APRIL ANNOTATIONS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

A ladies auxiliary to the A. O. U. W. is to be formed tomorrow evening.

Word has arrived from Hood River that the K. of P. concert has been indefinitely postponed.

Messrs. Saltmarsh & Co. will ship from their stockyards tonight seven cars of cattle and hogs to the Union Meat Co., Portland.

Four city prisoners working at the city pound, escaped yesterday afternoon and fled to Rowena. The marshal followed them and brought them back.

Mrs. LaBallster's new millinery store is attracting much attention. She will have something new to show the ladies of The Dalles tomorrow.

W. J. Peddicord edits a populist column in the Wasco News. Editor Armsworthy drily makes the suggestion in the last issue that he take a bath. We look for a deluge in the next issue.

Mr. Chas. F. Stephens, of dry goods fame, has been very busy the last few days disposing of an immense stock of new and salable spring goods, which are sure to appeal to the fancies of the ladies of The Dalles and vicinity.

The assignee's sale of jeweler's goods from W. E. Garretson's store will be resumed Wednesday April 11th at half past 1 p. m., and continued each day until every thing is sold. Sale to be in the building formerly occupied by Sam Klein on Washington street.

The West Coast Trade says: New Whatcom stands a good show of getting a fruit and vegetable cannery in operation this season. J. C. Wyncoop and Code, Elfeldt & Co., San Francisco cannerymen, have expressed an intention of visiting the city, and if the prospects are found favorable, which there seems little reason to doubt, they will take the matter in hand and put in the much-to-be-desired plant.

'Guy,' the general favorite, a huge St. Bernard belonging to Judge Blakeley, was puzzled this morning. Mrs. Blakeley left on the boat and Guy was not permitted to go. He kept his eyes fastened on his mistress as the boat pushed out in mid stream as long as he could see her. And as long as the boat was in sight he followed it with an in-

THE MARKETS.

A Slight Improvement to Be Noted--The Fruit Outlook Good--Latest Quotations.

FRIDAY, April 6--Business of the week has exhibited a coloring of improvement. All branches have felt the influence of settled weather and an improved condition of the roads.

Prices are steady on staples, with the exception of white beans, which are quoted a shade higher. In dried fruits there is a disposition to advance quotations on accounts of the reported loss of the fruit crop of the East and the Mississippi valley.

The local market for provisions and produce continues quite steady. Dealers report a fair supply of potatoes and an improved market quotation varying from 40 to 50 for table use to 60 cents per sack for seed.

The vegetable market is only fairly well supplied. Cabbage are scarce at 2 1/2 cents per lb. Eggs are quotable at 8 to 10 cents per dozen. Owing to the low quotations the arrivals have fallen off considerably and an advance is anticipated.

The poultry market is quite sluggish and a decline of 50 cents per dozen is reported since last week's report.

The live stock market continues steady in the face of a good reserve in sight. Stall-fed steers are quoted at $2.35 to $2.50, grass-fed at $2 to $2.25, and feeders at $1.75 to $2 per 100 lbs.

Mutton sheep are in fine demand at $2 to $2.25. Fat hogs are in usual demand at $3.75 per 100 lb gross.

The grain market continues lifeless, while Chicago and New York markets have advanced somewhat and report a stronger tendency. Our Western markets are not in a corresponding sympathy and remain steady on former quotations.

Electric Railroad Mail Service.

In establishing an electric railway mail service Ottawa, Can., has made a move which is likely to be followed by many other progressive cities. The mail cars are run on the ordinary city lines, and are found to greatly improve the house to house delivery of mail, as well as the collection of letters from lamp-post boxes.

A Mouse for a Companion.

One of the quaint remembrances of Robert Louis Stevenson's south sea life is that of his Honolulu mouse. A small shelt hung over the couch whereon he used to lie when ill and trying to forget his pain in 'tooting' on his flageolet.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Neighborhood News Contributed by Local Writers.

MORO.

The republican county convention met here on the 24th and made the following nominations:

- Clerk--S. S. Hayes. Sheriff--Wm. Holder. Treasurer--H. A. Thompson. Assessor--C. C. Kune. School Supt--J. M. Morrison. Surveyor--J. R. Belshe. Coroner--Dr. C. R. Rollins. Commissioner--R. P. Orr. Delegates to the state convention--J. D. Wilcox, Frank Pike and W. H. Moore.

We predict that their ticket will make a clean sweep next June, as the nominees are all good, substantial citizens, and well qualified for the place indicated.

A resolution was adopted, favoring such change in the laws as would make taxes due and delinquent on Nov. 1, instead of April 1st, as at present.

The utmost harmony existed throughout the meeting and the party is gaining ground steadily. Another republican club was organized at Kent last week, making six in the county, and still the good work goes on.

YANK.

DUFUR.

Rich signs of spring begin to tip the willow and the ash. And the boy of eighteen trims his lip, To start a fierce mustache.

Rev. Jenkins will preach here Saturday and Sunday nights. Johnston Bros. successfully deboned and branded forty head of cattle one day last week.

The democrats are looking sour over the prospects of the coming election, and no wonder.

Gardening will soon be in style and as it is the berry patches are being enlarged as well as fruit and shade trees being planted.

Stock are doing well, the grass being good for so early in the spring and is rapidly growing under the influence of old Sol's genial smile.

The city election occurred last Monday, at which the following were re-elected: Mayor, A. J. Dufur, jr.; treasurer, C. P. Balch, and recorder, A. J. Brigham.

Mr. E. C. Warren starts soon with the S. B. wagon for a tour of Yakima, the Sound and other parts of Washington, where he will sell the famous S. B. remedies.

Farmers are booming the work and plows have been running for two weeks around Dufur, while on the ridge they have hardly commenced on account of the ground not being in good condition. Well, it is hard to compete with the Dufurites in anything.

What more shall I say? There is no one married, no one born, no one moved away, no runaways, no one running for office and getting beaten, but notwithstanding all this, Dufur is by no means dead like Mitchell, for Johnston Bros. sell not only 'a spool of thread,' a 'yard of print,' but seem to be busy as they generally are, and the school is progressing, although somewhat thinned out by so many large boys leaving for spring work.
