APRIL ANNOTATIONS.

Leaves from the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The delegates have nearly all gone. Now for the ticket.

The local train did not arrive until 2:30 this afternoon.

The Regulator makes daily trips, connecting with the Dalles City to Portland.

No. 1 arrived four hours late this morning, having been delayed by connections at Umatilla.

Mays & Crowe have an announcement to make in our weekly edition tomorrow. Watch for it.

The book sociable that was to have been given yesterday is postponed until Wednesday evening next.

Mr. N. Harris has just received a fresh invoice of goods. You will do well to consult his new advertisement in another column.

Mr. L. S. Davis and D. H. Roberts will leave for the fossil beds about the 15th inst, in the interest of Prof. Condon, of the state university. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

The railroad boys are feeling good today. A telegram was received from a friend in Omaha stating that Judge Colwell had decided to retain the old rules and schedules. A later one said: "Everything is in our favor. Will start home today."

Mr. G. W. Smith of Endersby presented this office with a new variety of potatoes, which he originated from a potato ball. The tuber resembles the Garnet Chili somewhat, is a prolific grower, is sizable and a fine keeper. He names the new production the Wasco Beauty.

The two steers which escaped from a hand yesterday were in charge of Kelley Bros. for shipment on the Regulator. The one which was so roughly handled on the streets died from its injuries shortly after it was impounded. The other was driven to Wm. Taylor's corral about a mile from the city. The marshal went after it and drove it also to the city pound.

Hon. T. G. Reames, of Jackson county, has announced that he will accept the democratic nomination for governor, if tendered him. E. R. Skipworth, of Lane is willing to make the race for secretary

MORE LITTLE ONES.

Mr. Gardiner Again in the City--Little Myrtle Gibson.

Supt. W. T. Gardiner of the Boys and Girls Aid Society, is again in the city. He brought with him four children from the home. One boy of 12 years, George Fisher by name, goes to Mr. A. McLeod. The boy parted from Mr. Gardiner with the regretful look of a child bidding a fond father adieu forever. It was really touching. "Good bye, my boy; be a good little man," was the kindly superintendent's parting words. Mr. McLeod will not be long in gaining the little fellow's affections. He is apparently of a sensitive temperament. Two others are a brother and sister and go to Arlington for adoption in the same home. The other one is a juvenile hobo, smart, careless and with fully as much knowledge of the world as is good for him. He said he was "jugged" in Portland, when Gardiner got him. He regarded the officer more as a jolly crows than anything else, and would doubtless say to him "so long" in a nonchalant manner when he leaves him forever. He goes to an uncle, Sam. Broyles, of this county. Mr. Gardiner said the little Gibson girl is perfectly satisfied with her new home, has not grieved over her mother, and is bright, saucy and tractable.

Awfully Provoking.

The last legislature passed the following law: "Women over the age of twenty-one years who are citizens of the United States and of this state, shall be eligible to all educational offices within this state. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed." In Gilliam county, consequently, a number of ladies are aspirants for the position of county school superintendent. Unfortunately for their aspirations, the constitution of Oregon, paragraph 8, article 6, says: "No person shall be elected or appointed to a county office who shall not be an elector of the county."

A Resolution Overlooked.

The following was one of the most important resolutions to be offered in the republican county convention yesterday.

Resolved: That in view of the unsatisfactory manner in which assessments for the purpose of taxation are now made under our present laws and the tenure of office of county assessor, that we urge upon our members of the next legislature the necessity of changing the term of office of county assessor to six years, and that they be placed upon an annual salary equal to that of county clerk.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Good Strong Ticket Named for Republican Candidates.

Hon. W. H. Dufur Takes the Initiative in Introducing a Popular Measure-- Brilliant Speeches Close the Convention.

Nominations for county officers began about 3:30 o'clock in the convention yesterday afternoon.

M. T. Nolan moved that the successful candidate receive a majority of all votes cast, and Mr. Menefee moved that the balloting be done by precincts. Four tellers were appointed and the balloting proceeded until at 6:15 o'clock the last candidate on the ticket was nominated. The nominations are as follows: Sheriff--T. J. Driver. Clerk--A. M. Kelsay. Superintendent of schools--Troy Shelley. Assessor--F. H. Wakefield. Treasurer--Wm. Michell. Coroner--W. H. Butts. County commissioner--A. S. Blowers. Surveyor--F. S. Sharp.

