What is It?

A substitute for lard? Upsetting the customs, habits, and prejudices of centuries? Yes, all this and more. Cottolene is a new cooking product—it is better than lard or butter for cooking, so say such noted housekeepers as Marion Harland, Catharine Owen, Christine Terhune Herrick, Emma P. Ewing, Mrs. S. T. Rorer, Mrs. F. A. Benson, Amy Barnes, Margaret Wister, and many others; it is healthier—so says every thoughtful physician; and it is cheaper as every housekeeper knows when she finds that one-half the quantity answers every purpose.

COTTOLENE is the purest clarified cottonseed oil mixed with pure beef fat. It is the best cooking material ever devised for frying anything and everything—easily digested and highly nutritious.

Beware of imitations. Ask your grocer for the genuine Cottolene. MADE BY N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., ST. LOUIS and CHICAGO, NEW YORK, BOSTON

NOW IN PRISON GARB

Boss McKane Begins His Six Years' Sentence at Sing Sing.

HE SURRENDERED HIS DIAMONDS The Pope's Birthday—"Parnell," the Lion, Kills a Bear After Breaking Into His Cage.

SING SING, Y. Y., March 1.—A large crowd awaited the arrival of the train bearing John Y. McKane to prison. It arrived here at 3 o'clock this afternoon. McKane and his custodians walked to the prison gate, followed by the reporters. McKane passed through the prison yard to the office of Warden Durston, where he was received by Assistant Clerk Westlake. Sheriff Butling produced the commitment and handed it to Westlake, who said to McKane: "Your term is six years."

Mr. Westlake then wrote on the document, "Four years and three months," indicating the net limit of McKane's sentence, less the commutation for good conduct. McKane removed his gold watch and chain from his waistcoat, took his diamond ring from his finger, his diamond stud from his shirt, as well as his diamond sleeve buttons, and gave them to Striker Williams to take back to McKane's family. McKane also produced $25.79 in bills and change, and handed the money to Clerk Westlake. The customary questions were then put to McKane. McKane was then taken into the prison barber shop, and his moustache and imperial were quickly shaved off. He was then given a convict's suit, which he put on himself. No cell was assigned him. He will for the present be in what is known as the idle ranks. McKane went through the ordeal with firmness, and showed no signs of depression.

The Pope's Birthday. ROME, March 2.—The pope celebrated his 84th birthday today. In reply to congratulations, he said he would continue to the end of his life to carry out the benediction of the church, adding: "The need of this is great, for all our conceptions of honesty, justice, authority, liberty, social rights and social duties have been overthrown. The church must speak to recall the nations to the principles of moral faith."

He points out the true causes of the existing evils, denounces the designs of Freemasonry, and would imbue the different classes of society with a feeling of equity and charity, inspire the rulers with rectitude and the governed with submission, and instill in all an ardor for peace.

Parnell at His Old Tricks. SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—Parnell, one of Colonel Daniel Boone's trained lions at the midwinter fair, broke into a cage occupied by a performing bear this morning, and killed the latter, Parnell is the lion that killed his trainer, Carl Theilmann, a few weeks ago.

The Oregon Pacific. CORVALLIS, March 1.—A notice has been filed in the circuit court that tomorrow an application will be made to the court for an order for the sale of the Oregon Pacific, at which time an order will be asked, vacating the order made January 28, 1892, conditionally confirming the sale of the road made to Zephin Job for $1,000,000, and on which $25,000 was deposited, for the reason that the remaining $975,000 had never been paid.

A petition similar to the one circulated in Albany is being generally signed by the business men of Corvallis, asking Judge Fullerton to postpone the sale of the road to a date not earlier than June 1st.

It is believed that Receiver Clark will be able to pay all claims for February about March 10th, in full. It is also thought that the expenses of the road for this month will be $1,000 less than last month. W. T. Braggings, auditor, is a victim of Receiver Clark's economical methods, and has been relieved from duty in the general office.

skinned Him Alive. BARBOURVILLE, Ky., March 2.—It is reported from Harlan county that Len Tye, the negro who murdered Miss Bryant near Williamsburg a year ago, recently returned, kidnaped a farmer's daughter and kept her secreted in the woods till discovered by hunters. They waited for his return and proceeded to skin him alive. Before he was dead the girl built a fire on his head and he was roasted alive. It is said he confessed to the murder of Miss Bryant and the kidnaping of three other girls in Kentucky and Tennessee, keeping them secreted till they died of ill-treatment and exposure.

NEWS NOTES.

The legislature of Colorado adjourned yesterday. Princess Colonna is in California and proposes to make Del Monte her future home.

Gen. Jubal A. Early died last night at 10:30 o'clock at Lynchburg, Va. He was born in 1816.

Gladstone resigned yesterday. Lord Rosebery has been summoned by the queen and will accept the premiership.

A huge fire is burning in Buffalo. The fire started in the Atlas oil refinery, owned by the Standard Oil Company. The plant is valued at $1,500,000 and will be totally destroyed. Five hundred men are employed at the works, which are the largest of the kind in the city.

W. F. Alexander, special commissioner of the provisional government of Honolulu, said yesterday: "The provisional government has won its fight. It will give the queen a pension, providing she behaves herself. She will not be sent into exile, as the leaders of the provisional government do not regard her as worthy of martyrdom. The idea of annexation has not been abandoned by the provisional government, but it will be made the object of the fight in future."

