MARS' MONTH.

A Record of Lesser Events for the Thirty-one Days.

Upon her neighbor's hat she gazed A while with look intent.

We are unable to use a letter received Saturday from Hood River.

We have received from Hon. J. N. Dolph some public documents of statistical value.

The populists held a meeting Saturday night at city council hall.

M. E. Pruitt is wearing the badge of marshal today.

Mrs. LaBallister's millinery goods have been delayed by warhout, and from advices received this morning, they will arrive on Wednesday morning.

Correspondents are informed that we prefer news matters to verbose political arguments.

From a private letter we learn that Mr. B. S. Pague, now in San Francisco, expects to be relieved in time to be back to Portland by May 1st at the latest and hopes to be back by April 20th.

Yesterday—Easter—was one of the loveliest, most beautiful days of spring. The sun in the early morn shone out through a fleecy film of clouds, and in a short time they had disappeared and the sky was clear.

What is the use to send for wine to California when you can have it for the same price at the California Winehouse, in Thompson's addition, The Dalles. Also a big lot of fine peanuts at very low rates.

WANTED.

Sure Shot Squirrel Poison at Snipes & Kinersly's.

Easter Services.

The churches of the city were all beautifully decorated yesterday, commemorative of Easter.

The Methodist church was decorated with house plants and cut flowers. Among the decorations were four calla lily plants, each having a number of flowers.

The Congregational church was prettily decorated with vines and flowers. In the evening the church was packed, on the occasion of a children's concert.

The Christian church, besides flowers and vines, was adorned with several canary birds in cages, whose song gave an added significance to the day of praise.

The Catholic church was likewise adorned with cut flowers and plants, and besides about 200 burning candles. The usual Easter services were given.

DIED.

In Dufur, March 24th, Dr. Larkin Vanderpool, aged 63 years, of kidney trouble and diabetes succeeding carbuncles.

Dr. Vanderpool came to Oregon from the east in 1852, settling in the Willamette valley. About 1870 he removed to Prineville for his health and in 1882 to Dufur. He leaves three children, William T. and Willard L. Vanderpool and Mrs. Rebecca J. Wilson of this city.

LEASING A WIFE.

A Queer Custom Formerly in Vogue in England.

Taking a wife as one does a house on lease has actually been done more than once in England. A Birmingham correspondent in the Gentleman's Magazine, in 1788, writes: "Since residing in this town I have often heard there is a method of obtaining a wife's sister upon lease. I never could learn the method to be taken to get a wife upon lease or whether such connections are sanctioned by law; but there is an eminent manufacturer in the vicinity of this town who has had his deceased wife's sister upon lease for ninety years and upward, and I know she went by his name, and enjoyed all the privileges and received all the honor due to the respected name of wife."

The following ingenious mode of crossing a river was once displayed by a Kaffir, who had for some time stood watching the vain attempts of a party of soldiers to cross the stream at a time when to ford it was attended by considerable danger.

TO THE INTEREST OF BOTH.

A Piece of African Despotism That Prevents Overcharging.

Kabarega, the negro king of Unyoro, in Central Africa, is a man who rules his subjects with a rod of iron.

Among other things he has made a fixed tariff of prices for everything bought or sold in his country, and every deviation from it is severely punished.

There is a special providence hanging over a bargain-counter. It never seems to know anything about hard times.—Steep Brook Gazette.

LOOKING into a glass to paint one's face is not wholly a feminine trick. A man looks into a glass to color his nose.—Binghamton Republican.

EDITORIAL OPINIONS.

A CURRENT item asserts that Patti sings "Daddy Wouldn't Buy Me a Bow-Wow." Good-by, sweetheart, good-by!—N. Y. World.

Mrs. FLYABOUT—"What is your husband's politics?" Mrs. GOFREQUENT—"I really don't know. He never carries anything of a political nature in any of his pockets."—Chicago Tribune.
