THE SEQUEL.

Morrison Released and Mrs. Rose Brown Leaves for Home.

Dr. Morrison, the deceiver of Mrs. Rose Brown, was released before Justice Schutz' court this morning, the private prosecutor failing to appear and he could no longer be held.

It is learned that Mr. Brown, of Boise, made strenuous efforts to have him brought there for trial, but the governor of that state refused to grant requisition papers, with the presumable object of saving his state expense, and saddling it on to Oregon, where a trial must be had if anywhere.

Mrs. Brown and her two little children, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Robert Grant, who came from Pendleton Thursday evening, and Mr. Bolinger, the private detective, left last night for home in Boise. The injured husband on returning from Silver City, was frantic, and upon hearing of Morrison's arrest in The Dalles, armed himself with a deadly weapon, and was preparing to leave post haste for this city.

Mrs. Brown was undoubtedly under hypnotic influence, and said before her departure that she is powerless to act for herself in Morrison's presence. Away from him she detests him.

It is unfortunate for the benefit of society that Morrison was released instead of punished by law, but our officers here were powerless under the circumstances. He will hardly dare to present himself in Boise City again, as his life would not be safe.

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION.

How Wool Men Can Get More for Their Clip.

Mr. D. J. Cooper today received the following letter from Keyser, Fiskler & Co., commission wool merchants of Philadelphia, which shows growers how they often lose a cent a pound on their wool clip.

DEAR SIR—The preparation of wool for market is of the utmost importance; one of the greatest complaints against territory wools is the paint that remains on them from marking; this alone often loses the grower a cent a pound or more. In discussing the subject today the suggestion comes to us that the shearer, before commencing on the sheep, could clip the top of the staple just where the paint is; it would take but a minute or so and would appreciate the value of wool at least a cent a pound. We know it will pay you to give this your consideration, and we would be pleased to hear from you as to the practicability of our suggestion. Yours truly, KEYSER, FISLER & CO.

Fruit in Ten Eastern States.

A late number of an Eastern exchange says: "Reports from correspondents in ten states, as to the injury done to crops by the recent severe cold weather, show the damage to wheat is small in the aggregate, but very bad in some localities where the plant has more rapid growth. The disaster to fruit was widespread, the states where trees were most favored suffering most. In the northern sections of a number of the states, the larger fruits were saved for the reason that they have been held back in development. The 10 states reporting are as follows: Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa.

The Lincoln-Schofield-Pullman Party.

Lieut. Col. R. M. Schofield of Gen. Schofield's staff, made a very pleasant call on THE CHRONICLE office, while we were getting out our weekly last evening. General Schofield and staff and Hon. Robt. T. Lincoln are guests of Geo. M. Pullman, esq., of Pullman car fame. The party consists of George M. Pullman, Major-General Schofield, of Washington, commanding the army of United States; Robert T. Lincoln, of Chicago, son of Abraham Lincoln, and who served in President Garfield's cabinet as secretary of war, and in President Harrison's administration as the minister to England; J. W. Doane, president of the Merchants' Loan & Trust company, of Chicago; P. L. Yoe, vice-president, and John de Doven, director of the same institution; Henry Elliot, of Brooklyn, N. Y., one of the largest shoe manufacturers in the country; Lieutenant R. M. Schofield, son of Major-General Schofield and an aide on his staff; and Edgar J. Mayer, private secretary to Mr. Pullman.

They were highly favored with beautiful weather during the entire trip west until they reached Portland, when, for disagreeables they had it in its intensity. On coming east of the mountains they were, comparatively speaking, under California skies and in an exhilarating atmosphere. Mr. Pullman expressed himself as quite taken with this country, and believes it has great possibilities in store for it. The other members of the party were delighted with their stop-over at the gate of the "Inland Empire."

General Schofield is a well preserved personage, and one to see him, would hardly think he was near his retirement, which will take place one year from next September. Robert T. Lincoln is an older-looking man than many here imagined him to be. He bears scarcely a resemblance to his father, having the regular features of the Todds instead. Lincoln was secretary of war under both Garfield and Arthur and recently minister to England.

The woman who works, and is tired, will find a special help in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Perfectly harmless in any condition of the female system. It promotes all the natural functions, and builds up, strengthens, regulates and cures. For every woman approaching confinement, nursing mothers, and every weak, run-down, delicate woman, it is an invigorating, supporting tonic that's peculiarly adapted to their needs. But it's more than that, too. It's the only guaranteed remedy for all the functional disturbances, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of womanhood. In "female complaints" of every kind, periodical pains, bearing-down sensations, internal inflammation, and kindred ailments, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.
