The sheriff has so far collected between $20,000 and $25,000. The last named figure will probably be reached before evening.

We are under many obligations to Senator Dolph for valuable public documents; also for a copy of his speech on the seigniorage bill, which, like his tariff speech, was a masterly effort.

Rev. Eli D. Sutcliffe, being about to remove from the city, offers at private sale, and at reasonable prices, two bedroom sets, two cribs and mattresses, baby carriage, revolving bookcase, secretary, center tables, chairs, stoves, and other household goods. The goods may be seen at the rectory between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock. He also requests any one having a bill against him to present it at once.

Two tickets are in the field this afternoon for the different precincts of the democratic primaries in The Dalles. It is believed the tickets represent those who are favorable to the different candidates for sheriff.

The Columbia is still rising rapidly. During the past twenty-four hours it has risen 2.2 feet at Umatilla. From yesterday morning at 8 o'clock until the same hour this morning the report is a rise of 3 feet. Today's report from the upper Columbia is that there is a steady continued rise, and that bridges are being carried away on the railroad lines in the interior. John Day and DesChutes are reported higher than ever known at this season of the year.

Mr. Hal French has recently discovered a diary kept by his father during the war, the existence of which was before unknown to himself or family. He went through all the prominent battles of the war, was first lieutenant and was not 21 years of age until 1866, a year after the war closed. The diary closes with the mention of that fact. It forms a valuable history of the war, recording the death of different generals, the assassination of Lincoln and how it was received, and a great deal of the movements of the Confederate generals.

A Statement Challenged.

Moro, March 28, 1894. In your issue of the 21st inst. I notice the following: "The populists are said to have a majority in Sherman county over both the old parties combined. What benighted land is this?" The last sentence would be very appropriate if the first one had any foundation in fact, but that is in keeping with the most of the statements of the so-called populists—it only lacks the elements of truth. The fact is, there are a few of the party in this county, and, as in all other places, they are sitting around on their haunches and howling like coyotes around the farmer's chicken house. The people of Sherman county are suffering from the prevailing business depression, but have too much intelligence to think any relief can be had by adopting the crazy political schemes of the party calling themselves populists. We think the old name of "Calamity Howlers" is more appropriate. If your informant had been at any of the republican meetings in this county in the last few weeks he would have seen that there were a few at least of that political faith still on deck. The republicans have at this time five precinct clubs in good working order and they are gaining ground every day, while the populists have been growing smaller ever since they held their county convention in this place, and will continue to do so until next June, when they will disappear entirely from the county.

We have a choice assortment of chrysanthemums which I will sell at 10c. a piece, forget-me-nots 35 cents per dozen, pansies 35 cents per dozen.

FLOODS AND SLIDES.

The Fearful Condition of the Railroads in Idaho.

All trains are tied up on the Burke branch in Idaho on account of the snowslides. There are six slides between Burke and Black Bear, each from 1,000 to 2,000 feet in length and from 100 to 200 feet deep. Nine lives are believed to have been lost. Canyon creek is dammed by the snow and a flood is imminent. The railroads are covered by snow in places to a depth of 200 feet. Great damage has been done the railroad and other property. A large force of men are shoveling the snow away and searching for the bodies of the victims. Three bodies have been recovered alive but seriously injured. Another man, whose name is unknown was recovered alive. The flumes of the electric light company are greatly damaged and Wallace was in darkness last night.

Against Manipulators.

The Unity club of The Dalles, was fully organized last evening at Keller's hall. They have adopted a constitution and by-laws, passwords, etc. Their object is to prevent frauds and manipulations at elections, and no one who is known as a political manipulator or boss, or who is under the influence of one is eligible to membership. The club begins work with a goodly list of honest voters, composed of democrats, republicans, populists and prohibitionists. They propose to establish some very much-needed reforms in our local politics.
