APRIL ANNOTATIONS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

A large lot of beef cattle were shipped by steamer this morning to Vancouver, Wash.

Tourist travel has commenced in good shape. Quite a number came up on the steamer Regulator last evening.

The rain gauge marked 19 feet above zero this morning, indicating a very slight rise from the readings yesterday.

The people's party primaries will be held on April 14th, and the convention on the 20th. A call will be found in another column.

Our types made us say Mr. A. M. Walker, of Wamic, Sherman Co., died yesterday. It should have been W. P. Walker, of near Wasco, Sherman Co.

If you want any kind of garden seeds, grass seed or field, call at H. H. Campbell's, where you can get what you want at reasonable rates. Next door to the postoffice.

George Flowerday, the 2-year-old son of the photographer, fell from the bluff this afternoon, causing concussion of the brain. Dr. O. C. Holister was called, and the little one is now considered out of danger.

The Antelope democratic delegation is composed of three; and the democratic voting capacity is the same—three. One more democrat was present at the primary, but he came from The Dalles. He kindly assisted however to make the quorum.

Arbor day will be duly observed on April 13th. The influence of Arbor day in schools in awakening a just appreciation of the value of trees, first among pupils and teachers, and then among parents and people in general, is one of great interest and importance.

News of a vacancy in any given position travels fast. Councilman Butts received a letter from a man in Portland yesterday, stating he heard the office of night watchman was vacant and volunteering his valuable services for the position. There was no dearth of applications at the council meeting last night.

Petitions would command more respect if the signers would regard their own inclinations more strictly. Nearly everybody signs a petition out of courtesy and without reading it. Later a remonstrance is circulated, and often many names are found on it which were on the original petition. For this reason petitions have become to be not a sure index of popular sentiments.

The Umatilla house was the liveliest place in town yesterday till long after midnight. The bar-room was continually filled with candidates and delegates. For one day the latter were kings and lords, and monarchs of all they surveyed. They were masters of the situation and they realized it. The fever of politics had not subsided this morning. The numerous candidates were just as busy in subdued dialogue and mysterious motions of the head and arms as on the evening previous. About nine-tenths of these people will be off the anxious seat tonight; their destinies will be known; but the other tenth—the successful nominee—will not be relieved of their anxiety until after the first week in June. And really neither is to be envied more than the other.

A Dangerous Steer.

A fractions steer of a band to be shipped on the Regulator this morning broke away, defied all restraint and cavorted around the streets for an hour or more, terrifying all pedestrians. John Crate and marshal Maloney endeavored to catch him with ropes in the Union street cut when the maddened animal plunged into Crate's horse. If the steer's horns had not been sawed off he would have gored the horse to death. Mr. Crate luckily succeeded in getting his feet from the stirrups and was not thrown under the horse. The horse was seriously hurt as it was. The marshal was struck in the leg, which temporarily lamed him. As the steer would very probably have killed somebody, and his antics were especially dangerous to children, he was eventually thrown with ropes and hauled to the city pound in one of Cathcart's wagons.

Heroic Size Scenery.

The painting of the scenes for Armory hall is progressing fast. Three are already completed—the drop curtain, interior wood and the garden scenes—and are very artistic. The drop curtain represents a magnificent landscape, with a lake in the foreground, relieved by mountain peaks back of it. The artist is now working on the singing chamber. On a background of light blue, a golden lyre will be represented, with multi-colored ribbons on each side. The curtains are 22 feet wide by 15 feet high.

Good News for Dufur.

Dr. C. Billington, the greatest cancer doctor of America, who has been following the business of removing cancers for the past twenty years, and was never known to lose a case, will locate at Dufur on his return from Cleveland, Klickitat county, Washington, where he is now gone to remove a cancer, and will return in a few days.

Never Fails.

No instance of a failure on record when Simmons Liver Regulator has been properly taken. It removes bilious secretions, cures dyspepsia, constipation and sick headache, strengthens the kidneys and gently assists Nature.

We have a choice assortment of chrysanthemums which I will sell at 10cts. apiece, forget-me-nots 35 cents per dozen, pansies 35 cents per dozen.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Sixty-Seven Republicans Assembled at the Court House.

Thos. Harlan of Mosier Is Named Chairman, and A. S. Roberts Secretary—Business of the Convention.

