APRIL ANNOTATIONS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Here lives a man who did one noble deed. With gratitude we note it: He had an idea for a popular song. But died before he wrote it.

Democrats are feeling blue. City council meets tomorrow night. Collections were said to be much easier today.

A republican club has been organized at Bake Oven, to be known as the J. N. Dolph club.

The carpenter work has been completed at the Armory hall and it is now ready for the painters.

The republican convention will be held tomorrow. Fourteen delegates arrived on the local train.

The cabinet members of the Epworth League are requested to meet at the M. E. church this evening.

Owing to a general request to continue the soirees, they will be held every Saturday night as formerly until further notice.

The last seen of Harper was a few hours after he committed the crime at Baker's saloon. He resigned his office and surrendered his star to the marshal.

An unknown man, says an exchange, was found dead in the outskirts of a small Kansas town a few days ago. A search disclosed $100 cash and a revolver on the unfortunate man. The coroner held an inquest and it took $75 to defray expenses and bury the body. The police judge fined the corpse $25 for carrying a concealed weapon, and confiscated the gun. The local paper gets nothing for publishing the obituary.

Yesterday municipal elections were held in a number of states, with results generally largely in favor of the republicans. In Ohio and Connecticut, where national issues were prominent, the republicans made enormous gains, carrying towns that had gone democratic for years. Michigan shows almost universal republican success. In Kansas local issues predominated.

Mayor Mason of Portland who is in San Francisco, has been interviewed regarding Oregon politics. He says: "Oregon, at the coming election, will roll up a majority for the republican party proportionally as large as that given to Galusha Grow in the recent congressional contest. There is no doubt that the party will have a sweeping victory.

Independent Workers.

We spent another pleasant evening together on Monday evening, April 2d, and initiated eleven more persons. Our charter list is now closed, having reached the large number of ninety-three.

Judging from the pleasant and kindly feeling exhibited at this meeting a very bright future is before us. In faith, hope and charity we are banded together in opposition to this terrible evil of intemperance. Come and help us in this good work.

KNOW NOTHING.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Grant county has let a contract for a $9,000 bridge across John Day.

The Salem Statesman claims to have two double-decked incubators at work hatching out roosters to crow over the republican victories in Oregon next June.

A proposition has been made to build a smelter in Baker City with a capacity of 30 tons of ore daily, provided a site of 10 acres and $50,000 in cash be given as a bonus.

It is reported that the populist campaign will be formally opened at Wallowa on the 23d day of April by Mr. Pierce and Governor Penoyer. They will stump the state together.

Mr. H. D. McGuire, of East Portland, state fish and game warden, was in Jacksonville last week. He had been informed that the fish and game laws were being violated in Southern Oregon, and came out to investigate the matter and appoint a deputy for that section.

One of Charlie Kester's twins swallowed a safety-pin last Tuesday evening, the pin lodging in the child's throat. The little one suffered terribly during the night. Dr. Wright was summoned and removed the obstruction and the baby is doing well.—Klamath Falls Express.

The largest prune orchard in the state is located in Benton county. It comprises 200 acres, on which is planted 22,000 trees, and is known as the Excelsior Fruit Farm. Geo. E. and G. A. Waggoner, who are interested in the enterprise, returned from the place last Wednesday and say the trees are all looking splendid.

Col. N. B. Knight, of Salem, who went to San Jose last week with his daughter Sylvia, who will attend school there, will go out to his Klamath county ranch on returning to Oregon. Some newspapers accuse the Colonel of a willingness to accept Senatorial honors in the improbable event of a democratic legislature being elected in Oregon.

ENDERSBY.

Stock on the range are doing well. We have never seen the grass better for this time of the year.

There is no damage done the fruit crop as yet, so the chances are favorable for an immense crop this year.

The roads are in a rather deplorable condition, but will be put in order again as soon as it is dry enough to work them. The fall and winter wheat is looking fine. The ground, as yet, is too wet for good plowing, although some of our farmers are making a start on the highest ground.

8-Mile creek has been on the rampage for the third time this season, overflowing its banks and doing considerable damage in washing away the soil in many places.

I heard some time since of General Coxe and his vast army of unemployed on a raid to Washington. We thought seriously for a time that we would join the vast army and ere this be on the march. But fate decreed otherwise.

While making every preparation to be on the move, while our better half was putting the last patch on our uniform she seriously said she had an idea. What, an idea? Yes, it was just this, if I would clean out the berry patch and set out as many more berry bushes, she would set a few of the old hens and perhaps raise a few chickens for the fall market. The idea was a good one. I have doubled the berry patch and she has done her part by the chickens. So you see instead of being in the army, we will be in the market to stay. There is an old saying "God helps those who help themselves." As the loveliest of spring weather is upon us we find we have all the work we can do setting out trees and enlarging our berry patches.

A young fellow whose betrothal had just been announced was met by an intimate friend lately who questioned the happy man on his changed appearance. To these kindly queries the youth replied, "Well, I don't know what it is, unless there is such a thing as engagement fright. If there is that's what I have."

The Weakest Spot

In your whole system, perhaps is the liver. If that doesn't do its work of purifying the blood, more troubles come from it than you can remember.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts upon this weak spot as nothing else can. It rouses it up to healthy, natural action. By thoroughly purifying the blood, it reaches, builds up, and invigorates every part of the system.

For diseases that depend on the liver or the blood—dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness; every form of scrofula, even consumption (or lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages; and the most stubborn skin and scalp diseases, the "Discovery" is the only remedy so unailing and effective that it can be guaranteed.

If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.
