FIGHT WITH OUTLAWS

Three of the Dalton Gang Killed Wednesday.

A ROYAL WEDDING IN COBURG

Senator Peffer Speaks for the Commonwealers and is Followed by Allen--The Great Northern Strike.

PERRY, Oklahoma, April 19.—A terrible fight occurred about 40 miles east, near Eben mountain, yesterday. The noted outlaws Bill Dalton, Bill Doolan, and another outlaw, said to be Bitter Creek, were killed on the spot, also a woman, a little girl and two deputy marshals. The fight is still in progress and it looks as though the entire gang will be swept out of existence.

A Royal Wedding.

COBURG, April 19.—The Grand Duke of Hesse and the Princess Victoria of Hesse were married here yesterday. Among the guests present were Queen Victoria, Emperor William, Grand Duchess Maria of Russia, sister of the czar, Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, Grand Duke and Grand Duchess Vladimir of Russia, Grand Duke Sergius of Russia, and wife, formerly Princess Elizabeth of Hesse-Darmstadt; Princess Alexander of Hesse, the Crown Prince and Princess of Roumania, the hereditary Prince and Princess of Saxe-Meining, the Prince and Princess Phillippe of Coburg, Prince George of Greece, Prince Herbert of Anhalt and the Princess Henry and Louis of Battenburg. The distinguished assemblage of ladies in court toilettes, sparkling with jewels, bright dresses contrasting with the beautiful, gorgeous uniforms of the male portion of the guests, the elaborate floral decorations, the grandeur of the old chapel and the natural solemnity of the surroundings formed a magnificent spectacle not often rivaled in recent years in any country.

Great Northern Strike.

ST. PAUL, April 19.—The Great Northern employes at Minneapolis were ordered out by telegraph at midnight, and the night switch crews left work. The first move toward a settlement of the strike was made today by President Davis and Vice-president Howard seeking a conference with President J. J. Hill.

COXEY IN THE SENATE.

Populist Members Speak for the Commonwealers.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Senator Peffer stirred up quite a hornets' nest by calling up the resolution for the appointment of a committee on communications to receive the petitions of Coxe's army. He explained that the object of the resolution was to begin preparations for a proper reception of the body of men and to give them every facility to present their grievance to congress. The senate was regarded by many as the American house of lords, and they would have an opportunity to show it was not out of touch with the people for appointing a committee. The country, he said, was on the verge of trouble, and unless we are wise and managed affairs with discretion we would regret it in the near future. The times are ripe for such a movement, but this is a peaceful one by men coming here to lay their grievances before congress. Mr. Peffer was followed by Senator Allen, populist, of Nebraska, who, while not entirely approving Coxe's action, asserted the perfect right of Coxe and his followers to come to Washington if they chose; not only that but they had a right to come into the capitol and occupy the galleries of the senate, and it would be unwise on the part of the senate to refuse the privilege. They also had a right to be heard, and no man, whether senator or citizen, had the right to deny the right.

DUFUR.

The farmers now are bound to plow. No flies on them we fear; Have plenty of grit Not lacking a bit, And will make up for spoiled wheat next year.

Farmers about here are sowing and two weeks will tell wonders.

R. Sigman drove a carload of fat beeves to The Dalles that averaged 1,100 lbs.

We have considerable sickness this winter and spring, and the new doctor finds steady employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston are in town to attend the funeral that is to be held Thursday, April 19.

Dufur must be doing something, for we see the Central House livery stable is being adorned with a large sign.

Mr. E. S. Hinman is quite sick with an attack of bronchitis. We hope to see him soon in his accustomed place.

Mr. J. Koontz, our worthy assessor, is in town levying assessments, and then we hope our property will not be worth much.

The four Johnston Bros., Prof. Frazier and our would-be assessor, H. Pitman, have all gone to The Dalles, which leaves a vacancy.

Little Ruby Barnhart has been sick with pneumonia, but is some better now. Several others are also suffering with severe colds.

Dr. Russ, dentist from Portland, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Warren, and will fill and extract teeth during his stay of two or three weeks.

Sunday it was quite cold, the water being covered with ice as thick as paper, accompanied by a heavy frost, which, it is feared, will injure some of the fruit.

F. C. Sextant has sold his ranch to Glavy Bros., and is now hauling his remaining grain to town, preparatory to leaving. We do not know just where he will locate.

