APRIL ANNOTATIONS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Now doth the giddy little fly begin to learn to skate, and finds his choicest rink upon a glassy, glabrous pate.

The Regulator began daily trips to Portland this morning.

Day Brothers discharged 100 men Saturday on account of high water.

The river fell a foot since yesterday. Its highest stage was about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, when it registered 20.4 feet.

The contract for laying 212 feet of sidewalk in the Union street cut was awarded to C. M. Fouts, who will soon begin the work of putting it down.

The ladies of the Relief Corps were entertained by Mrs. W. S. Myers on Saturday afternoon. A large number were present and the afternoon was passed very pleasantly.

A hog weighing 525 pounds, sold Saturday by Mr. L. W. Curtis, is the largest on record in this county. These figures were inadvertently preceded by a figure 1 in our Saturday edition.

Herman McDonald, a boy of 9 years, who lives with his uncle, Mr. J. G. Koontz, is ill with diphtheria. The house has been quarantined and all proper precautions taken against a spread of the disease.

Some one entered Wm. Wigman's yard last night, dug up a small cherry tree and carried it away. Nothing is left this morning but the hole and one of the largest limbs, which was probably in the way of the thief.

Henry Boyen, a butcher working for Wood Bros., disregarded the old bit of advice about cutting toward himself today, and while carving a piece of bacon, let the butcher knife slip, cutting a gash in his leg. He severed an artery and the wound extended to the bone.

A choice Arizona fruit collection is on exhibition in glass bottles in W. E. Garretson's show window. They consist of deadly scorpions and centipedes, a tarantula, black spiders, a spotted lizard and a baby rattlesnake. There is enough original poison in these creatures to kill a brigade.

Germs of disease lingering around standing pools of water will readily develop themselves with the warm sunshine. Our greatest ally in dispersing these germs is the wind, but it would be a wise precaution, nevertheless, to throw a lot of lime around them and into the water. It is a cheap and thorough disinfectant.

The superintendent of the Congregational Sunday school recently offered a reward to any pupil who would commit the golden texts for a quarter—thirteen of them. It was successfully claimed by three of them, Carl Greaser, Dora Neilson and Nina Guthrie, the latter a little tot of 6 years belonging to Mrs. Condon's infant class, who prattled them off with no trouble whatever.

The Work is Done (?)

The engine of the rock crusher has been hauled away and housed, and that ends the street improvement. There is general complaint that the paving is left in an unfinished state—that the big rocks which cover the surface are continually laming horses' hoofs. It will be years before these rocks can be worn down by ordinary travel, and in the summer time this street will be avoided. Along a beaten track the road is a little better, but this is because the larger rocks have been displaced, and when teams meet, one must pull out into a mass of large loose rocks, which will be a perpetual annoyance for many years. Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well, and this is especially applicable to this street. The trouble would be obviated by a top dressing of fine rock, like the sample of road first made on Union street, which is today perfect.

Dancing For Prizes.

Armory hall was perhaps uncomfortably filled Saturday night by the many people who attended the soiree. It was the prize dance, and eight couples of the class competed for them. The judges were Capt. Sherman, L. E. Crowe and Douglas Dufur. They claimed it was hard to make the decision, but finally decided to award the ladies queen chain to Miss Emma Fisher and the sleeve buttons to Claude McCoy. The decision gave general satisfaction.

The Wamie Case.

The Mart New rape case was dismissed Friday, and defendant discharged. The testimony raised a doubt as to the girl's age, but the proof was not conclusive that she had arrived at the age of consent. The justice ruled out testimony corroborative of the girl's statements. The defense made a flat denial, but little proof was shown that the act was not as stated in the indictment.

Memory of Horses.

Mr. Geo. Ireland of Mosier who recently lost a team of gray horses, has found them where they were raised, at Mr. Smith's ranch on Mill Creek. The animals found their way to their former home, where they had not been for two years.

We have a choice assortment of chrysanthemums which I will sell at 10cts. apiece, forget-me-nots 35 cents per dozen, pansies 35 cents per dozen.

Mrs. A. C. Sturling a Son.

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's Pain Balm and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

COMMITTED MAYHEM.

Officer J. B. Harper Seriously Bites Conductor Rice.

Saturday night a deplorable event happened at Dan. Baker's saloon, by which Mike Rice, a freight conductor on the Union Pacific, became disfigured for life by having the end of his nose bit off and a thumb chewed by Night Watchman J. B. Harper.

After the soiree at the Armory hall, Rice and his wife, with some other ladies, started homeward, passing Baker's saloon. Rice heard familiar voices singing in the saloon, and prevailed upon his wife to go home without him, saying he would join her in a short time. He went in the saloon and soon after Harper entered. A discussion arose between them as to a party who had voted at both primaries. Harper is unfortunately possessed of an ungovernable temper and besides was partially intoxicated, and he struck at Rice. Both clinched and Harper got Rice's thumb in his teeth, chewing it and lacerating it fearfully. In the heat of the moment Rice did not realize the extent of his injury. Overtures for peace were made by Harper, and Rice promised to let him up if he would not molest him farther. The promise was apparently not sincere on Harper's part, for as soon as he was released he made a snap at Rice's nose, severing the end of it, and spitting it out. Harper then quickly left the room and has not been heard of since.

