

TO BRACE UP the system after "La Grippe," pneumonia, fevers, and other prostrating acute diseases; to build up needed flesh and strength, and to restore health and vigor when you feel "run-down" and used up, the best thing in the world is Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It promotes all the bodily functions, rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the entire system.

For the most stubborn Scrofulous, Skin or Scalp Diseases, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, and kindred ailments, the "Discovery" is the only remedy that's guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Isn't it safe to say that no other blood-purifier can be "just as good?"

If it were, wouldn't it be sold so?

Can you think of anything more convincing than the promise that is made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy? It is this: "If we can't cure your Catarrh, we'll pay you $500."

BATHING IN ALASKA.

Cold Enough to Give a Cast-Iron Man a Chill.

Up in Alaska the method of taking a bath is somewhat heroic, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Every trading post has a bath-house, and the people are supposed to avail themselves of its privileges once a week. A person accustomed to living in a milder climate would have a good deal of hesitancy about undressing in one of these places, as the temperature is always below zero. In an inner room an arch of stone is built so that a fire made beneath can penetrate through. A trap door in the roof answers for a chimney. After the stones have become thoroughly heated and the smoke has passed out, all the coals are removed and the trap door closed. In this room stands a cask of warm water and another that is ice cold. When the bather enters he pours hot water on the stones until the room is filled with steam; then taking a seat on a bench, he waits till the perspiration streams from every pore in his body. Next he takes a bunch of dried twigs and leaves, prepared for the purpose, with which he scrubs himself till all the impurities have been removed from the skin, following this with a wash-off in warm water and soap. He concludes his bath by dashing a bucket of ice cold water over his body, and then rushing to the dressing room, where, with his teeth chattering and shivering in every limb, he resumes his clothes.

OUR FIRST CORNISH MINERS.

Their Introduction into the Mining Regions of the Southwest.

Perhaps the earliest experiment in introducing Cornish miners into the southwest mining region was that made in the '70s by the English owners of mines on the Maxwell grant, in Colfax county, northern New Mexico. The cowboys and Mexicans looked in amazement at the immense, dark, muscular fellows from Cornwall, who were so handy at sparring and wrestling, and who knew absolutely nothing about a "gun." The cowboys and miners got along together with reasonable amity, and in later years, with the general mining development in New Mexico, other west of England men have been brought by mining companies, or have drifted on their own account, into the mountain regions of that territory. Thus a Briton traveling in southwest New Mexico, on approaching a little hamlet by night, was surprised and pleased to hear the heartiest and jolliest of old English ditties, sung with the broadest west of England "burr," and accompanied in the proper places by vigorous stamping and a chorus of manly voices in the same brogue. He had stumbled upon a little settlement of Cornishmen, established a short distance west of Pinos Altos, and known as "Jacktown."

A HUNTER'S GOOD LUCK.

If He Had Found His Bear It Might Have Gone Hard with Him.

The hunters were sleeping in their cabin in the mountains of Idaho one September morning, when the tallest one, Bill by name, woke with a start, listened intently for a moment and then sprang to his feet and dressed hurriedly. Then he snatched an old muzzle-loading musket from the corner, and shouting "Bear!" at the top of his voice, dashed out of the cabin. Hours passed and the sun was low when Bill returned, tired and hungry and without bear meat. He had followed a trail through thickets, through swamps and over hills, sometimes catching a glimpse of black fur, but never getting a chance to shoot, till at last he lost the trail in a rocky gorge and was forced by the approach of night to give up and return empty handed. The other two hunters sympathized with their companion until one of them suddenly happened to see on the shelf the lock of the gun, where William had placed it the night before after clearing the musket. "Well, I'll be hanged!" cried Bill, when the discovery was communicated to him. Then he reflected a little and said cheerfully: "What's the odds? The bear didn't know that."

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.

THE INDIAN MONEY LENDER.

He Is as Hard-Hearted and Mercenary as a Shylock.

The Indian money lender almost everywhere is a thorough Shylock. Rejah Brooke tells me that in Sarawak, where land may be sold for debt, unless a penalty for swindling, and where a limit is put on the interest that his courts will enforce, the Indian money lender has been found as hard and merciless as the Chinaman and Malay are fair and reasonable. With men like these, says the National Review, and an ignorant peasantry, one would have thought that English judges would have done their best so to administer the law between the two as to give the debtor a fair chance, while allowing the creditor what was justly due. But they are so hidebound, such slaves to the letter of the law and to English precedents, that not a helping hand can the debtor get, and the courts are mere machines which the money lender sets in motion or directs at his pleasure.

I remember a case in which a Mohammedan lady, one who never appeared in public, and the owner of a valuable village, was sued for something like fifty thousand rupees, the money advanced being, so far as I could ascertain, not more than two thousand rupees at the outside. The court of first instance, a native subordinate judge, appointed a committee to examine the creditor's accounts, which reported them as very suspicious. Still, a bond for the amount sued for had been given, and, in face of rulings by the high court, the sub-judge had no alternative but to give a decree for the full sum. And an appeal to the high court of Bombay, which was prosecuted by the lady's friends, met with no success. However much the lady might have been defrauded, they decided the bond was in order and the village must go.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten-fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. The Man and His Stomach.

The charming wife of a congressman, noted for his energetic labor in behalf of his constituents and his general efficiency and unfailing good-nature, is quite a noted cook. When she is to entertain at dinner, she is fond of surprising her guests with a dainty dish of her own preparing. "I believe," she said, when some one complimented her on her accomplishments, "that we grow like what we eat. My husband has a sensitive digestion, and bad cooking came near making a fiend of him and a maniac of me. I set myself to correct this, and I flatter myself that I have succeeded. Improperly prepared food depresses one, and will transform my husband into a cynical pessimist in less than an hour. I really consider that his popularity in his district and his return to congress depend upon the food I give him and the manner in which it is prepared."

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Fort Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says a neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he got a bottle and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakely & Houghton, druggists.
