APRIL ANNOTATIONS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The country's in a shiver,
And the vales with snow are filled;
But 'twas that which makes us quiver, But the croaker—Lord, deliver!
With: "The Fruit Crops Killed!"

The drug store of E. W. Helm & Co. closed its doors this morning.

Mr. N. H. Gates of this city was appointed notary public this morning.

No news of importance can be received in regard to the democratic convention at Astoria today.

D. W. Aldridge of the Prineville News, has retired as manager and editor and the paper will henceforth be republican.

Mr. North, who bought a large quantity of apples last winter, shipped a carload today, destined for Idaho markets.

The bulkhead at the locks is nearly done and 275 additional workmen have been employed. Others will be employed as fast as they can be secured.

Mr. C. M. Grimes bought 125 head of beef cattle yesterday and shipped them to Meeker, Wash., paying $1.50 per 100 pounds for fat cows and $2 per 100 pounds for steers. They were fattened on wheat and hay.

The Northern Pacific has made cut rates on canteloupes 75 cents per hundred pounds and other fruits $1 per hundred. The Union Pacific could do a similar service for this section, and would be highly appreciated.

Several fish were caught last night and this morning in the river. The catch is mostly steel-heads, and these are believed to have come directly from the ocean. With a falling river the catch will materially increase.

Mrs. H. D. Harford, state lecturer for the W. C. T. U., will lecture in the court house on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harford is the nominee of the prohibition party for state school superintendent and will have something to say about that office.

Wingate hall was comfortably filled Saturday night and the new seats put in last week added to its appearance as well as to the comfort of the spectators.
Those weekly soirees given by the Smith Bros., are growing in favor and are enjoyed so much by the young folks as to make them look forward to Saturday night with the pleasant anticipation.

A domino whist party was given by Mrs. Hugh Gourlay in Goldendale Saturday evening, on the occasion of the birthday of Mr. Gourlay. There were about fifty present, the gentlemen wearing pink and the ladies blue dominos.
Each player was required to guess the name of his or her partner, a very difficult matter, as one could be judged only from the hands, the remainder of their person being concealed by the domino.
The party was very successful, we learn, and occasioned much merriment.

Telephone Etiquette.

Ring bell for central and put your phone to ear at once, and wait for answer from central. Then call the number you wish. The connection will at once be made when you will ring through, no answering ring to be made.
A signal of one bell from a subscriber that he is through speaking is not necessary.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Ed Zeys and Roy Bently, two Linn county boys, have been bound over to the grand jury for a wanton and brutal assault with stones they made upon a Chinese peddler, beating him up and permanently disabling his horse. On the way to Corvallis they gave the constable the slip, and have not yet been recovered. The horse afterward had to be killed, and the boys, it is learned, were given $100 by their friends and enabled them to escape on the California overland. This makes four Albany boys in California in hiding for their misdeeds.

Fred Neibold escaped from the county jail at Salem, Monday morning about 3 o'clock. With an old knife he sawed through a bar of his cell, thus gaining the freedom of the corridor. Going to the back of the jail, he sawed through a wooden door and another iron bar, escaping without being seen. Neibold was arrested about two weeks ago at Silverton for burglary, and was held to appear before the grand jury. He is also wanted in Multnomah county on a similar charge. A reward has been offered for his apprehension.

Go to the Columbia Packing Co.'s Central Market for choice sugar cured ham, at 12½ cents a pound.

Ask your grocer for Columbia Packing Co.'s smoked meats and lard. Insist on their prices and accept no substitute.

Boneless hams at 11 cents; select breakfast bacon at 12½ cents per lb; choice kettle leaf lard, 5-lb pails, 55 cents; 10-lb pails at $1 at the Columbia Packing Co.'s Central Market.

There is no necessity for buying Eastern smoked meats and lard when you can secure a better article of home production for less money. Call at the Central Market and examine the Columbia Packing Co.'s meats and prices, and be convinced.

Notice.

To Whom It May Concern: This is to notify all persons not to trust or harbor my wife, Emily E. Pratt as she has left my bed and board without cause or provocation. I will pay no debt of her contracting after this date.

MORO.

Rev. Morehead preached for the Methodists at the Presbyterian Church, morning and evening.

Everything is dull and lifeless in the little towns, which is enlivened only occasionaly by a political gathering of the different parties.

Farmers are very busy seeding and summer fallowing. The season is very late and ice was found this morning on the standing water.

Rev. Van Patten visited Moro on Saturday and was intending to go to Grass Valley to speak in the interests of the populists in the evening, but was prevented from doing so by illness.

There was a prohibition meeting at Monkland Saturday evening. There is to be another at Grants on Wednesday evening and at Grass Valley on Saturday evening. The populists held a meeting at the last-named place Saturday evening last.

I understand that Rev. J. M. Morrison has declined the nomination of county school superintendent on the republican ticket and has been appointed to take the place of Mr. Thomas, who was nominated to fill that office on the prohibition ticket, but was obliged to go to his father, who was very ill in the Valley, and so could not serve.

On Sunday Elder Grant preached at Baptist Church, morning and evening, and at Erskineville at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. A Baptist Sunday school was organized there at 3 o'clock with the following officers and teachers: Superintendent, J. W. Messenger; assistant superintendent, J. O. Powell; secretary, Mrs. Ella Powell; chorister, J. J. Shaeffer was elected teacher of the Bible class, J. O. Powell teacher of the young people's Bible class, and Mrs. J.
B. Mowry and Mrs. J. W. Messenger for the two classes of children. There are prospects of good work being done in this community in this line, as the people are anxious to engage in Sunday School work.

Special Correspondence.

CORVALLIS, April 14, '94.
The boys of Canthorn hall take great pride and interest in the reading room.
The chevrons upon the O. A. C. cadet officers present quite an attractive appearance.

The mechanical students are doing some fine work on both the wood and iron lathes.

The O. A. C. printing office is very busy issuing bulletins for the college experiment station.

Numerous visitors from different parts of the state have addressed the students during the past week.

Last Monday Prof. Washburn received two large frogs from California for demonstration purposes in the O. A. C.
Prof. Coote has just received some three-horned toads from California—a male, female and their offspring, which he procured to eat insects off the flowers in the greenhouse.

The baseball game between Albany college and the O. A. C. on the latter's campus today resulted better than two to one in favor of the O. A. C., yet there is room for improvement on both sides.
The O. A. C. Athletic Association held its quarterly meeting last Saturday night for the election of new officers for the ensuing term, which resulted as follows: Thomas Beall president, R.

E. Golden secretary, H. W. Kelly treasurer.

The Independent Workers Lodge of the order is, we believe, the baby lodge of the state. What a promising baby it is—only three weeks old and very lively indeed and weighs one hundred and three pounds (members). Those who were present Monday evening, April 16th, enjoyed the entertainment very well. Friends, come in and help, and enjoy yourselves every Monday evening at Fraternity hall. Listen to baby's prattle again soon.

Republican Speaking.

FAIRFIELD, Or., April 16, '94.
Editor of THE CHRONICLE: There will be a political speech at Fairfield, April 28, 1894, under the management of the republican club.
All are cordially invited.
