AGAIN THE CRANK

A Harmless but Persistent Fellow Appears at the White House.

WANTS TO GIVE IT TO THE JEWS

Opinions of Various Governors on the Corbett-Jackson Fight—The Day in Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—A crank giving the name of Abraham Julius Kessler, of Baltimore, appeared at the White House this morning and announced he had come to take possession of it and turn it over to the Jews. He was not violent, but insistent. The attendants handed him over to the police.

PENNOYER SAYS NOTHING.

Opinions of Various Governors on the Corbett-Jackson Fight.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 5.—The editor of the Springfield Union asked the governors of all the states whether the laws of their states permit prizefighting, and whether they would allow the Corbett-Jackson fight. The Union this afternoon publishes replies of 37 governors, representing the states of Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Washington and West Virginia. All say the law prohibits prize fights, and they would not permit the Corbett-Jackson fight in their respective states, except the following:

Governor Waite, of Colorado, says: "We do not cross bridges until we come to them; prizefighting is a felony."

Governor Reynolds, of Delaware, says in his state pugilism can be punished only as assault and battery.

Governor Mitchell, of Florida, says: "It is difficult to answer this question. A judge of this state tied the hands of the executive, whether rightfully it is unnecessary to state, and the Corbett-Mitchell fight took place. This fact, however, I will state: I am convinced it is the intention of the parties interested to have the Corbett-Jackson fight come off in Florida, the legislature will be called together at once, and I feel assured that body will make prizefighting impossible in this state."

Governor Nelson, of Minnesota, declines to answer until a decision is necessary. The law is very strict.

Governor Stone, of Missouri, gives the law, which makes prizefighting a state prison offense, and lets the law speak for him.

Governor McKinley, of Ohio, does not commit himself. The law punishes by imprisonment and fine.

A Free Fight in a Church.

LEBANON, O., March 5.—Beginning today a score or more of suits will be filed in the courts here, growing out of a most disgraceful affair at the Missionary Baptist church, about four miles south of the city. There is a division over the pastor. Last night the congregation met to discuss his retention. The church was filled, and some one called the pastor a liar. A friend of the preacher knocked the belligerent down and that started a general fight. The lights were extinguished, and in the battle that followed the pulp furniture was wrecked, the pews ruined, the carpets ruined and more than 50 persons were injured. Many women fainted and the scene was a sad one.

Lobengula's Followers Will Surrender.

CAPE TOWN, March 5.—A trader, who has arrived at Bulawayo, states that near the point where the British party, under command of Captain Wilson, are supposed to have made their last stand before being massacred by the Matabele, he found the bones of thirty-three men which were buried. Lobengula's followers are marching to Bulawayo with the intention of laying down their arms.

Bishop Paddock Dead.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., March 5.—Right Rev. John A. Paddock, bishop of Tacoma, died last night at Miramar, after an illness of several days caused by paralysis, the bishop passing from an unconscious state to eternal rest. He was surrounded by three daughters and Bishop Morris, of Oregon, who has been present during his illness. The remains will be taken home for interment.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 5.—There is no diminution in the excitement in the mining regions. A telegram was received from Eagle today saying that the road from Eagle to Fayetteville was lined with armed men. They are said to number not less than 600 with the avowed purpose of killing Wyant as he is being taken by the sheriff to jail at Fayetteville. Wyant has telegraphed the governor for military guard, and it will be furnished him.

A man was arrested today on Morris creek with two Winchesters and dynamite bombs in his possession. He confessed that a plot was being hatched to blow up all the works along the river. Carver Bros. found a card on their store door at Edgewater today warning them that their property would be blown up.

Twenty loaded Chesapeake & Ohio cars were burned by strikers at Paint Creek this morning. A general outbreak is momentarily expected, as the strikers are becoming emboldened. Colonel Wyant, under guard of a full company of militia, was taken from Montgomery this morning.

A Processus Arrested.

DENVER, March 5.—There have been stories for some time about a wholesale traffic in girls, who have been sent to mining camps. Mrs. Julian White, who conducts an employment agency, has been arrested charged with acting as an agent for Doyle's dancehouse in Cripple Creek. One of the girls sent there says her business was to wear décolleté dresses and coax patrons to buy beer. Mrs. White denies the charges.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Bland's Seigniorage Bill Comes up in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—In the senate the Bland seigniorage bill was received from the house and referred to the committee on finance.

Allen of Nebraska presented an amendment to the rules, providing it shall be the duty of committees to report on bills and resolutions referred to them within 30 days; failing to do so, a senator presenting it may call for a report under certain restrictions; referred to committee on rules.

Cockrell ridiculed the petitions he had received from druggists of Missouri, protesting against an increase of duty under the Wilson bill, saying they originated in the State Pharmaceutical Association of prohibition Iowa.

Stewart of Nevada objected to a reference of the Bland seigniorage bill to the finance committee, and asked that it lie on the table so it might be called up at any time. After considerable discussion, this was agreed to, with the understanding it be laid before the senate tomorrow.

Stewart introduced an amendment to the Bland seigniorage bill, providing for the free coinage of silver.

The Branch Asylum Case.

Salem, Or., March 5.—In the branch asylum case today Judge Burnett overruled the demurrer and made the injunction perpetual by consent of the parties. Time to enlarge was given till March 26th to perfect an appeal to the supreme court.

Death of D. H. Coleman.

EUGENE, March 5.—David H. Coleman who was shot twice by Grant Moss last Thursday evening, died from the effects of his wounds last night, at 10:45 o'clock. After his death the discovery was made that both shots had passed through his body.

The experience of Geo. A. Apgar, of German Valley, N. J., is well worth remembering. He was troubled with chronic diarrhoea and doctored for five months and was treated by four different doctors without benefit. He then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, of which one bottle effected a complete cure. It is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
