FRIDAY, - - - - - MAR. 23, 1894. THE POPULIST MODIFIED.

Senator Allen, the Nebraska populist, interrupted Senator Dolph during his speech of March 1st, to tell him the populist party was going to control both houses of congress in 1896, and made the puerile threat that both the old parties were to be wiped out of existence.

Mr. Dolph replied in part as follows: "Mr. President, I do not wish to be misunderstood. I make no personal attack on any member of the senate or on any one else. I am speaking of matters of history. Our democratic friends from the South are genial, pleasant gentlemen, and able, earnest men. I am glad to esteem many of them as my friends, but they are wedded to the supposed interests of their section. I believe they are wrong in their tariff theories, but they inherited them, they fought for them, and although they were unsuccessful their false theories were not whipped out of them, and now they are to be crystallized into law and forced upon the people of the North. I am satisfied, if the senator from Nebraska (Mr. Allen) thinks that he adds to his reputation or his standing by so doing, that he defends the attitude of the South on the tariff question. He appears as the defender of the influence that today controls congress, and is pressing the Wilson bill in the senate, a bill which will be destructive of every interest of the Pacific coast and of many of the great interests of the entire North, which will be destructive of the prosperity of the people of the entire Union, of the men who labor with their hands, about whom the senator seems to be so solicitous.

"I can tell the senator he is building up false hopes when he supposes the populist party is going to control the next house of representatives. The old party, the republican party (which needs no defense at my hands, and I will not undertake it in detail), which controlled this government for nearly a third of a century, including the four years when the senate held the fort and prevented the destructive democratic principles in relation to the tariff from being carried into effect; the republican party, which gave this country an era of prosperity never before experienced in its history and never witnessed in the world, needs no apologist; it needs no defense from attacks like those of the senator from Nebraska. The republican party, which a week ago rolled up in Pennsylvania a majority of 190,000, will elect the majority of the next house of representatives and the next president, and it will change the complexion of the senate just as rapidly as it can possibly be done."

Mr. Allen—I wish to say to the senator from Oregon that he must not construe what I have said as at all personal to himself. I had no personal reference at all to the senator from Oregon. I have nothing in the world but the most kindly feeling for him.

Mr. Dolph—It strikes me the senator from Nebraska has very materially modified his views in regard to myself in the last few minutes.

Senator Dolph in a speech March 14th shows that in 1890 the per capita of money was $14.60, and circulation $13.85. In 1892 the per capita was $36.21, and circulation $24.44.

The La Grande Chronicle (democratic) devotes much space to an explanation of the initiative and referendum, and urges a study of it. It is not in any sense a partisan movement, nor is it the property of any party.

If the dirty and disgusting evidence in the Pollard-Breckenridge trial, which has been going on in Washington for nearly two weeks, does not retire Representative Breckenridge to private life for the remainder of his existence Kentucky democrats will take a long drop in the eyes of honorable people.

A Queenly Head. Can never rest on a body frail from disease any more than the lovely lily can grow in the sterile soil. When Consumption fastens its hold upon a victim, the whole physical structure commences its decay. At such a period, before the disease is too far advanced, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will arrest and cure it. So certain is this, that an offer is made to refund the money paid for it when a failure can be found under the condition of a fair trial.

BRUIN AS A DEFENDER.

A Trapped Bear Whips a Mountain Lion and a Coyote.

A Montana ranchman, having lost a fine brood of ducks, set a bear trap baited with fresh beef, and that night heard a howl, which he recognized as that of a coyote. Knowing that the animal could not escape he turned over to sleep again, when he heard such a chorus of howls that he went out to investigate. He found a coyote and a cinnamon bear caught in the trap, showing that both animals had made a strike for the beef at the same time, while ten feet away was a mountain lion, waiting until one of the fighters had killed the other before finishing the winner. The bear and coyote seemed to know this, and made no hostile sign, so the lion sneaked around to the top of a sheep shed near by, where he lay crouched for a moment, and then made a spring, dropping squarely on the bear. A terrific struggle followed, in which the lion at first had the best of it; but finally the bear got a grip on his adversary's neck, the lion's head dropped and he was strangled to death. The bear was not much better off, bleeding from many wounds, but he still had life enough to look after the coyote. He made two strokes at the coward of the plains and crushed the life out of him. Then the bear staggered around a minute and rolled over dead.

NOTICE. To All Whom It May Concern: Notice is hereby given that the committee on streets and public property will receive sealed bids for the construction of 212 feet of sidewalk on the east side of Union street, at the intersection of Seventh street, until Tuesday, March 27th, 1894, at the hour of 3 o'clock p. m., at the recorder's office. Said improvement to be made in accordance with the ordinance governing the same, being Ordinance No. 270, which passed the common council of Dalles City, May 10, 1893.

No bid will be received unless the same is accompanied with a good and proper bond in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned that the bidder will accept the contract in case the same is awarded to him.

The right to reject any and all bids is hereby reserved.

Dated at Dalles City, Oregon, this 22d day of March, 1894.

DOUGLAS S. DUFUR, Recorder of Dalles City.

For County Clerk. Capt. J. M. Buschke is a candidate for county clerk on the republican ticket.

For County Clerk. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of county clerk, subject to the decision of the republican county convention. I. I. BERGET.

For County Treasurer. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election as county treasurer, subject to the action of the republican county convention. WILLIAM MICHELL.

Don't Require Watches. "You know," said a man, "there are some people who seem to be able to tell the time of day without the aid of a time piece; I don't mean by looking at the sun or that sort of thing, but right off-hand. If you ask one of these people what time it is, he says: 'Twenty-five minutes past four; or 'Twenty minutes to twelve; or whatever it may be, and he gets within five minutes of right. It seems as though time had left upon their minds some impress of its flight.'"

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