NEWS OF THE STATE. Albany is to have the Magnet Exchange telephone system. The Condon Globe urges that the $20,000 left from the world's fair fund be used in holding a midsummer fair at Condon.

Wes Williams, of Arlie, while walking through the woods on his father's old homestead a few days ago, discovered an ax leaning against an old oak stump, which he remembered having left there over 42 years ago. The ax looked complete until Wes reached to grasp it when the handle crumbled within his hand.

A farmer named Acorns, living near Damascus, Or., employed a man to grub for him under contract, and, a few nights since, this man was ordered to leave the community by masked men. He resisted, and fired at the parties who tried to drive him away. Nothing further was heard of the matter till Wednesday morning, when Mr. Acorns was found dead at his home, and the man who was doing the grubbing is missing.

A female hobo stopped here a few days in "hitting the road" southward last week, says the Grants Pass Courier. She camped with five of the male fraternity in the Company's woodpile and seemed perfectly at home in her queer calling. She is about thirty-five years of age, and had the appearance of a hard-worked farmer's wife. There was nothing vicious-looking about her. When seen by the Courier reporter she was seated inside a square breakwind composed of ties near the S. P. D. & L. warehouse, eating a biscuit she had probably begged somewhere in town. She had an old newspaper spread on her lap to catch the crumbs and when she got through eating she fished out some fine cut tobacco and proceeded to prepare a cigarette. She had not much to say. When asked where she was going she simply pointed and said "south."

On Trial. That's a good way to buy a medicine, but it's a pretty hard condition under which to sell it. Perhaps you've noticed that the ordinary bit or miss medicine doesn't attempt it.

The only remedy of its kind so remarkable in its effects that it can be sold on this plan is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. As a blood-cleanser strength-restorer, and flesh-builder there's nothing like it known to medical science. In every disease where the fault is in the liver or the blood, as Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, and Scrofulous affections, it is guaranteed in every case to benefit or cure, or you have your money back.

To every sufferer from Catarrh, no matter how bad the case or of how long standing, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy say this: "If we can't cure it, perfectly and permanently, we'll pay you $500 in cash." Sold by all druggists.

If you wish to see a fine assortment of oranges, lemons and bananas just call and see the display at H. H. Campbell's, next door to the postoffice. Use Mexican Silver Stove Polish. Hot clam broth at J. O. Mack's every day at 4 o'clock.

A EUGENE TRAGEDY.

Albert Moss Attacks the Coleman Family and Then Suicide.

The first of March will long be remembered in Eugene as a day of horror. On that day Albert Moss, a young man about 20 years of age, in a frenzy of rage attempted to annihilate the Coleman family, and almost succeeded in his terrible purpose. Young Moss and his father had some trouble about a week ago, the exact nature of which cannot be learned. The boy discovered that David Coleman, a neighbor, sided with his father in the dispute. Moss went out and secured possession of a revolver. At 8:30 o'clock in the evening he went to the Coleman residence, and entering, found Miss Belle Coleman and her sister, Mrs. Osburn, there. After talking a few moments, and without the slightest warning as to what he was about to do, the young man drew a revolver from his pocket and began shooting at the young ladies. Belle was shot through the arm and seriously injured. Mrs. Osburn received a bullet in the breast and expired almost instantly. Maddened by what he had done, young Moss rushed into the next room where Mr. Coleman was, and pointing the pistol at him, fired several shots. Two of them took effect, one in each lung. The old man fell to the floor and Moss ran out of the house.

The pistol reports had begun to attract the neighbors and the murderer, finding himself pursued, ran toward his own home. As soon as the officers could be summoned they began to search for him, but it was too late to capture him alive. He had run back of his house into a vacant lot and there committed suicide by shooting himself in the breast.

The tragedy has created the greatest excitement. Mr. Coleman is one of the most prominent men in the place. He is an old pioneer. Ex-Senator P. Coleman is his brother and he is well liked by everyone.

Ten days loss of time on account of sickness and a doctor bill to pay, is anything but pleasant for a man of a family to contemplate, whether he is a laborer, mechanic, merchant or publisher. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas, was sick in bed for ten days with the grip during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with considerable success. I think, only being in bed a little over two days. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of the remedy." It should be borne in mind that the grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. When you wish to cure a cold quickly and effectually give this remedy a trial. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Advertised Letters. Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice at The Dalles uncalled for, Friday, March 2d, 1894. Persons calling for same will give date on which they were advertised:

- Allen, Mrs Lucy Beiber, Mr Dickey, Walter Hanson, Mr Alot Hill, Lavina Heruson, Mrs H Morgan, Mrs Maggie Morrison, Rel L W Penelton, Johnny Peterson, Miss Jerv Pouvensen, Couvel gine Rouchiff, Miss Helen Pabley, Mr Ed Wolf, Mr A Stewart, S W Ryan, Mr Robert Struck, John W Stout, Frank Taylor, R W Williams, Edmund M. T. NOLAN, P. M.

The experience of Geo. A. Appgar, of German Valley, N. J., is well worth remembering. He was troubled with chronic diarrhoea and doctored for five months and was treated by four different doctors without benefit. He then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, of which one bottle effected a complete cure. It is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

City Warrants. All those holding city warrants of date prior to September 1st, 1891, will be paid on presentation at my office. Interest on same ceases after this date. I. I. BURGET, City Treasurer.
