TO SHELVE THE TARIFF

This Is the Scheme of the Republican Senators.

BURGERS EMPLOY CHLOROFORM

To Rob Houses in Indiana—A Question of Suicide or Murder—Other Crime News.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—It develops there is a concerted action of republican senators in the effort to take up the Bland seigniorage bill at this time, with the purpose of displacing the tariff bill. It is the result of a conference held by the advisory committee of the republican senatorial caucus. While republican senators, both favorable to and adverse to silver, express themselves in favor of the movement, there is no great zeal manifested on either hand; neither the free-coinage republicans nor the anti-silver republicans would oppose the bill, and if they support it now or appear to do so their only motive is to stand off the tariff bill. The silver men do not consider the passage of the bill would have any influence whatever in behalf of silver.

AT WORK ON THE TARIFF BILL.

The democratic members of the senate finance committee resumed work on the tariff bill today, and it is stated the bill will not be reported today. The sugar schedule was taken up, and it is said the indications are the sugar men will get some satisfactory concession that will cause them to support the bill. The rumor is also learned that sugar will be given a shade advance on the raw article. The administrative features of the bill are also again under consideration. The committee expect to lay the bill before the full committee tomorrow.

Chloroformed by Burglars.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., March 6.—There was a wholesale chloroforming of residents by burglars in this city last night. The entire family of Frank Briggs was put under the influence, the house ransacked, and a large amount of money taken. It was several hours before the family could be revived.

The home of Mr. Quick was then visited and the family chloroformed. Next the burglars visited Frank Bayer's home and chloroformed the entire family. It is believed the burglars are the same who assassinated Stephen Geer. Lynching is among the possibilities if the burglars are caught.

Is It Suicide or Murder?

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Dr. J. J. Leek, a dentist, and Miss Alice Alderley, a young woman who came to this city a few days ago from Napa, where her parents live, are lying between life and death in Leek's apartments, corner Fifth and Market streets, both suffering from morphine poisoning; but whether the drug was taken by both with suicidal intent, the purpose being to die together, or whether one tried to poison the other and to commit suicide, will probably never be known unless they recover, which seems doubtful. The janitor of the building broke into the room and found them. Leek still held in his hand the vial containing the drug that both had swallowed. Physicians were then summoned and for several hours have worked over them. Miss Alderley, who is said to have been engaged to marry Leek, came to the city to testify in a libel suit brought against Leek by his brother.

His Grave Was Robbed.

CENTRAL CITY, Colo., March 6.—In passing through the city cemetery on the mountain side to his mine, Superintendent Jones yesterday morning made the discovery that the grave of Alfred Hocking had been opened and robbed. Hocking died in Denver about six weeks ago after a protracted spree. He was about 60 years old and possessed of considerable means. When he was on his death bed he requested that as much money as could be spent should be lavished upon him after death. He wanted the most expensive coffin that could be had, and his shroud must be of the best. His own words were: "Fix me up like a dude." His jewelry also must be buried with him he said. All his requests were carried out. A ring on one of his fingers was valued at $400 and other jewelry and valuables were buried with him. He was an eccentric man, and when drunk was positively ferocious. His wife feared for her life and left him and is now in England. A daughter lives in this city.

ROSEBERRY STEPS IN.

He is Welcomed by Gladstone at Downing Street.

LONDON, March 6.—The offices occupied by Mr. Gladstone as premier were formally taken possession of by Lord Rosebery this afternoon. The new premier was cordially greeted by the retiring prime minister upon his arrival at the rooms in the official residence in Downing street.

The Duke of Devonshire, in the course of his speech at Yeovil this evening, referring to Mr. Gladstone's retirement, said that it was a source of great satisfaction that, in spite of his age and infirmity, Mr. Gladstone had not outstayed his parliamentary reputation. The image presented by Mr. Gladstone would never be impaired, his picture would never be effaced. He had passed from the scene in the plenitude of his strength and greatness, and neither for good nor for evil could his place be filled. He had left to his successors a legacy of unsettled questions. One of these questions was home rule, which would hang as a millstone around the neck of his party for many years, and in his last speech he had imposed a new burden upon his party, the quarrel with the house of lords. The only real ground of the quarrel with the lords was the rejection of the home-rule bill by that body.

Colonna Will Sue for Libel.

PARIS, March 6.—Upon information given by Prince Colonna, John W. Mackay's son-in-law, Paris officials seized today all the copies of the New York World of February 5th, which were offered here for sale. Prince Colonna declared an article published in the World of that date was libelous. The paragraph to which he objected most strenuously said he had been expelled from the Jockey Club in Rome for cheating at cards. His lawyers have served a writ upon Joseph Pulitzer, proprietor of the World, claiming 100,000 francs damages. Maitre de Jardines, the prince's chief counsel, says his client will divide the amount of damages which he expects will be awarded him, among the public charities of Naples and Paris.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyrol Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

The Siletz Reservation.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Senator Dolph's bill, ratifying the agreement with the Siletz Indians and ceding the unallotted lands to the government, to be thrown open to settlement, passed the senate today. The ceded lands will be sold at $1.50 per acre.

The experience of Geo. A. Appgar, of German Valley, N. J., is well worth remembering. He was troubled with chronic diarrhoea and doctored for five months and was treated by four different doctors without benefit. He then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, of which one bottle effected a complete cure. It is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Indian Duty on Silver.

LONDON, March 6.—The five per cent. Indian import duty is not a law yet, but may become so at any moment.

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's Pain Balm and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
