NEW IMPROVED Little Wonder Fire Lighter.

NEVER WEARS OUT.

A great labor- and money-saver, as it does away with the necessity for kindling of any description in starting either wood or coal fire. It is always ready for use, and a most convenient household contrivance.

Directions for Use.

Take a can and put in sufficient coal oil to cover the lighter, which should remain in the oil for three or four minutes. Then light with a match and place in front of or under the grate. If the blaze goes directly to the fuel, the fire will be quickly started. Keep the lighter in the can of oil and it will always be ready for use.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

MAY MINORS.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Oh, who would not a populist be, And run around with bold docie; To Washington we then all could go, And have a glorious monkey-show.

An adjourned meeting of the city council will be held this evening.

Several fruitgrowers of the county met at the city hall this afternoon for an informal talk.

The Wasco warehouse received six loads of wool today, and has shipped forty-nine bales to San Francisco by the D. P. & A. N. Co.

The despised wind is doing valuable service in dispersing disease germs. Otherwise there might be much more diphtheria than there is.

Mr. G. Wagonblast and family desire to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy manifested in their sad bereavement.

Birgfeld's orchestra will furnish the music at the rendition of "Enlisted for the War" Tuesday, May 15th. This will add greatly to the evening's entertainment.

Miss Nina, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Guthrie, was taken sick with diphtheria on Thursday evening. The case is reported by Dr. Sutherland.

Rev. W. C. Curtis is to exchange pulpits for a month with Rev. Mr. Trow of Albany, and Mr. Curtis will preach his last sermon in this city tomorrow evening until the month expires.

The last of the Smith soires for the season will be given this evening at the opera house. The floor is in splendid condition, and many will doubtless avail themselves of the last opportunity of tripping the light fantastic toe with the dancing club of 1894.

The Columbia River Transportation Company was incorporated in Portland yesterday, with a capitalization of $30,000 by C. H. Leadbetter, F. W. Leadbetter and C. A. Bullen. The company purposes to operate a line of steamboats and barges between Celilo and the head of navigation of the Columbia.—Oregonian.

A populist of the city said today that it was a constitutional provision of the government to issue letters of credit in commercial business. The only reference to the matter in the constitution is where it says: "States shall not issue letters of credit." The subject is a little too heavy for the populist in question. He should not dabble with it. It is beyond his capacity.

Obituary.

Mrs. G. Wagonblast, nee Christina C. Kelf, was born in Wurtenburg, Germany, August 25th, 1825. Her father's family came to America in 1836, and settled for a few years in Ohio. From thence they moved into Missouri, where she was married to Gottlieb Wagonblast January 20th, 1843. In 1855 they put their worldly goods into an emigrant wagon and crossed the plains to Oregon, settling in Oregon City, where they lived until 1862, and then moved into Washington, remaining there till 1872, when they came back to Oregon and made their home on 5-Mile, living there together until her death. She was the mother of thirteen children, of whom six sons and four daughters are now living. In 1865 she united with the United Brethern church, and has lived in strict accordance with her chosen profession, universally beloved by all who knew her.

Mr. Cleland's Speech.

At the opera house last evening Hon. J. B. Cleland was introduced to a Dalles audience by Mr. Frank Menefee, the retiring chairman of the county central committee. Several prominent republicans were on the stand. He occupied the entire evening, speaking for about an hour and a quarter. He divided his attention about equally to the populist and democratic parties, and scored some telling points against them. Referring to Gov. Pennoyer, who is now on the stump in Southern Oregon, he said that in his speeches he is charging the last legislature with extravagance in the matter of appropriations, something like $2,000,000; and that the claim came with poor grace from him, who had it in his power to veto any or all of them. He vetoed only two of them—the world's fair appropriation bill for $60,000 and the militia appropriation bill for $20,000—only $80,000 altogether, a most insignificant sum compared to the whole. He wanted the voters to remember this when they heard the governor in The Dalles. He argued the initiative and referendum at considerable length, and said if adopted it would supplant our cherished representative form of government, in which we take so much pride on occasions like the Fourth of July, and instead of ridding us of politicians would augment their number ten times over. He presented some good arguments why it was impracticable and cumbersome and lacked the experience which its devotees claimed for it. He recommended a careful study of its aims and effects before it was carelessly adopted by the American people. He was less severe on the democrats than the populists, but fairly established their faults of policy and mistakes in government.

PERSONAL MENTION.

It is reported that Hon. Robt. Mays is quite ill.

Mr. H. P. Michell of Goldendale is visiting relatives in the city.

Miss Lulu Bird was a passenger on the steamer Regulator this morning.

Mr. S. D. Cave of Litchfield, Ill., is in the city visiting his nephew, Dr. Eshelman, of this city.

Mr. Edward Patterson was on the streets yesterday, after a serious illness confining him to his bed.

Funeral Services.

The funeral sermon in connection with the burial of Miss Kittie Ridge, recently from Buffalo, N. Y., will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the residence of W. A. Hunt (known as the W. Lair Hill place) on Mill creek.

Miss Ridge was a member of the Dearborn St. Baptist church, of Buffalo, of which Rev. G. E. Burnside is pastor.

Rev. O. D. Taylor, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, will conduct the services. The burial will be at Sunset cemetery at 4 o'clock.

A Famous Snake Killer.

Pennsylvania has many things to be proud of, and one of them is a man with a beard four feet seven and one-half inches long. His name is William H. King and he resides in Springfield township near Connellsville, Fayette county. Mr. King, says the Pittsburgh Post, has never felt the keen edge of a razor upon his classic countenance during the forty-three years of his existence. His beard is of a sandy color and he usually wears it twisted up in a knot and stuffed inside of his vest, but when in very good spirits he allows it to flow unhampered to be toyed with by the gentle zephyrs. Another characteristic of Mr. King's is that he is an accomplished snake killer.

THE CHURCHES.

The Baptist church, Rev. O. D. Taylor, pastor, will hold its regular service tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Preaching by the pastor; Sunday school will follow the morning service. No evening service.

Methodist Episcopal church—Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school after morning service. No Junior League meeting. Being the anniversary of the Junior League, the superintendent, with members of the League, will at 3 p. m. go to the cemetery to decorate the graves of deceased members. Epworth League devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m. Other devotional meetings as usual. All are cordially invited.

The Congregational church, corner of Court and Fifth streets. Services as usual. At 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. worship, and a sermon by the pastor, W. C. Curtis. Topic of the morning sermon, Good out of evil, (Lessons from the life of Joseph). Topic of the evening sermon, Human helpfulness a part of the providence of God. Sunday school immediately after the morning service. Meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Topic, Lessons from the lives of great missionaries. All persons not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

The 30th annual encampment of the Department of Oregon, Grand Army of the Republic, will be held at Roseburg on the 9th of May.

A crazy man in Portland ran a motor car off the track Friday and endeavored to demolish it with a crowbar. The damage is about $200.

Professor E. Grenier, a professor of languages, committed suicide at his home, 911 Water street, Portland, yesterday by shooting himself through the head with a 32-caliber revolver.

Joe Richardson, a well-known ex-conductor on the Union Pacific, now residing in La Grande, has been a large loser by the Grand Ronde river flood. He had a pretty place worth $2,500, and all of it went down stream by piece-meal.

George Morey, the convicted murderer of Gus Barry, will be sentenced to death for the second time on Monday, by Judge Munly. Morey was not in the least phased when he learned of the action of the supreme court. "This ends it for me, unless the governor interferes," he said, coolly.