The republican county convention was called to order at 10:30 o'clock by Hon. B. S. Huntington, who read the call for state and county delegates. At the conclusion he stated that on retiring from the chairmanship of the central committee he would state that he had collected $417.25, every dollar of which had been expended. He desired to say that while his office had involved much time, labor and care, the duties had been uniformly pleasant.

Mr. Anderson—Mr. Chairman. Mr. R. Mays—Mr. Chairman. The chair—Mr. Anderson is recognized.

Mr. Anderson I desire to nominate for temporary chairman one who has been a republican since 1856, a man who has been many times honored by the party of the state in which he has lived, and a man who in this convention belongs to no faction and will rule impartially. I nominate the Hon. Thomas Harlan of Mosier.

Mr. Mays—Mr. Chairman, I desire to nominate a gentleman who has presided frequently at our convention with marked ability and honor, a republican well known to you all, and one who deserves this slight recognition at our hands. I nominate Hon. W. H. H. Dufur.

Mr. Isenberg—I desire to second the nomination made by Mr. Anderson. Mr. Harlan is a gray-haired man who has proven his fealty to the republican party from 1861 to '65. He has held many positions of public trust, and has been no less than a representative during the administration of Hon. James A. Garfield. He is now on the downward side of life, and deserves this recognition from the "boys" of the party he has helped to make.

Mr. Dufur very feelingly thanked the gentleman who had placed his name in nomination but declined it. He most earnestly pleaded his loyalty to the republican party, said he had always stood by the ticket, even when it was attended by personal sacrifices. And now, rather than cause any ill feelings he would sacrifice his own ambition and step down. He received hearty applause.

Mr. Mays did not want him to decline and urged upon the convention that he had always dealt impartially and with great fairness to all opposing elements in the party. No one could accuse him of injustice and everyone esteemed him as an honorable gentleman. His valiant and continued service for the party dictated that common justice honor him with the temporary chairmanship of the convention.

Mr. Dufur, however, insisted upon his declination, and on motion of Mr. Moody, Mr. Thos. Harlan was chosen temporary chairman of the convention by acclamation. He was escorted to the chair by Hon. W. H. H. Dufur.

Mr. Harlan said that it was his desire for the convention to proceed right to business, and that he would not take up the time with remarks concerning his selection to the chair. He said he appreciated and understood the little waves of falling that sweep over the surface, but it was his desire for unanimity and a sweeping republican victory in June.

Mr. Moody then nominated Mr. A. S. Roberts of Des Chutes as temporary secretary of the convention and he was elected by acclamation.

Mr. H. C. Rooper then moved that a committee of five be appointed on order of business. The motion was amended by Mr. Dufur that the committee consist of seven members. Both the amendment and motion carried and the committee was later announced to be Messrs. M. J. Anderson, Robt. Mays, A. E. Lake, M. T. Nolan, W. H. H. Dufur, M. P. Isenberg and T. H. McGreer.

Mr. Moody nominated Mr. Soesbe of Hood River as assistant secretary of the convention who was likewise elected by acclamation.

Mr. H. C. Rooper moved that a committee of five be appointed on credentials. The committee, when appointed, were Messrs. Fisher, Joles, Olinger, Ash and Paquet.

Throughout the chair seemed to be embarrassed by not being acquainted with many of the delegates. For this reason, as was claimed, Mr. Nolan moved that the committee on resolutions be named in the motion. Mr. Dufur combatted the motion, and said it was a time-honored prerogative of the chair to appoint committees. The objection caused Mr. Nolan to withdraw the motion. The committee as named were:

M. J. Anderson, Harry Gilpin, M. P. Isenberg, C. E. Bayard, N. J. Sinnott.

AFTERNOON.

In the afternoon the report of the committee on credentials was read and adopted showing the following entitled to sit in the convention:

Falls Precinct—William Laylock, Alex Watt, T H Williams, T W Lewis, (by E P Ash, proxy.)

West Hood River—M P Isenberg, O L Stranahan, J A Soesbe, C E Markham.

The Weakest Spot

In your whole system, perhaps is the liver. If that doesn't do its work of purifying the blood, more troubles come from it than you can remember. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery acts upon this weak spot as nothing else can. It rouses it up to healthy, natural action. By thoroughly purifying the blood, it reaches, builds up, and invigorates every part of the system. For diseases that depend on the liver or the blood—dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness; every form of scrofula, even consumption (or lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages; and the most stubborn skin and scalp diseases, the "Discovery" is the only remedy so unfailing and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.
