THE DAY HAS COME

This is the Date for Coxeys Parade and Meeting in Washington.

THE PROGRAM TO BE FOLLOWED

When They Reach the Capitol Grounds They Will Break Ranks and Go In Like Other People.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The second day of the commonwealth army in Washington was passed by Commander Coxeys in making arrangements with the authorities for his May-day demonstration, and by the men in the miserable little camp at Brightwood, grumbling at the poor fare provided for them. The long-advocated procession will start tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, if the program is carried out. When Major Moore heard the army would make speeches under the statue of Christopher Columbus he said:

"If they do, they will be arrested." Having finished their public demonstration, the commonwealth soldiers will march to a vacant lot at Second and M streets, southwest, where they will pitch their tents, and the leaders announce this will be the permanent camp of the army of peace. Other contingents are expected to join them tomorrow.

Scenes Around the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Evidences of preparation for the Coxeysites were seen about the halls and corridors of congress today. A double force of officers was on duty. Officers were stationed at all the entrances of the capitol. The lobbies were patrolled giving ingress to the congressional galleries. The officers were polite to sightseers. People came and went with the same freedom as usual. Two large partitions with gates were erected on either side of the main rotunda. Sergeant-at Arms Snow explained the gates were the same as used at the inauguration and were used whenever unusual crowds were expected, to prevent a congestion of crowds in the rotunda; when closed the people would be moved downstairs outside of each door to the basement below. Doorkeepers in the galleries gave seats to all comers, but allowed no loitering in the aisles and corridors.

Acting Foolish in Des Moines.

DES MOINES, April 30.—Rumors of a general tie-up of the railroads running into Des Moines are rife today. Labor leaders said today if Kelley was not furnished transportation inside of four days a strike prepared by the leaders of the American Railway Union would be inaugurated on all the roads here and the tie-up continue until the army was carried to Chicago. A mass meeting of laboring men is called for tonight, and it is looked forward to with apprehension. Committees of the labor organizations were busy all day getting food and money. It is asserted that the Great Western would furnish a stock train for $1,900, and soliciting committees were confident that the amount would be raised. Threats of violence should the railroad refuse a train were numerous. Kelley's men declare they will leave Des Moines only by rail. Mayor Hillis sent word the Kelley army would be expected to move tomorrow. Annie Hooten and Edna Harper, who had been with the army all week, were told by Kelley today they could march with the industrials no farther. Miners of suburban towns sent their sympathy to Kelley today and announced they would participate in tonight's mass meeting.

No Coxeys in the House.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—There will be no Coxeys talk in the house of representatives if those who direct legislation can prevent. Resolutions bearing on Coxeys' bills or the treatment of hearings for the Coxeys delegation will be promptly referred to committees without debate, and there is no likelihood the measure will emerge until the agitation subsides. The only means by which a reference to Coxeys can be made will be the injection of a Coxeys speech into the debate on one of the pending appropriation bills.

OUTRAGE AND MURDER.

Young Girl Assaulted by a Early Negro.

STANTON, Va., April 30.—Charles Bradford was escorting Lottie Rowe home from a dance at her uncle's in the country early yesterday morning, when they were met at the side of a deep railroad cut by Lawrence Spiller, colored. Spiller is a powerful blacksmith, more than six feet high and weighing about 240 pounds. He knocked Bradford senseless with a bludgeon, and hurled his body down the side of the railway track. Then he took the girl to a field. When Bradford recovered consciousness he ran to the home of the girl's uncle, where the dance had been held, and gave the alarm. The girl's mutilated body was found on the railroad track just before a belated train went by. After accomplishing his purpose, Spiller had beaten the girl's head into a jelly, and pounded her legs and stomach with a bludgeon. Spiller was tracked to his cabin by the officers, who arrested him and found a negro woman in the act of burying his bloody clothing. An inquest resulted in Spiller's being held, and a special grand jury will take up the case today. Lynching was considered, and Clifton Forge people telegraphed "if you need any force to take the negro we can furnish 200 men." Judge Chalkley accordingly put a special posse of 150 men at the sheriff's disposal, and ordered the West Augusta guards on duty for the night. It seems that Spiller had been at the dance, playing cards and drinking whiskey with the father of his victim. The crime was committed within five minutes' walk of the girl's home. In the field were found her hat and the bludgeon.

Hogan's Army Are Prisoners.

HELENA, Mont., April 30.—Hogan's army, numbering 330 men, were brought here on a special train at 9 o'clock by soldiers from Fort Keogh. The prisoners were taken to the fair grounds, two miles from the city, where they and the soldiers made camp.

PROTECTION.

What did our fathers in their quest Of eco omic plans the best Fluid in the lead of all the rest? Protection.

What then became their guide and chart? What bade the workman take heart? What gave America her start? Protection.

And in a word of push and drive Where but the steed can survive? What keeps our Uncle Sam alive? Protection.

What makes the Englishmen look grim? What makes the wheels of labor hum? Why do the emigrants still come? Protection.

What gives the laborer a chance To live, not only, but advance? What puts good money in his pants? Protection.

What gives us wealth as well as might? What makes our land a land of light? What makes our homes so blost and bright? Protection. —Economist.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

If You Saw Your Own Wood

and saw enough of it, your digestive organs may perhaps be equal, ostrich like, to any task you impose—even to the digestion of lard-cooked food.

If however, like thousands of other people, you have learned that you must "draw the line at lard," this is to remind you that there is a clean, delicate and healthful vegetable substitute, called which if used in place of lard, permits you to eat pies, pastry, patties and such "good things" without fear of dyspeptic consequences.

COTTOLINE

There's abundant proof, but none so convincing and so pleasant as a trial for yourself. We invite it. For sale everywhere. REFUSE ALL SUBSTITUTES. Genuine made only by N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., ST. LOUIS and CHICAGO, NEW YORK, BOSTON.

NEWS NOTES.

The loss of life by last week's earthquakes in Greece is estimated at 400. There are 20,000 homeless.

Widow Probiecek, Brooklyn, committed suicide yesterday. She saturated her bed with oil, lay down, then ignited the bed, and roasted to death. Firemen extinguished the flames.

"We expect to win the fight within 48 hours," President Debs said Monday. He said he made the statement on the authority of the general manager of another road who told him Hill would grant the demands of all the employes within that time.

Mrs. Sanders, wife of Professor Sanders, who is now in jail at Fresno, charged with the murder of William Wootten, has succumbed to the terrible mental strain under which she has been suffering almost since February last, and has become insane.

In the senate yesterday Senator Turpie made the sensational statement that Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island had told three deliberate falsehoods. After the attack, which amazed everyone, Mr. Aldrich said: "In the position the senator from Indiana now takes, he speaks for no one but himself. Under other circumstances and conditions I do not believe he would have made the speech he has made." This closed the incident.
