MARS' MONTH.

A Record of Lesser Events for the Thirty-one Days.

The cuckoos sing in the summer and spring. But the birds of fall are fatal—all.

Read the opening announcement of Mrs. M. La Ballister's millinery store for Saturday.

Spare the robins. They are doing excellent work now in ridding the orchard and garden of insect pests.

The primary at Columbia precinct was very harmonious, and after it was held a McKinley republican club was organized of 26 members.

At the book party next Wednesday night at Fraternity hall each one is requested to wear or carry something that will represent the title of some book.

A. M. Williams & Co. are refitting the interior of their general merchandise store in a handsome manner to accommodate their greatly-increased patronage of late.

Justice Schutz received an affectionate letter from his old-time friend, Joe Elfelt this morning. Mr. Elfelt was one of The Dalles prosperous merchants in its early years, and now is a resident of San Francisco.

The recent rains and warm weather are having a rising influence on the various streams running out of the mountains. All of them are full to overflowing and the Columbia is affected by the increasing volume, and now (2:20 p. m.) the gauge registers 14.8 above zero, being a rise of 3.7 feet within the last twenty-four hours.

The prize contest at the soiree Saturday night will be for the class only, but all are invited to attend.

Result of the Primaries.

The republican primaries were quite spirited in the different precincts yesterday, two tickets being in the field, designated as "republican" and "independent republican." It is said that a number of former democrats voted in some of the wards. It is to be supposed these have changed their party affiliation, but if not they are enjoined by law and a penalty of $250 from voting at the democratic primaries to be held later.

The contest in the primaries will doubtless be continued to the convention. That is the proper place for a show of hands or a difference of opinion to be expressed. But when the ticket is nominated all republicans will be expected to stand by it.

The delegates from The Dalles are about evenly divided. Those elected from the various precincts, so far as heard from, are:

- East Dalles—Wm. Floyd, P. T. Sharp, L. L. McCartney, Geo. Ruch, W. H. Butts, Fred Fisher.
Trevett—N. J. Sinnott, M. A. Moody, M. T. Nolan, E. Jacobson, C. E. Bayard, W. H. Jones.
West Dalles—T. A. Hudson, Geo. Runyon, S. S. Johns, W. E. Walthers, A. J. Anderson.
Bigelow—Robert Mays, J. M. Patterson, L. Rörden, T. N. Joles, C. C. Cooper.
Fails precinct—William Laycock, T. W. Lewis, Thos. Williams, Alex. Watt.
Mosier—Thos. Harlan, Dick Fisher.
East Hood River—E. S. Olinger, H. C. Coe, J. E. Feak.
West Hood River—M. P. Isenberg, J. A. Soesbe, O. L. Stranahan, E. E. Markham.
Columbia—D. J. Cooper, H. Gilpin.
Dufur—Harrison Dufur, T. Johnston, E. J. Hinman, M. J. Anderson.
8-Mile—W. J. Davidson, D. G. Flegg.
Des Chutes—Albert Roberts, Geo. Rice.

HE'LL TAKE THE PILL.

A recent writer of poetical tendencies compliments modern church choirs in the following manner:

I went to hear the city choir. The summer night was still. I heard the music mount the spire. They sang: "He'll take the pill—" "I'm on! I'm on!" the tenor cried, and looked into my face. "My journey home! My journey home!" was followed by the mass. "It is for the—it is for the—" Shrieked the soprano shrill. I knew not why they looked at me. And yelled "He'll take the pill—" Then clutched wildly at my breast. Oh, heaven! My heart stood still; "Yes, yes," I cried, "if that is best, Ye powers! I'll take the pill—" As I half fainting reached the door, And saw the starry dome, I heard them sing: "When life is o'er, He'll take the pilgrim home."

His Point of View.

An odd illustration once given Emerson, the philosopher, of the fact that the laws of disease are as beautiful as the laws of health is reported in his lecture on "The Comic."

"I was hastening," he says, "to visit an old and honored friend, who, I was informed, was in a dying condition, when I met his physician, who accosted me in great spirits. "And how is my friend, the reverend doctor?" I inquired.

"Oh, I saw him this morning. It is the most correct apoplexy I have ever seen; face and hands livid, breathing stertorous, all the symptoms perfect. And he rubbed his hands with delight, for in the country we cannot find every day a case that agrees with the diagnosis of the books."

What is the use to send for wine to California when you can have it for the same price at the California Winery, in Thompson's addition, The Dalles. Also a big lot of fine peanuts at very low rates.

CORRESPONDENCE.

HOOD RIVER.

