

A FOOT-HOLD for Consumption is what you are offering, if your blood is impure. Consumption is simply Lung Scrofula. A scrofulous condition, with a slight cough or cold, is all that it needs to develop it.

But just as it depends upon the blood for its origin, so it depends upon the blood for its cure. The surest remedy for Scrofula in every form, the most effective blood-cleanser, flesh-builder, and strength-restorer that's known to medical science, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For Consumption in all its earlier stages, and for Weak Lungs, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and all Bronchial, Throat and Lung affections, that is the only remedy so unerring that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

For a perfect and permanent cure of Catarrh, take Doctor Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Its proprietors offer $500 reward for an incurable case of Catarrh in the Head. Costs only 50 cents.

THOUGHT HE WAS A WOMAN.

Why Cardinal Lavigerie Began to Cultivate a Flowing Beard.

An interesting story is told by the New York Tribune regarding the reasons which led the late Cardinal Lavigerie to allow his great beard to grow, to which, it has been said, much of his authority in Africa was due. When the famous prelate arrived at Algiers to take up his duties as archbishop he saw with regret that the faces of all the priests were covered with hair. At the reception of the clergy the cardinal showed his displeasure at this, and virtually ordered them to visit the barber at once. There was great excitement among the long-bearded priests, who disliked to sacrifice the facial ornaments, which were their chief pride. But Pater Girard, the popular superior of the seminary in Algiers and the possessor of the most Lombard-like beard, calmed them by saying that he would persuade the cardinal to rescind his order. On the day following the prelate's arrival in Algiers Pater Girard accompanied him on his first official journey. As they arrived in a village inhabited exclusively by native Africans, the oldest inhabitants, who had long known the superior, came to pay their respects to the prince of the church. They looked with surprise on the freshly shaven face of the cardinal, and a lively conversation followed, accompanied by gestures illustrative of astonishment.

"What are they saying?" asked Cardinal Lavigerie, with impatience.

"Oh," answered Pater Girard, pretending to be greatly embarrassed, "they are great children! You need pay no attention to their nonsensical talk."

"But tell me, as I should like to know," continued the cardinal, unable to suppress his interest and curiosity.

"Well," came the reply, "they can not understand why a man shaves himself. They think you are a woman, and a very beautiful one."

It need hardly be added that the archbishop of Algiers allowed his priests to retain their long beards. Indeed, a few months later the cardinal himself appeared with a great beard, which soon became known throughout the northern part of Africa.

A Leader.

Since its first introduction, electric bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and preat medicine for all ailments of stomach, liver or kidneys. It will cure sick headache, indigestion, constipation and drive malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

A Regiment of Noses.

In the Russian army there is one particular regiment of infantry, the guards, formed by Emperor Paul, the men of whom are recruited, not so much with regard to their height or the color of their hair and complexion, as to the shape of their noses. Emperor Paul had a typical Kalmuk nose, of the most execrably up-tipped pattern, and since then, out of compliment to him, all the officers and men of this particular regiment have noses of the same shape, the sight which they present on parade being somewhat startling.

Ten days loss of time on account of sickness and a doctor bill to pay, is anything but pleasant for a man of a family to contemplate, whether he is a laborer, mechanic, merchant or publisher. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas, was sick in bed for ten days with the grip during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with considerable success. I think, only being in bed a little over two days. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of the remedy." It should be borne in mind that the grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. When you wish to cure a cold quickly and effectually give this remedy a trial. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

He Feared Exaggeration.

I heard an amusing story from a New York journalist the other day, says a writer in Gentlewoman. In his youth he had been combined editor and staff of a paper that provided news for one of the wildest and most lawless settlements in the Rockies. Mr. was sitting in his office, and a wild-looking person was shown in, who said: "Sir, I have called to see you with regard to a disturbance that took place at one of the bars last night. I had a row with a man last night, he riled me, and I got excited and shot him, and I regret to say that in the excitement of the moment I scalped him; so I've called on you, sir, to request that you will see that no exaggerated report of this finds its way into your newspaper."

BEAUTY IN AGE.

An Old Lady Who Believes in Being Always Cheerful.

A dear old lady of eighty-three is she who is described by Kate Sanborn, in "A Truthful Woman in Southern California," as "Grandma Wade." She says:

I have known several interesting octogenarians, but never one that surpassed her in loveliness, wit and positive jollity. She still has her ardent admirers among men as well as women, and now and then receives an earnest proposal from some lonely old fellow. The last of these aged lovers, when refused and relegated to the position of a brother, urged her to reconsider the matter and make it a subject of prayer. But she quietly said:

"I'm not going to bother the Lord with questions I can answer myself!"

One day when she was choked by a bread crumb at the table, she said to the frightened waiter, as soon as she could regain her breath:

"Never mind if that did go down the wrong way. A great many good things have gone down the right way this winter."

She is invariably cheerful, and when she was parting with her son for the winter, she said:

"Well, John, I want to know before you go just what you have left me in your will."

"This little joke turned a tear into a smile."

Even when ill, she is so bright and hopeful that a friend once exclaimed: "Grandma, I do believe you would laugh if you were dying!"

"Well," said she, "so many folks go to the Lord with a long face, I guess He will be glad to see me to Him smiling!"

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten-fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

Cart Before the Horse.

Putting the cart before the horse is no longer a mere conception. In France it is now an accomplished fact. An inventor has gotten up a street car or an omnibus, not drawn, but driven with gearing from a treadmill attached to the rear of the vehicle and supported on wheels. The horse, therefore, rides while he works.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We would not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at Snipes & Kinersly's.

The Queen's Maids.

The eight unmarried ladies who hold offices as the queen's maids of honor are given the prefix of "Honorable," and on marrying receive from the queen the gift of one thousand pounds. One or two maids of honor may reside for a fortnight at a time at Windsor, or Osborne, but her majesty seldom takes more than one to Scotland. The dowry of a maid of honor has been given for at least one hundred and fifty years, but is according to her majesty's pleasure, and in 1768 it was refused to one lady, who engaged herself in marriage without the consent of her royal mistress.

The experience of Geo. A. Apgar, of German Valley, N. J., is well worth remembering. He was troubled with chronic diarrhoea and doctored for five months and was treated by four different doctors without benefit. He then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, of which one bottle effected a complete cure. It is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Queer Notion, But Good.

Those in search of novel luncheon dainties should try the peanut sandwich, which had its origin in Boston. Be sure the peanuts are freshly roasted. Chop fine and spread between slices of buttered bread cut very thin.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyre Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

The Only Alternative.

James Payn tells an amusing story concerning a well-known club in Pall Mall. A member lost his umbrella there and caused the following notice to be put up in the entrance hall: "The nobleman who took away an umbrella not his own on such a date is requested to return it." The house committee took umbrage at this statement and summoned the member who had composed it before them. "Why, sir," they said, "should you have supposed that a nobleman had taken your umbrella?" "Well," he replied, "the first article in the club rules says that 'This club is composed of nobleman and gentlemen,' and since the person who stole my umbrella could not have been a gentleman, he must have been a nobleman."
