many cooks, several carpenters, skilled machinists, electricians, tailors, musicians and barbers.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Ex-Treasurer S. F. Murphy at Baker City was convicted yesterday of larceny of public money. He was short in his accounts $4,110. The jury was out 20 hours and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court.

Judge Bellinger, in the United States court, yesterday morning notified the district attorney that he would not hereafter sentence persons pleading guilty to selling liquor to the Indians on an information, but would hold them to the United States grand jury, and indicted and found guilty would sentence them to a long term of imprisonment in the penitentiary.

The Brazilian flower known as the "running antelope" is so called because its white petals have a series of well-defined, dark-colored lines and dots in which the imagination can readily trace the form of an antelope with its limbs outstretched and head thrown back, seemingly fleeing for its life.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.

There are many families in this section who do not take THE CHRONICLE, some in fact who do not read any paper regularly. To all such who may chance to see this, we desire to say that one of the first duties a man owes to his family is to provide them with instructive and entertaining reading matter. It is knowledge alone, intelligence gained by the exchange of ideas, by contact of mind with mind, which raises man above the grade of an animal.

THE CHRONICLE is a family newspaper which makes every effort to give all the general and local news. It will keep you informed of the world's doings, of the projects of government, of the trend of politics, and of what is going on among your neighbors.