Weather is fine—regular springtime. Born, to G. S. Evans and wife, a 7-pound boy, on last Saturday. John Rand, who came here from Sun Dance, Wyo., last fall for his health, is very ill.

H. Pugh and wife started for Dufur on Wednesday, for a two weeks' visit with his nephew, Rev. Barnhart.

The rains have ceased and the sun has come forth in all of his glory, reminding us that our fine weather of Hood River has come again.

Johnnie Roberts, son of C. G. Roberts, living at Hood river falls, while playing last Friday, stubbed his toe and fell, breaking his arm below the elbow.

A party of eight, consisting of H. C. Coe, C. L. Gilbert, G. T. Prathers, John Nickelsen, G. S. Evans, Robert Husbands, George Coleman and J. A. Soesbe went to Cascade Locks Thursday night to visit Pythagoras lodge, No. 46, K. of P. All were delighted with the reception tendered them by the brothers of the Locks.

The republicans of West and East Hood River precincts met on the 28th and elected the following delegates to the county convention: From West Hood River precinct—M. P. Isenberg, J. A. Soesbe, O. L. Stranahan, C. E. Markham; for justice of the peace—J. A. Soesbe; for constable—J. J. Luckey. East Hood River precinct—E. S. Olinger, H. C. Coe and J. E. Feak; for justice of the peace—J. C. Hayes; for constable—E. S. Olinger.

TOM LONG.

WAMIC.

Born, to the wife of Geo. Miller, March 25th, a son.

Mr. Fen Batty, of The Dalles, showed himself in these parts on a visit to his sister, Mrs. A. G. Sanford, a short time ago.

Died, March 27th, at 6 o'clock, Miss Daisy Rodman. She was only sick for a short time, which began with brain fever and was followed by an abscess on the liver. She was a nice young lady, loved by all that knew her.

Many plows were started this week and the ground is in fix for plowing. All seem as eager to raise another crop as if they had got a dollar a bushel last fall for their grain. Farmers must be the grittiest people on earth.

Married, March 27, at the residence of John End, father of the bridegroom, Mr. William End to Miss Rosie Bradley, both of this place. There was also another wedding here a few days ago. Mr. Timothy Edmunson imported his lady love from the valley. He met her in The Dalles, brought her to this place and was married. We do not know her maiden name, as all the introduction he gave was at the charivari, when the boys raised him, saying, "here she is, if you want to see her."

REPORTER 9.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Umatilla and Grand Ronde Rivers Booming.

The recent rains and melting snow are causing considerable high water east of Pendleton, on the Union Pacific. At Pendleton the Umatilla river is flooding its banks and filling cellars with water. At La Grande this morning the situation was much worse than at Pendleton. The Grand Ronde river has burst through the mill-dams above the city, flooded three principal streets and is threatening a fourth. All cellars are full of water and the railroad company are having to dump rock on the track to keep it in place. The river is still rising at the rate of two inches an hour, and may do much more damage. All the mountain streams in that vicinity are over a foot higher than ever known.

Good News for Anti-Baptists.

The following, regarding Rev. Frank Farris and Mr. Dallas Dampman, the man who had the trance at 8-Mile, in which he "talked with God," was written by an 8-Mile correspondent to the Heppner Gazette: "Mrs. Fuqua requested Mr. Dampman when next he had a trance to ask God about baptism. At Mr. Ingraham's he again visited Heaven and the Lord told him that sprinkling was all that was necessary and the baptism of the heart, and he was also informed that the Son of God arose from the grave on Sunday."

The White Salmon Colony.

Some time ago THE CHRONICLE gave the particulars of a co-operative colony to be founded at White Salmon, fifteen families of Spokane emigrating thereto for the purpose of fruit-raising.

Today five of these families are in The Dalles, en route to their future home. Mr. D. Hunsaker is the manager and is as busy a mortal as one ordinarily sees, superintending the business of removing the party and their goods and chattels from the depot to the Regulator, which will conclude their trip.

BORN.

In Chicago, March 17th, to the wife of Mr. James Palmer, a daughter. Mrs. Palmer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, of this city.

Go to the Columbia Packing Co.'s Central Market for choice sugar cured ham, at 12 1/2 cents a pound.

Ask your grocer for Columbia Packing Co.'s smoked meats and lard. Insist on their prices and accept no substitute.

Boneless hams at 11 cents; select breakfast bacon at 12 1/2 cents per lb; choice kettle leaf lard, 5-lb pails, 65 cents; 10-lb pails at $1 at the Columbia Packing Co.'s Central Market.

There is no necessity for buying Eastern smoked meats and lard when you can secure a better article of home production for less money. Call at the Central Market and examine the Columbia Packing Co.'s meats and prices, and be convinced.