Dufur is dull now, as some of our business men seem to be out of town, but there are plenty of men left, as the sidewalk in front of the drug store is continually lined with these creatures, sunning themselves and talking politics.

Friday was Arbor day and Prof. Frazier celebrated it by having the school march by drum beat, to the future school grounds and plant several trees beside the one planted last year that is growing nicely, which proves that trees will grow if properly planted.

Dufur has lately been infested by peddlers from, no one knows what nations, who bother people to death, and some are very impudent, almost forcing their goods (which are not the best brand on the market) on to a person if they are wanted or not. They are a common nuisance and ought to be looked after.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston lost their infant son by death, Wednesday, April 18, 1894. The child had been unwell for some time with a cold, but not so bad as to occasion real alarm. They noticed nothing unusual about it in the morning, but at about 9 o'clock it died in a spasm. It was just getting to be old enough to be a great comfort to its mother and was a very sweet baby. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the neighborhood for their loss.

"The child had blossomed fair And looked so lovely on its mother's breast, The source of many a hope and many a prayer, Why murmur that it sleeps, when all at last may rest?"

"Snatched from a world of woe, Where they must suffer most who longest dwell, It vanished like a flake of early snow That melts into the sea, pure as from Heaven it fell."

ENDERSBY.

Cold nights and warmer days. J. J. Lebo of Western Oregon is visiting his son Mr. Thomas Lebo.

Rev. Quinn of Dufur delivered an impressive sermon to an attentive audience at Lower 8-Mile Sunday.

We wish to extend to all an invitation to be present with their baskets at the May party which will be held in Campbell's Grove near Endersby on the 1st.

Fruit trees are blooming and shooting forth their buds and the willows are again assuming a spring-like appearance. A few farmers are through seeding while the majority are still turning the soil.

A fresh egg at William Endersby's farm on the creek a few days since was discovered to contain the form and features of a young chicken, perfect in development with the exception that life was extinct.

Our road supervisor has been serving his summons. His victims must have responded readily, as the roads in this locality are greatly improved and can now be traveled without the wheels occasionally sinking to the hub.

Our correspondent Seville will soon have several broods of chickens on his hands. We extend our sympathy, and earnestly hope he will have better success in his apparently new enterprise than Gen. Coxe is having with his vast army of unemployed. The republican club met at the city hall Saturday evening. Quite an interest was taken in the proceedings and we judge from indications that all present with a few exceptions will be loyal to the party and carry its banner to victory in the approaching contest.

Allen Fligg and Bert Campbell departed today on a pleasure sojourn along the Columbia and Hood River valleys. They will proceed in a westerly direction till Hood River is reached, where they will alter their course to the south toward that grand old landmark Mount Hood whose shining peak elevated far in the heavens, will be a guidance to their eye. We are not informed of the length of their absence, but can state that it is their intention to visit Lost Lake before their return.

Geo. R. Drake, the respected son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Drake of 8-Mile, was laid to rest Monday beside the grave of his brother Joe, whom he dearly loved while on this universe. Rev. Bonney of Wamic preached an eloquent sermon on the good traits of the deceased to the relatives and a large concourse of friends who were present to do justice to the untimely death of their beloved friend and school-mate. The parents and relatives have the sympathy of all in their hour of bereavement.

NEWS NOTES.

The mercury yesterday registered 82 degrees in San Francisco, the hottest day in 23 years for April.

The Brazilian rebellion is ended, the battleship Aquidaban sunk by a torpedo boat in the port of Santa Catharina. De Mello surrendered to the Argentine authorities.

Owing to the Great Northern strike and consequent interruption of traffic, the Grand Army encampment, set for April 25, at Helena, is indefinitely postponed.

Friendless and with no familiar face near her in her last moments, Adele Kingsley, an actress and chorus singer, died in the alcoholic ward in Bellevue hospital N. Y. City last night. The cause of death, as entered on the hospital books, was "alcoholic hysteria."

A Social Reunion.

Mrs. J. M. Patterson gave a number of her lady friends a social reunion yesterday afternoon at her residence, which was highly enjoyable to all those in attendance. The day was one of the lovely April days and the event was a signal success for social enjoyment. After a profitable season thus spent a rare collation of delicacies was served and in connection with it each guest was