On motion of W. H. H. Dufur Frank Menefee was chosen chairman of the county central committee by acclamation and H. H. Riddell secretary, the delegates to be chosen by the separate precincts.

M. T. Nolan moved that in case any delegate to the state convention failed to attend, the majority of the delegation should cast his vote, but the motion was overlooked and did not carry. On motion of W. H. H. Dufur, unanimously carried that the delegation be instructed to cast their vote for Hon. W. R. Ellis first, last and all the time.

Earlier in the session the following resolution was passed.

WHEREAS, At the seventeenth regular session of the Oregon legislature, an act was passed abolishing "the fee system" relating to the pay of clerks and sheriffs, and

WHEREAS, The salaries of said officers for Wasco county, as provided in said act, are greatly in excess of the compensation allowed for like services in all the ordinary avocations of business, therefore be it

Resolved, That our delegates to the district convention be instructed to demand a pledge of all candidates for the legislature, that if elected, they will use their best efforts to secure the passage of a bill reducing the salary of clerk of Wasco county to $1,200 per annum, and that of sheriff to $1,500 per annum, together with all allowances, including clerical aid, as provided for in said act.

Mr. Anderson, of the committee on resolutions, now reported another batch of them, and Mr. Dufur arose and handed in another, recommending that the convention favor the passage of the initiative and referendum which he wanted the personal honor of handing in himself. He supported it in a vigorous speech of some length. Mr. Anderson of the Dufur delegation opposed it, on the ground that the members of the convention had not had opportunity to study it. He had studied it and concluded that while the measure might be feasible in such an old settled country as Switzerland, which rarely changed and comparatively rarely framed a law, it would not do for such a state as Oregon to adopt it, when at the last legislature 600 bills and 400 joint resolutions were considered, or only four minutes for the three readings, arguments and final disposition of every bill for the 40 days session. He opined that the legislature would be flooded with bills from the people from which there would be no extrication.

Mr. Dufur again spoke upon the merits of the bill, but did not get a second time make an extended argument, and the discussion of the resolution came to an end by the chairman announcing that lack of time precluded extended argument on resolutions. Mr. Anderson moved to indefinitely postpone the remainder of the resolutions and the motion carried.

The different precincts then named the central committeemen as they were called:

- Falls--M P Ash. West Hood River--M P Isenberg. East Hood River--E S Olinger. Baldwin--Albert McCamey. Mosier--A C Fisher. West Dalles--Geo. Runyon. Trevitt--C E Bayard. Bigelow--J M Patterson. East Dalles--L L McCartney. Columbia--H Gilpin. 8-Mile--W J Davidson. Des Chutes--A S Roberts. Nansene--E A Griffin. Dufur--C P Balch. Kingsley--A McCleod. Tygh--C J Van Duyn. Wamic--P W Knowles. Oak Grove--O L Paquet. Antelope--W Bolton.

Mr. Nolan, on behalf of the convention, invited the chair to express a few republican principles, and in response Mr. Harlan arose. Brimming over with good nature, with kindly regard beaming from his eyes toward all who were in that house, he was greeted with applause as he arose. His speech was forceful, with a liberal sprinkling of wit, and calculated to heal the sore spots which are unavoidably made in conventions. He related the many beneficent acts of the party crystallized in legislation, and accused the democratic party of committing every crime for political ends murder not excepted. He referred to Boss McKane of Gravesend, and Albert Roes, killed a few days ago in Troy, for showing up a democratic repeater. His satire on Grover Cleveland was keen and finely drawn. After relating what the democratic party was he made this statement: "Grover Cleveland is its president; Roswell P. Flower its governor; David B. Hill its boss; and Waite, Lewellyn and Pennoyer its afterbirth." Repeated bursts of applause prevented the speaker from resuming for a full minute. He also likened Grover Cleveland to a turkey hen which a farmer set on 72 eggs. The farmer replied, when asked what he used so many eggs for, "I know it was too many, but I wanted to see the old fool spread herself." Grover, in trying to hover England and the Sandwich Islands, is letting the home nest get cool.

Mr. Isenberg was called. He reluctantly complied, but was urged on by tremendous applause, by friends who knew of his great oratorical ability. He is a rapid speaker. Words flow from his lips as a resistless flood, held only in check by the inflection necessary for proper emphasis. He wished to say that as one of the assemblies of Oregon,