Both men have wives and children, which makes the affair doubly unfortunate. Public opinion is all on the side of Rice, as it is conceded Harper began the trouble and committed the crime without provocation. His badge of office prevented Rice from dealing with him more severely.

Today Rice is at home, attending to the injured portions of his anatomy. Dr. Hollister was called who rendered the necessary medical assistance.

The Horticulturalists.

The thirty-fifth quarterly meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural Society will be held at The Dalles, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 10th and 11th. The following programme has been prepared:

- TUESDAY AFTERNOON. Music. "Fruit Drying and Marketing Dried Fruits." H. Dawson, The Dalles. Remarks. Railroad Officials. General Discussion. EVENING. Address of Welcome. Mayor Paul Kraft. Response. President J. R. Cardwell. Portland Essay on Flowers. Mrs. Annie Brooks, The Dalles. "Nissegua Canal, and its Relation to the Fruit Grower." H. E. Doseh, Hillsdale. "The Strawberry Industry at Hood River." Hon. T. R. Coon, Hood River. Discussion. "Co-operation." R. D. Allen Silverton. Paper. Discussion. "What Shall We Plant?" Col. E. F. Babcock, Walla Walla, Wash. "Horticultural Laws." Dr. E. C. Saunders, The Dalles. Music. "The Use of Dynamite in the Preparation of Soils." Elmer Stearns, Salt Lake Utah.

For The Dalles Meeting a variation of program will be made. The forenoon will be given to visiting the neighboring orchards, and points of interest discussed. In the meeting, fewer papers will be presented and more time given for general discussion. It is expected that prominent railroad officials and the president of the Northwest Pacific Fruit-Growers' Association will be present and address the meeting.

Brown Leghorn hens, Early Rose seed potatoes, King Philip seed corn, and seed wheat, for sale at J. H. Cross' feed store.

Stole a March on the Old Folks.

Mary Hurst is the name of a girl of 15 years, who was married Saturday night to a young man named Wm. Jordan in The Dalles. Miss Hurst, or Mrs. Jordan now, is the granddaughter of Mr. James Hurst, of 15-Mile. He, with the mother of the child, is in town today, investigating the circumstances of the marriage. It appears there is something wrong with the testimony before the county clerk, married under false pretenses, as it were. It was represented that the girl was without a parent and unable to paddle her own canoe. However, all is fair in love and war, and now that the couple are married, it is perhaps best to let the matter rest.

The Weakest Spot

In your whole system, perhaps is the liver. If that doesn't do its work of purifying the blood, more troubles come from it than you can remember.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts upon this weak spot as nothing else can. It rouses it up to healthy, natural action. By thoroughly purifying the blood, it reaches, builds up, and invigorates every part of the system.

For diseases that depend on the liver or the blood—dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness; every form of scrofula, even consumption (or lung-scroftia) in its earlier stages; and the most stubborn skin and scalp diseases, the "Discovery" is the only remedy so unfailing and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

The regular subscription price of the WEEKLY CHRONICLE is $1.50 and the regular price of the WEEKLY OREGONIAN is $1.60. Any one subscribing for THE CHRONICLE and paying for one year in advance can get both THE CHRONICLE and WEEKLY OREGONIAN for $2.00. All old subscribers paying their subscriptions for one year in advance will be entitled to the same offer.

WANTED, LADIES to do writing at home. Pay $1.00 to $2.00 per week. Send self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. MAREE FONTAINE, General Manager, 224 Dearborn St., CHICAGO, ILL.

SIGHT IN EARTHWORMS.

Senses Possessed by the Supposedly Senseless Creatures.

James Weir, Jr., in a curious little study in evolution, shows that all the five senses of man are found in the lower forms of animal life. Darwin, while admitting that earthworms are sensible to light, maintains that they are blind. Weir, in the North American Review, maintains the contrary. He says that the circumscribed spots on the dorsal surface of the worm are primitive eyes. The microscope reveals in these spots a transparent membrane, a special nerve spread out in this matter and extending to the central nerve structure. The membrane is the cornea, the pigmentary matter a retina, and the special nerve an optic nerve. As there is no lens the worm can distinguish only light and darkness. The arrangements for the sense of touch are not materially different from those in man. The sense which they are without is that of hearing, but sound waves are conveyed to the sensorium through the sense of touch. That worms have taste and smell can be proved by experiments with food. As to smell, put musk near them and it is amusing to see them hunting their holes to escape it. "The nerves of taste and smell are blended together, and can readily be made out with the microscope in the lips, so to speak, of the oral pouch."

For County Clerk.

Capt. J. M. Buschke is a candidate for county clerk on the republican ticket.

Go to the Columbia Packing Co.'s Central Market for choice sugar cured ham, at 12 1/2 cents a pound.

Ask your grocer for Columbia Packing Co.'s smoked meats and lard. Insist on their prices and accept no substitute.

Boneless hams at 11 cents; select breakfast bacon at 12 1/2 cents per lb; choice kettle leaf lard, 5-lb pails, 55 cents; 10-lb pails at $1 at the Columbia Packing Co.'s Central Market.
